DIETING AND EXERCISE CONDUCTIVE TO HEALTH

Old Athlete Tells Middle-aged Men How to Keep in Condition

Mike Donovan, who has been for thirty years boxing instructor of the New York Athletic Club is now 67 years old, and probably ninety-nine men out of a hundred between the ages of twenty and thirty would find him an extremely awkward customer at any form of physical encounter. He is willing to tell what he knows for he believes that the term "self-defence" means more than the ability of a man to repel an attack. When Donovan uses the term he means the ability of a man to fight off old age or rather the common symptoms of it. He himself is grey haired to-day but he is an athlete who can box from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until late at night and hardly quicken his breathing. No one living of his years is in better condition for hard and continuous physical exertion. At a time of life when many men are tottering to the grave he is a trained athlete.

Original Ideas on Condition

Donovan has been too busy to be much of a reader, and it may be taken for granted that the ideas he has upon the subject of physical fitness are not those conveyed to him by some theorist. They are the fruit of a lifetime spent in keeping fit and in keeping other people fit. He believes that physical fitness for the middle-aged man and the man who is still further advanced in life is easily enough attainable. All that is required is some will power and, of course, some intelligence. It is a matter of diet and exercise. He needs to eat less, and exercise more and practice deep breathing, and do without tobacco and alcohol.

Down on Alcohol

Donovan believes that the average business man whose work is done behind a desk or counter eats about three times as much as he should. Moreover, he probably drinks too much. Donovan's idea of too much drinking is any drinking. He says that alcohol should be regarded as a poison, and everyone knows that even a very little poison is a bad thing. He says that three quarts of water ought to be imbibed in the course of the day. Then at meal times there will not be the demand for liquids. He is also opposed to the drinking of tea and coffee, and after water he places warm milk. Those who insist upon drinking tea or coffee ought to drink plenty of milk with it, and the drinking ought not to be done at meal time.

For a Light Breakfast

We find his authority flatly opposed to the medical men who say that breakfast ought to be the best meal. He is against a heavy breakfast, and for that matter, too, a heavy lunch. Even at night he does not favor anything in the nature of a meal that will leave the consumer satiated. We ought to leave the table feeling that we could eat more. Mike is something of a vegetarian, but a discriminating one, for he does not endorse all vegetables. He divides them into two classes. In the first he places spinach, string beans, cauliflower and cabbage and insists that cabbage ought to be well cooked. These vegetables ought to be eaten freely. On the black list as far as he is concerned, go tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuce and radishes.

Get Plenty of Sleep

As far as meat is concerned, Donovan says that beef and mutton are in a class by themselves. He is a strong advocate of the Fletcher system, and cautions against any boiling of meats. To the man who smokes he says that the best thing to smoke is a pipe, the next best a cigar. The cigarette is condemned wholeheartedly because of the general practice of inhaling it. He differs with such authorities as Edison in the matter of sleeping hours. The old saying of "seven hours for a man, eight for a woman and nine for a fool" finds no champion in him. Everyone ought to sleep at least eight hours. His own preference is for nine. As for the choice of exercise, while Donovan is naturally partial to boxing, he believes that walking is the best for general purposes, since everyone can walk a little if he tries.

To Keep Shoes From Slipping

Pumps often give trouble by slipping. To remedy the fault, stitch a piece of ribbon elastic tightly across inside the top of the heel. This will prevent the continual wear of the heel of the stocking.

FOREIGNERS AND HALF BREEDS SAVED ROBLIN

Winnipeg, July 16—The popular majority against the Roblin government as pronounced by the electors last Friday is 10,000. Over 138,000 votes were cast, and of these the Roblin candidates polled only 64,271 or 9,759 less than the total of the votes cast for the Liberal and Independent candidates. The government percentage of the total vote fell from 50.77 four years ago, to 46.47 this year.

In previous contests the Roblin government has never commanded a striking percentage of the popular vote, but it did have a bare majority leaving out all the Independents, the Liberals had 30,000 majority over the Roblin votes.

As to the outlook the Liberals have 21 and the Conservatives 25 seats. The Liberals are almost certain to win Kildonan, where Dr. Montague has a majority of three, and the indications are that they will win Lepas, making the final standing 23 to 26, which, after the election of a speaker, gives the government a bare majority. But it is not in the majority their weakness is shown, but the sentiment throughout the city of Winnipeg where the Liberals have a majority of 2,000 over all, and in the pioneer farming districts of Manitoba, the great backbone of the country, where the Liberals swept the districts. Half-breeds and foreigners gave the Roblin government the majority with which to uphold the British constitution in Manitoba.

FORESTRY MEETING IN WHITE MOUNTAINS

Somerset, N.H., July 20—The annual Forestry Conference in the White Mountains will assemble tomorrow at Gorham, the headquarters of the National Forest in New Hampshire. The initial session tomorrow afternoon will be given over to a conference of foresters and timber owners. Among those who will take part are Dr. B. E. Fernow of the University of Toronto, and Clyde Leavitt, chief forest inspector of the Canadian Railway Commission. Speakers at the session tomorrow evening will include Dr. E. T. Fairchild of the State College of New Hampshire, James P. Taylor, secretary of the Greater Vermont Association, and Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the National Conservation Congress.

On Wednesday afternoon the subject of forest taxation will be considered, and the new taxation laws of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont and Pennsylvania will be discussed by Prof. Bullock of Harvard University, W. O. Riley, State forester of Connecticut, Austin F. Dawes, State forester of Vermont, and Dr. Henry S. Drinker, president of the American Forestry Association.

MEMORIAL FOR POPE LEO XIII

Rome, July 30—This being the eleventh anniversary of the death of Pope Leo XIII, a solemn memorial mass was celebrated at St. Peter's this morning, attended by Pope Pius and many of the Cardinals. Nearly 3,000 persons, including diplomatic representatives, high dignitaries of the church and state and a large number of tourists, were present. The Pope, who appeared to be in good health, blessed the cardinal and said a short prayer for Leo XIII.

PERSISTENCY IN ADVERTISING

One stroke of a bell in a thick fog does not give a lasting impression of its location, but when followed by repeated strokes at regular intervals the densest fog, the darkest night can not long conceal its whereabouts. Likewise a single insertion of an advertisement—as compared with regular and systematic ADVERTISING—is in its effect not unlike a sound which, heard but faintly once is lost in space and soon forgotten.
