MORE STARTLING REVELATIONS FROM INVESTIGATION

Berry that he, being an officer of the crown, could not touch the money, but if the lumbermen had decided to go ahead he would find a man to take charge of the fund. So he asked me to take charge of the fund and I did so.

Q.—What was the fund for?
A.—To be used for the good of the party in the province.

Q.—It was as a result of that conversation that you were at the Barker House?

A.—I think I went there at Mr. Berry's request to meet Mr. Brankley.

Q.—You had discussed it with Mr. Berry?

A.—No, not before this.
Q.—You had nothing to do with originating the fund?

A.—No.
Q.—Do you know who did?

A.—No.
Q.—All you know is what you learned at these two meetings?

A.—Yes.
Q.—Was it part of the arrangement that you should be introduced to Mr. Brankley by the premier?

A.—I had no such understanding.
Q.—Then how did you know that he was the man to whom you were to pay the money?

A.—Mr. Berry was there.
Q.—You have no reason to believe that Mr. Brankley's account of the meeting was not accurate?

A.—No.
Q.—Had you any meeting with Mr. Flemming after the others departed?

A.—I cannot tell you.
Q.—Have you any recollection of telling Mr. Flemming the result of the interview?

A.—I could not say whether I did or not.
Q.—You did go to see Mr. Brankley?

A.—Yes, at Chatham.
Q.—Between these times did you discuss the matter with Mr. Flemming?

A.—I have no recollection.
Q.—Do you know that Mr. Flemming knew the result of the meeting?

A.—He knew that I was going.
Q.—And you did go as a result of that meeting?

A.—Yes.
Q.—What did you do?

A.—I went to Chatham, where I was met by Mr. Berry. I went to the Adams House, got a room and went to bed. The next morning I saw Mr. Berry, who was stopping at the Touraine and he told me we would have to go to Newcastle. After lunch Mr. Berry and Mr. Brankley came in an automobile and took me to Newcastle.

"We reached Newcastle and went to the hotel. The others got out of the car and the driver took me for a trip around the town. Then I went back to the hotel and up to the bedroom where Mr. Berry and Mr. Brankley were and they gave me a package. The package contained $14,740 in cash.

"There were no marks of identification that were intelligible to me. Each package was labelled by an initial. I do not know from whom the money came or the separate amount."

Mr. Carvell—Did you not send up river to Mr. Robinson for a deficiency?

A.—I did not. I did not know the amounts to be given.

Mr. Stevens—Did they not tell you who were making the contributions?

A.—I believe they did but I was not interested and have absolutely no recollection of what they said. These names were all strange to me and made no impression. I do not think that the Lynch estate was mentioned because it is familiar to me and I would have noticed it.

Q.—Did you not know John P. Burchill?

A.—I had never heard of him. I think that all the lumbermen who testified here, except Mr. Brankley, were strangers to me.

Mr. Stevens mentioned payments of which evidence had been given totaling only $14,330, but the witness could not tell where the $390 difference came from.

Mr. Stevens—About the money paid through Mr. Moore?

A.—Mr. Berry told me that he had some money and I told him that if he were mixing up in it I did not want to have anything to do with it or to touch it. I told him to put it in a safe place and take care of it.

Q.—Why did you say that?

A.—Because if he was getting mixed up in the collections I did not want to be.

Q.—Did you discuss with Mr. Berry who were to make the payments?

A.—No.
Q.—Did you keep in touch with him to learn who were paying?

A.—No.

FIRST KNEW OF IT FROM FLEMMING.

Q.—The first knowledge of the fund came to you from Mr. Flemming?

A.—Yes, that was the first I knew of it.

J.—You got $14,740; what did you do with it?

A.—I brought it to St. John and put it in a safety deposit box in the Royal Bank.

Q.—Is it still there?
A.—No.

Q.—Tell about the next occasion you got money.

A.—When we left Newcastle Mr. Brankley said there were some further payments and when they came in he would deliver the goods. Some time later he met me at the Royal Hotel and he gave me $22,000. I think that was in July.

Q.—Did he tell you its source?

A.—I think he said it was from the J. B. Snowball Company and Mr. McLean of the Bathurst Lumber Company. He told me the amounts, $15,000 from McLean and the balance from Snowball.

Q.—What else took place at that meeting?

A.—I told Mr. Brankley that he had better take $200 for himself.

Q.—What right had you to do that?

A.—I was the custodian of the fund and I thought that I had a right to do what I thought best.

Q.—Was the payment afterwards confirmed by Mr. Flemming?

A.—Possibly; there was no reason why I should not mention it to him.

Q.—To whom did you account for the money?

A.—I have not yet been told to whom to account.

Q.—The only instructions you had were to take charge of the fund?

A.—That is all.
Q.—What other moneys did you get?

A.—$15,888 from F. C. Beateay of Statson Cutler & Co. I was in Mr. Berry's room and this gentleman came in. I had never seen him before. He said, "Are you Mr. Teed?"

I said, "Yes" and he replied, "I have a parcel for you." I said, "All right put it on the bureau." He seemed to be waiting for something and I offered him a cigar. He asked if he were not to get a receipt and I answered:

"Mr. Beateay, if you are the proper man to handle this parcel you should know that you will get no receipt."

He said, "It is valuable and I should have something to show for it." I said, "If it is a choice between the package and the receipt, take the package." He said, "That is all right" and went out.

"Some time later, in the fall, I was in my room in the Victoria Hotel and Mr. Berry came in saying "Here is a parcel that a man left for you." It contained $3,225 which I understood came from the Partington Company."

Q.—What was the next payment?

A.—I did not get any more.
Q.—Do you know of any others paying Mr. Berry money?

A.—Only through the evidence.
Q.—Did you hear about Luther Smith or W. West paying any?

A.—No.
Q.—Did you have an interview with N. M. Jones?

A.—No. I went with Mr. Berry to his place of business and Berry told me that he was talking to Mr. Jones about a contribution.

Q.—Why did you go with Mr. Berry?

A.—Chiefly for the auto ride.
Q.—Did you not discuss it with Mr. Berry and decide to keep at the company until you got the payment?

A.—I don't think that it was so.

IRISH LEAGUE

fighting in Ireland it is very likely to have far-reaching effects.

In addition to considering the question of aiding the Volunteer movement the executive committee at its present meeting is expected to decide the matter of holding a national convention of the United Irish League this year. It is the general opinion that a convention will be held, probably in October, and that it will take place either in Boston or Philadelphia. It is hoped that the convention will be attended by a delegation representing the Nationalist party, headed by John Redmond and including John Dillon, T. P. O'Connor, Joseph Devlin and other noted leaders. If such a delegation comes over it is proposed to have the members make an extensive tour of the United States and Canada, addressing meetings to be held in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Montreal, Toronto and other cities, thanking the Irish-Americans for the support given the Home Rule movement.

INSURANCE

Long hose-wagon and chemical-engine claim that Monday night's fire shows the necessity for such a piece of apparatus and are booming it as much as possible. They claim that had a motor-truck been in use Monday night four streams would have been on the fire in the time that two were put on Monday night. The hose-wagon had to return to the fire-station for additional hose after laying two lines of hose and the time so occupied seemed much longer to the spectators than it really was. A motor-truck, it is claimed, could easily carry enough hose to deal with a fire of that size. Many citizens now are of the opinion that the Fire Department should have reserve apparatus of some kind and that such was proven by Monday night's fire.
