POLAR CANADA LURES THIS ARTIST

Arctic Explorer and Painter Will Depict Northlands' Icy Fields on Canvas

Jacques Suzanne who understands much about the frigid northland and a painter of no mean ability, will spend three years in the Polar region of Canada where he will brave the cold and hardships in order to give a pictured story of the white solitude to the world.

"I go to paint," said M. Suzanne, speaking to some friends in New York. "I have many commissions to execute for people in Russia and France, and I go also that I may satisfy my curiosity in regard to those blond Eskimaux. I have been much in the North. When I was a very young man—I am 33 now—I spent a year among the Samoyedes Indians or peoples in Northern Siberia. No white man had ever been among them before, and their existence was regarded as a myth. I lived with them, and hunted, and painted, and it was all very wonderful.

"We go north to Albany and then to Ottawa, Canada, and will travel at the rate of thirty miles a day. The dogs have been trained for the past three months, and are ready to keep up that average. Our traveling will be done in two starts of fifteen miles each day. That is, we will travel from dusk until midnight, and from daybreak until noon. The other twelve hours will be resting periods, during which we will work on our gear and make repairs.

Has Great Dogs

The chief feature of my equipment are the two sledges. These are my own invention, and are made of white ash and bound with rawhide thongs. These sledges are equally good for land, ice, or water travel. The motorcycle wheels are placed exactly at the balance point, and each sledge can carry 500 pounds on the ground without fatiguing the dogs. For ice and snow travel, the wheels are removed, and then each sledge will take up to 1,500 pounds. When we strike water, I have heavy oiled canvas covers that fit about the sledges, and make them into boats, and they will carry a ton each.

"I am proudest of my dogs. The leader is one that was with Peary, and the others are all the finest I could get. I have over thirty near Ottawa. In the pack is also the largest sledge dog in the world. He is from the kennels of the Czar of Russia, and weighs nearly 230 pounds. He is my strongest puller. My dogs are very fast. Once on a test run with the snow very deep, and with eleven dogs and 250 pounds on the sledge, I ran eight miles in thirty minutes and thirty-four seconds. This is said to be a world's record.

"It is a fascination to paint in the North, but it has its difficulties. The cold is so intense that the paints freeze, and on my last trips I have always had to use a red-hot stone to place my paintbox on. This was unsatisfactory because it would quickly lose its heat. Thanks to a suggestion and design made for me by a man, I will not have this trouble on this trip. He designed a paint box combined with a hot water jacket, protected from the cold by a vacuum that will keep the paints fluid. The vacuum will keep the water hot for many hours, and as my palette fits the lid of the box, its paints will always be ready for use."

Jacques Suzanne was born in Trouville, and first went to the North before he was of age. His parents still live in France. He is unmarried.

The Massachusetts supreme court has ruled against the use of the "unfair" list by labor unions. Canada had 176,000 trade unionists at the end of 1913, an increase of 16,000 for the year.

WHY NOT SPORTS?

It seems to us that one of the best means to encourage general interest in the country as a place to live in is for communities to aid in organizing amateur sport and give the young people a reasonable amount of time in which to make themselves proficient in the particular sport in which they desire to engage. If the farm work has to be stopped one or two nights a week a half an hour or a hour earlier in order that the chore may be done in time to get to the ball field, it will in the end mean a very small loss; in fact, it generally proves a gain, as interested boys are much better workers than those who look upon their daily operations as drudgery with no play thrown in. The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," will never wear threadbare. It is just as true to-day as it ever was, and we believe the parents and the older folks generally should take an interest in the sports of the young people. There is a great means of developing not only good physique but first class mental training in meeting opponents on a common ground fairly and squarely, and doing the utmost that lies within one's power to win on a fair basis a game of football, baseball or lacrosse. Many a man owes the measure of self control which he has in his older life to experiences on the diamond or grid iron. There is plenty of land in the country to provide athletic fields, and there should be sufficient interest taken to insure a number well supplied with the best possible pastimes which amateur sport offers, and where the people know the players, take an interest in the teams, and everything is done on a square and fair basis for the pure "fun of the thing."—Farmer's Advocate.

A Royal Race

Among the fine old kings that reign Upon a simple wooden throne, There's one with but a small domain Yet, mark you, it is all his own.

And though upon his rustic towers No ancient standard waves its wings, Thick, leafy banners flushed with flowers From all the fragrant casements swing.

And here, in royal homespun, bow His nut-brown Court at night and morn— The bronzed Field Marshal of the Plough, The Chancellor of the Wheat and Corn.

The Keeper of the Golden Stacks, The Mistress of the Milking Pail, The bold Knights of the Ringing Axe The Heralds of the Sounding Flail

The Ladies of the New-mown Hay, The Master of the Spade and Hoe The Minstrels of the Glorious Lay That all the Sons of Freedom know

And thus, while on the seasons roll He wins from the inspiring sod, The brawny arm and noble soul That serve his country and his God

The writer of the above, James McCarroll, was an Irish journalist, who came from county Longford in 1831 and settled in Ontario.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

THE floors and doors appear to wait until the dust germs congregate; the housewife hails each dawning day with grim and harrowing dismay. Says she: "My work will NEVER end; o'er dusty stretches I must bend, until, with aching back and hands I finish what the day demands."

The "Floor-and-Door-a" Girl

work and the endless doors, until when Hubby saw them, too, reflections said: "Why, howdy-do!"

"The Gold Dust Twins," said she, "I find, help leave the woes of dust behind. Each mark of sticky hands on doors, each tread of muddy feet on floors, all fade before the slightest touch of Gold Dust, and the work is such that, when the woodwork has been done, I find said work was only fun."

This line of reasoning must show that those who've tried it OUGHT to know. If you, in one day's duties, find that there's a Grouch in every Grind, invite the Gold Dust Twins to share such tasks as tire and fret and wear.

From kitchen floor to bedroom suite, these tireless little chaps make neat, and best of all, the sum expense is measured up in meager cents. They put both dust and dirt to rout and run the last old microbe out.
