NO FAVORS FOR FARMERS FROM BORDEN GOVERNMENT

Ottawa, March 21—From the beginning of the present session the Liberal party in the House of Commons has fought for the removal of unnecessary tariff burdens and restrictions which benefit a few millionaires, at the expense of the masses of producers and consumers. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his followers declared, in reply to the speech from the throne, that the first duty of the government, in the face of present conditions, was to take action to alleviate the burdens of high prices and high taxation, under which the people at present suffer.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store.

The amendment of the Liberal leader was designated to give effect to that declaration.

During the debate the opposition placed itself upon record as favoring the principle of free food, as a remedy for the steadily increasing cost of living. In this the Liberals had special consideration for the consuming classes of the Dominion. The proposal met with no sympathy from the government side.

Later there was introduced in the House by Dr. Neely of Humboldt, a resolution urging that wheat and wheat products be placed on the free list, in order that advantage might be taken of the standing offer of reciprocity in these commodities contained in the new United States tariff. This resolution voiced the demands of the three prairie provinces and of organized agriculture throughout the Dominion. If given effect to it would widen the farmers' markets, increase his returns and lead to increased production. It will be noted in this connection that the farmers declared their willingness to abandon the "protection" which their own industry at present "enjoys."

This resolution was unanimously voted down by the government, Mr. Borden contending that the proper time for bringing up such discussion was when the budget speech was delivered.

On Wednesday last the Liberals in parliament advanced another important step in the fight. A resolution was introduced by Mr. Knowles of Moose Jaw, urging the abolition of the duties on agricultural implements. It was forcefully argued by Liberal members from every section of the Dominion that the industry had now reached a stage where it need fear no competition and that the present protective duty of seven-tenths and a half per cent. was not justified, even on the principles of the national policy. It was contended that one of the best means of stimulating production and of encouraging the primary industry of the Dominion was to allow the farmer to procure the tools of his trade at as low a price as possible and without paying tribute to an industry which sold its goods on the foreign market cheaper than on the home market.

This resolution received the same treatment as did the free wheat resolution at the hands of the government. Premier Borden dismissed it in a ten minute speech. Every western Conservative voted against it.

In somewhat striking contrast to these demands on behalf of the farmer was a proposal made to the House by J. J. Carrick, member for Thunder Bay on the Conservative side. The demands of the farming interests were not for more protection; they were simply for a free field and no favors.

The demand of Mr. Carrick, which was backed up by many members on his own side, was that a bounty be granted to the steel industry of two cents for every unit of metallic content in ore mined and manufactured in Canada. The member for Thunder Bay admitted that there was iron, limestone and coal in abundance in Canada; that the industry enjoyed a moderate protection; and that it was already indebted to the Dominion treasury in bounties to the extent of seventeen million dollars. And yet he declared that it was in a languishing condition and needed more help.

Mr. Carrick was not told by the government that this was the wrong time to bring up such a discussion in the House. There was no hostility evidenced by the government to his proposal. On the contrary, the prime minister replied with a lengthy and courteous speech in which he admitted the merits of the claim; while Hon. W. T. White declared that bounties were no new thing and that the matter was receiving the most earnest consideration of the government.

Evidences steadily accumulate to show that the protected interests have more ready access to the ear of the government than the farmer or the consumer. "Bounties for the interests; burdens for the farmers" is the way Dr. Clark of Red Deer, summed up the situation on Wednesday last after listening to the speech of the prime minister.

SHE HAS THE VERY BEST OF REASONS

This Manitoba Lady Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

MRS. BOURBONNIERE HAD MANY TROUBLES, ALL OF WHICH WERE CAUSED BY SICK KIDNEYS, AND SHE FOUND A SIMPLE AND COMPLETE CURE

St. Rose, Lu Lac, Man., March 23, (Special).—Mrs. D. J. Bourbonniere, an estimable lady of this place is losing no opportunity to praise Dodd's Kidney Pills to her friends. And she has a reason. Here it is in her own words.

"I suffered very much from my kidneys," Mrs. Bourbonniere says. "I was tired and nervous, my appetite was uncertain and my memory was failing. I had heart fluttering, my back was sore and I was troubled with headaches. Rheumatism was finally added to my sufferings and I was in a bad way indeed."

I tried one medicine, but it did me no good, and then I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I am very glad that I did, for now after taking four boxes I am a well woman again."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Bourbonniere because all her troubles came from sick kidneys. Sick kidneys cannot do their work of straining the impurities out of the blood, and the result is sickness, depression and lassitude all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured the kidneys: the purified blood did the rest.
