WHITE HOUSE

Miss Eleanor R. Wilson united in Marriage to Secretary McAdoo

The Ceremony Was Performed in the Famous Blue Room and Was a Very Quiet One

Washington, May 7-Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson, became the bride tonight of William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, in the historic plue room of the White House. Less than a hundred persons attended the service, conducted by Rev. ter for the second time within a year. court. This was the wish of the clasps, D.S.O.

Miss Sallie McAdoo, ten-year-old daughter of the secretary, led the procession as a flower girl, followed by Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, sister of the bride and matron of honor, and Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the President, maid of honor. Miss Nancy Lane, twelve years old, another flower girl, daughter of Secretary Lane of the interior department, directly preceded the bride, who was escorted by the President. The groom, with Dr. Cary Travers Grayson, U.S.N., best man, who was attired in full dress uniform, met the bride at the altar.

The substerian single ring service words, "Love, Honor and Obey."

Supper was served at small tab.es in the state dining room while the Marine Band played. The bride cut the wedding cake with Dr. Grayson's sword, the young folks had a dance in the blue room and in an unsuspect-ing moment Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo slipped into a writing automobile, motoring rapidl down Executive avenue. They will be away on their honeymoon about two weeks and will holeymoon about two weeks and will following officers for the ensuing year: not go abroad, as has been reported. The secretary expected to keep in close touch with the work of his
