

KIDNEYS CURED AND VITALITY REGAINED

Prominent Ontario Merchant Says He Is Enjoying "The Best Health I Ever Had" Thanks To "Fruit-a-tives".

B. A. KELLY, ESQ.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913

"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work, and I was all run down in condition. I felt the need of some good remedy, and having seen 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their effect I found more than satisfactory. Their action was mild and the result all that could be expected."

My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old time vitality. Today I am as well as ever, the best health I ever had, and I unhesitatingly give you this letter and my photo for publication if you wish."

"The greatest kidney remedy in the world", is what thousands of people say about "Fruit-a-tives". And it is true. "Fruit-a-tives" heals the kidneys, strengthens the kidneys, cures the kidneys, as nothing else will. All over Canada today, hundreds of people who were sick and suffering, are curing themselves of kidney and bladder troubles, Rheumatism, and Lumbago by taking "Fruit-a-tives", the famous medicine made from fruit juices.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.—or will be sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

ORGANIZER CARTER PUTS IT UP TO THE GLOBE

The following letter, written by Mr. E. S. Carter, Liberal organizer, appears in The St. John Globe:

To the Editor of The Globe:

Sir:—In your continued and mysterious references to "Negotiations" in connection with the Dugal charges, you say in an editorial in last evening's issue:

"Why did public men of both political parties talk and bargain over this matter? Who were concerned in the negotiations? What was proposed? What caused the deal to fail? It is as important that the facts of these negotiations be told as it is that the Dugal charges be investigated, for involved in them is the good faith, the honesty of purpose of leading public men. Did any of the men who made the charges or were concerned in having them made, afterwards participate, directly or indirectly, in the negotiations to hush them up? The story of these negotiations must be told?"

It is easy, Mr. Editor, to ask questions. For example, did public men of both political parties talk and bargain over this matter? Were there any negotiations? Were there any propositions?

You seem to assume the affirmative answer to all of these questions and in the manner of your last question there is an insinuation which I think is unworthy of The Globe.

Mr. Dugal made the charges in consequence of information obtained by me and laid before him. Mr. Carvell assisted in framing the charges at our request and I presume you refer to Mr. Carvell, Mr. Dugal and me when you ask: "Did any of the men who made the charges, or were concerned in having them made, afterwards participate directly or indirectly in the negotiations to hush them up?"

The question is an insult, Mr. Editor. Who, with the slightest sense of right, would dream of accusing a political leader of such grave

NEGLECTED A PIN SCRATCH—DEAD!

A boy died last week in the hospital from blood-poisoning, the result of a pin scratch!

Do you ever think such a fare might easily be yours? Suppose you knew that although you have had scratches, cuts, burns, sores and have escaped blood-poisoning so far, the very next time you sustained such an injury blood-poison would set in and you might die! Wouldn't you be very careful to see that the next wound, although only slight, received prompt attention? Certainly.

Now get this further thought. You can't say that the very next cut or scratch or burn or scald you get and neglect will not turn to fatal blood-poisoning. Did it ever strike you that way? The same applies to your children.

The surest safeguard against blood poisoning is Zam-Buk. No single poisonous germ has yet been discovered that Zam-Buk does not kill. ## TREES ON THE PRAIRIE

A New Definition May Soon be Necessary For the Woods

The dictionary defines a prairie as "a level or rolling tract of treeless land covered with coarse grass." Strictly speaking, then, the prairies no longer exist in Canada except locally, for there are no longer any large areas exempt from settlement and the settlers throughout the West have already been supplied with over 24,000,000 trees, all of which have been planted and most of which are growing up in the form of woodlots and shelterbelts. So successful have been these plantations and so great has the demand for trees grown, that the Indian Head Nursery Station which has an annual capacity of approximately three million trees, can no longer supply this demand and it has been necessary to establish a branch nursery at Saskatoon. The opinion was once widespread that the prairies were naturally treeless and many ingenious theories were advanced to account for the treelessness. One was that the soil was too fine; a second that the soil was all right, but that because of the thick sod the tree seeds could not reach it; another theory was that there was insufficient rainfall, and still another that the dry winter winds killed the buds and twigs. The most probable cause of the treelessness of the prairies is man, not Nature. The fact that the Indians long ago were in the habit of setting fire to the forests and grasslands in order to afford better grazing, and that in the fall, when these fires were usually set, the prevailing winds were westerly, seems to prove that from the arid plains of southern Alberta and the United States, the area of treeless land was gradually extended by fire hundreds of miles easterly. But in Manitoba, since these fires have ceased, the western fringe of forest has begun to recover lost ground.
