MORE VOLUNTEERS

H. Gray, the officer commanding the 71st Regiment, made a few remarks after which the troops were dismissed for supper.

Bugler Walter White, son of Bandmaster James White, of the 71st Regimental Band, blew the call "fall in" at six o'clock and the troops lined up in the barracks square preparatory to marching to the I. C. R. station.

Through the kindness of the Daughters of the Empire each man was presented with an utility case and his bottle filled with lime juice.

A large crowd gathered around the Military Depot and cheer after cheer was sent up when the 71st Regimental Band played the patriotic selection "O Canada," just before the troops were given orders to march out of barracks. Major W. H. Gray and Capt. H. F. Woodbridge, the recruiting officer, marched to the station with the volunteers, who paraded in fine order and made a splendid showing attired in red serge coats and blue trousers with water bottles, haversacks, great coats and other equipment.

GREAT ATTRACTION AT THE GAIETY

The great moving picture attraction, "Sixty Years a Queen," was put on at the Gaiety Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening to record crowds and made a decided hit. An appropriate musical program was carried out and there were the usual embellishments which added to the realism of the production. The many patriotic features introduced aroused the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. A very successful matinee was put on this afternoon and there will be two performances this evening, beginning at 7.15 and 9 o'clock respectively.

Manager Leavitt will put on this superb attraction at St. Stephen on Monday, at Hartland on Tuesday and at Woodstock on Wednesday. All lovers of British history and admirers of Victoria the Good should make it a point to see this great production.

NAVAL VICTORY FOR BRITISH

A DEEP SILENCE.

London, Aug. 28.—The Chronicle, commenting Friday on "the war's progress," says:

"Since the great disaster which befall the allies in Belgium a silence deeper than ever has been imposed by the censorship."

"From a message sent out twenty-four hours ago by the French embassy showing fighting on the line between Cambrai and Le Cateau, it is apparent that the French have been driven back past their line of frontier fortresses to a point twenty miles behind that line."

"There is no longer any serious fortified obstacles between the German main advance and Paris. Under the circumstances it is not surprising that the French ministry has resigned and reconstituted itself as a committee of public safety."

"Meanwhile, as if a siege of Paris was now looming foremost in their minds their first step has been to appoint a general in supreme command of Paris and its troops."

BEARS WORSE THAN MICE

Mr. David Gillies, of Carleton Place the well known lumberman, received an amusing letter from one of his old fire rangers on the Upper Petawawa a short time ago. For 'people who are afraid of bears, it affords an interesting insight into the contempt entertained for these "varmints" by the real backwoodsman. The ranger writes to Mr. Gillies as follows:

"Bears are a little troublesome this month. They have broken into the hut at Catfish several times during my absence, and have eaten my provisions and upset everything. I had the window nailed up with inch boards and five-inch spikes, and they tore that off and got in again. They come at night, too, and wake me up. I struck one in the face one night as he was trying to climb in the window, and I scared another away when he started to pull down the barricade. The park men told me I should get a heavy revolver. I am not afraid of bears, but they are more troublesome than the mice and squirrels."—Rod and Gun.

Mrs. George A. Cliff is here from California visiting her brother, Dr. Atherton.
