VON KLUCK'S ARMY IN A TIGHT PLACE

FRENCH-CANADIAN FORCE.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 29—A French Canadian force, numbering five thousand men, is to be raised for service with the British army in Europe. Among the thirty thousand men gathered for the first expeditionary force there are two thousand, five hundred French-Canadians.

Leading men among them feel this does not adequately represent them. Sir Wilfrid Laurier last week wrote Premier Sir Robert Borden, asking the government to undertake the enlistment of a distinctively French Canadian force for service abroad.

Today a delegation of leading citizens from the Province of Quebec, conferred with Sir Robert Borden and Minister of Militia Hughes. Dr. Arthur Mignault of Montreal, offered $50,000 as a gift to the government toward the expense of equipping this force.

The government accepted the gift and recruiting will commence at once.

London, Sept. 30—A Paris dispatch to the Exchange Telegram Company says:—

"It is stated here tonight (Tuesday) that the German right has been entirely broken and is now being pursued by the allies. All automobiles in Northern France have been requisitioned for the purpose of pursuit. "Armored motor cars with mitrailleuses are also being used to pursue the retreating enemy.

"The official communication issued at three o'clock demonstrates unmistakably that the Germans have been surrounded in the Somme department, the French front extending further east.

"It is officially stated that Peronne has been recaptured.

The above message has been referred to the British official press bureau, which, while not objecting to its publication, takes no responsibility for its correctness.

Paris, Sept. 29—The French official statement issued this afternoon says: "On our left wing along the River Somme, the Germans attempted numerous attacks which the allies repulsed."

The text of the statement is as follows:

"First—Our left wing to the north of the Somme and between the Somme and the Oise, the enemy both by day and by night delivered several attacks which have, however, been repulsed. To the north of the Aisne, there has been no change.

"Second—On the centre in Champagne and to the east of Argonne, the enemy has restricted his activities to heavy combat. Between the Argonne and the Meuse, there has been slight progress on the part of our troops, who are confronted by strongly organized positions.

"Third—On the heights of the Meuse, in the Woevre district, and on our right wing, Lorraine and Vosges, there has been no notable modification in the situation.

"Generally speaking our line runs from east to the west through the region of Pont-A-Mousson, Apremont and the Meuse, through the region of St. Mihiel, along the heights known as the Chemin Des Dames.

"On the right bank of the Aisne this line draws near to the Aisne and continues into the region of Foissons, between Soissons and the forest of L'Algle it runs over the first plateau of the right bank of the Aisne. Between the Oise and the Somme this line runs along the front from Becourt (which belongs to us) to Lasigny (occupied by the enemy) to Roye, (which belongs to us, and to Chaulnes (in the possession of the enemy.)

"To the north of the Somme the line continues along the plateau between Albert and Comblès.

"We again took numerous prisoners during yesterday. They belong principally to the 7th active corps and the 7th reserve corps of the German army, and also to the 10th, 12th and 19th German army corps.

GERMANS SAY FRENCH WARSHIP WAS SUNK

Berlin, via London, Sept. 29—By order of the military commander of the Province of Brandenburg, the Vorwaerts, organ of the Social Democratic party, has suspended publication indefinitely.

Emperor William on Saturday visited Prince Oscar, one of his sons, who is ill with heart trouble at Metz. The Duchess of Brunswick sister of the Prince, arrived the same day and will remain with her brother until he returns to the front.

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Igalo, Dalmatia, asserts that the Austro-Hungarian fleet on Sept. 19 sunk a big French warship. The forts had intercepted a wireless message concerning the movement in the direction of Cattaro of fifteen warships and three cruisers. The Austrians awaited their arrival fully prepared. A salvo from the first fort sunk the warship, and the other vessels in the fleet retreated hastily.

The official report concerning the sinking of the three British cruisers, Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue, by the German submarine U-9 in the North Sea recently asserts that the U-9 was in action an hour. This was the time elapsing between the firing of the first and the last torpedo. The British cruisers, according to the report, did not fire a single shot. When attacked they were steaming abreast, with the Aboukir in the middle.

A report that German vessels accompanying the submarine flew the Dutch flag is contradicted. It is emphatically denied that any other submarines took part in the attack and that any were sunk after the destruction of Cressy. Several British cruisers, torpedo boats and destroyers put in an appearance and pursued the U-9 until evening, going as far as the Terschelling Banks, where the submarine escaped under cover of night.

Mr. L. E. Young, barrister of Woodstock is in the city today.

Doylestown, Pa., Sept. 29—Florence Cope, eighteen years old, a pretty girl of Buckingham Valley, near here, was killed by her uncle, John Cope, at her home last night while she was trying to save her brother from being shot by the uncle. Cope escaped to the woods and a large party was out today searching for him.

The girl stepped between her brother and the uncle, who had quarreled over his alleged drinking habits. Miss Cope was a graduate of a high school and was a student at a Philadelphia business college.
