ANOTHER NEW DANCE HAS BEEN INTRODUCED IN N. Y.

Is Known as the Charivari and is Said to be Very Simple—The Past Month a Severe One for Transatlantic Travel
---War on Free Lunch Counters

Washington, D.C., Feb. 28—The much-discussed reorganization of the Democratic State Committee of New York is to be effected at a meeting on Monday. At that time, it is expected, William Church Osborn will be named to succeed George M. Palmer as chairman of the committee. Mr. Osborn is the personal choice of Governor Glynn.

The House Judiciary Committee has fixed Tuesday as the day for listening to arguments of those opposed to the proposed constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women. The anti-suffragists are preparing to attend the hearing in large numbers.

The public presentation to Colonel George W. Goethals of the first medal to be awarded by the Civic Forum for "distinguished public service" is to take place Wednesday evening in New York City. Joseph H. Choate will preside at the ceremony, which will be held in Carnegie Hall.

Interest in the divorce suit brought by Mrs. Elsie Goelet against her husband, Robert Goelet, will be revived when the case is called for trial Tuesday in the Superior Court of Rhode Island. It is reported that Mr. Goelet will not contest the suit.

New York will see a great gathering of baseball enthusiasts at the end of the week, when the world's tourists will be welcomed home from their long trip. Delegations of "fans" are expected to be on hand from Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh and other cities. A banquet at the Baltimore Hotel will be the leading feature of the welcome demonstration.

Conventions of the week will include the annual meetings of the Canadian Mining Institute at Montreal, the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Exchange at Buffalo, and the New England Hardware Dealers' Association at Boston.

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 28—A new dance, known as the "Charivari" has been brought over from Europe by returning tourists and is expected soon to figure on ball programs in this city. The dance begins with a minuet, changes shortly to a "rag" full of life and go, passes then to a waltz or figure Boston and finally ends in a simplified form of maxixe. The "Charivari" stops are said to be so simple that they can be learned in two or three lessons but enough thought is required to keep the dancer on the alert the whole time.

Officers of the transatlantic liners report the month now ended to have been one of the worst they have experienced in years. It has been a month of severe cold and almost continuous storms. Every ship arriving from Europe has come in from three days to a week or more behind her scheduled time. After reaching the docks the passengers have lost no time in scrambling ashore and few have appeared elated over having had several days extra board and lodging at the expense of the steamship lines. One veteran captain who brought his ice-coated liner into port this week, declared the weather had been the worst he had ever experienced in the thirty-five years he had been at sea.

The Department of Health is about to begin a campaign against the free-lunch counter because of its alleged tendency to spread disease. The free-lunch is such a firmly established institution in this city that no attempt will be made to abolish it. But efforts will be made to improve the methods of dispensing the pretzels, bits of cheese and "hot dogs" to the saloon patrons. The public health officials declare the common bar-room fork to be the greatest menace to health. These forks usually rest in a glass of water between attacks on the lunch. In an examination recently undertaken disease germs were found on nearly every fork examined. The saloon proprietors will probably be required to prepare the free lunch in individual portions or to furnish each customer with a separate plate and fork.

For the first time in the history of Bellevue Hospital, women have qualified to become ambulance doctors. Two young women doctors from the Cornell medical school have passed the examinations and it is now up to the board of trustees of the hospital whether they shall become full-fledged internes. The position carries no salary with it but the city provides full maintenance and the positions are generally sought by young doctors for the sake of the practise that that it gives. In the case of the two young women the board of trustees may see fit to exercise its right to reject any applicant, especially since there is some question about quarters for the women doctors, as the hospital has no room fitted for them.

The first National Efficiency Exposition and Conference is to be held in the Grand Central Palace early in April under the auspices of the Efficiency School, Incorporated. The exhibits will show the increasing application of scientific methods of modern conditions and there will be assembled displays of applicants, methods and products in the fields of industrial, mechanical, governmental, educational and household efficiency. Special invitations to participate in the conference to be held during the exposition will be issued to state and municipal officials, heads of colleges and universities, scientific organizations and authorities on efficiency.

In entering upon a campaign of apartment house construction, young Vincent Astor has made rather a radical departure from the policy pursued for several generations with regard to the Astor holdings in New York realty. It has been the custom of the family to hold fast to every foot of ground it has acquired in the metropolis but seldom has any of the Astor money gone into building improvements. With some notable exceptions it has been the rule to let others do the building and for the Astor estate to collect only the ground rents. The present head of the family evidently is of the opinion that it will be a better policy to improve all of the land owned by the family and thereby collect the additional revenue derived from the rents of the stores, dwellings and apartments.

New York hotel keepers, with an eye to the advertising end of their business, frequently engage in a spirited rivalry to secure as guests any member of royalty or other distinguished foreigner who visits these shores. But the announcement that Mohammed Ali Mirza, ex-Shah of Persia, is coming over this summer, has failed to stir any enthusiasm in the breasts of the bonifaces. The most of them freely admit that they are not desirous of entertaining the ex-Shah as a guest. They know little of him personally and have no dislike for him. But they have heard stories concerning his father and predecessors on the Persian throne that are not to their liking as hotel-keepers. They are afraid that a visit from the ex-Shah and his suite would cost them more than the advertising would be worth. It is recalled that when the late Shah made tours of Europe he was in the habit of converting his stopping-places, whether palace or hotel, into slaughter-houses. He satisfy their religious prejudices the Shah and his suite would kill and cook sheep in their sleeping-apartments. It is said to have cost a Paris hotel-keeper thirty thousand dollars to put the apartments in habitable order after the departure of the Shah. Although it is known that Mohammed Ali Mirza is more sophisticated than his predecessors, and is not likely to commit any of the faux pas that made his father's European tours memorable, nevertheless the New York hotel-keepers think it safer to take no chances.

William Church Osborn, who is slated for the chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee of the reform element gains control of that body, is an experienced politician. He became active in the game before he was out of college. While a Princeton student he took an active part in the Cleveland campaign and in 1884 was elected chairman of the Putnam County Democratic Committee, the youngest man who has ever filled the position. In 1894 Mr. Osborn was an unsuccessful candidate for the state senate in a hopelessly Republican district. He has held appointive offices twice. Governor Roosevelt appointed him a member of the State Lunacy Commission. He held that position for two years. For about one year he was legal adviser to Governor Dix. Mr. Osborn is a man of great wealth and also a man of large affairs. His wife before marriage was Miss Alice Dodge, daughter of William E. Dodge, the millionaire philanthropist. A brother of Mr. Osborn is Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn, noted scientist and head of the American Museum of Natural History.

W. W. MAXWELL

CONNIE MACK'S WAY.

The most serious jolt that Mack's system ever received happened several years ago. Two of his most brilliant players, so it is related, started in to add a little something to the gayety of night life in the big league cities. In a short time the boys were hitting only the high-spots. But Connie was not long in nailing the high-fliers and in a heart-to-heart talk he convinced them that they were surely tossing themselves into the discard as well as weakening the team by their dissipation. The convincing arguments of their manager, which included a threat of "back to the bushes," caused the two players to immediately mend their ways and they have since done their full share of work in adding world's championships to the glory of the Quaker City.
