MINERS TO BALLOT

THE BILL PASSED.

London, March 27.—A fateful day in the history of British trade struggles came to a close early this morning with the passage through parliament by a large majority of the bill establishing in legislation the principle of a minimum wage in the country's most important industry.

The minimum wage bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons by a vote of 213 to 48 amid a scene of great excitement. The House of Lords reassembled at 2.50 o'clock to receive the bill and on motion of Lord Herschell it passed its first reading.

London, March 26.—(Through Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—When in the House of Commons today first consideration of the minimum wage was resumed Mr. Walter Long moved the adjournment of the debate in order to discuss the situation. He asked how it was possible to discuss the bill while negotiations were proceeding outside. Premier Asquith at this moment entered the House and was greeted with cheers.

The premier said that on Friday, and he now repeated it, that the government could not insert any figures in the bill. He agreed that five shillings and two shillings were not unreasonable as a minimum wage. He had made suggestions to both parties today, he added, which had proved acceptable to neither.

The government had delayed the bill from Friday until today in the hope that it might be possible, when the ground of discussion had been so narrowed, that some agreement might be come to by the parties.

Speaking with deep emotion, almost in a whisper, Premier Asquith said that the government had labored for an agreement hard and persistently. It was to him a profound disappointment that he had to confess to the House that all their labors had been unavailing. If, he continued, at fifty-nine minutes of the eleventh hour, the parties to the dispute could not come to a reasonable arrangement upon a matter of relatively small proportions, they would have a very serious account to render to the country.

The government had done all they could. They had postponed legislation to the last possible moment. The only course now open to them was to ask the House to proceed with the bill.

SCHEME MEETS OPPOSITION

Mr. Wilson said that the building of a dam 40 feet high, should be taken into consideration particularly when it affects railway bridges and property owned by other people. Could the company afford to build a dam satisfactorily out of the revenue they would receive. The committee should consider whether it was just and right to give any Company power to erect a dam which might imperil life and property.

CLASH BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. Hanson said there was no water power on the Becaguic Stream. He opposed the bill on account of the injury it would cause the Sayre industry and said the project was one to hold up and bleed Mr. Sayre. He did not believe the promoters were financially capable to undertake the work.

Mr. A. R. Rigby said the promoters were at least were in a better financial condition than was Mr. Sayre when he commenced his present industry. The petitions against the bill were signed by people who were under the influence of Mr. Sayre.

Mr. Hazen said that if the dam were not properly constructed the land would be destroyed and the bridges menaced. The project would be detrimental to the Sayre industry. No information had been given by the promoters as to the water power available.

Mr. Hayward stated the objection of the riparian land owners against the proposed legislation and Mr. Puddington stated the objection of the New Brunswick Railway Co. The Committee adjourned until 2.15.

DANGEROUS LANDING

The landing of the St. Mary's road across the ice is very dangerous on the Fredericton side of the river. A horse belonging to Mr. John Wade of Penniac broke through the ice this morning and but for the assistance of a number of men who hastened to the scene would have drowned. A line attached to a horse and a sled was used to drag the animal out. The road was fenced off on this side of the river some days ago but the fence was broken down by those using the road.

THE BUILDING OUTLOOK

Mr. Charles W. Currie, an old time Fredericton carpenter and builder, recently returned from Boston, where he had been residing for some years. He is now busily engaged in preparing plans for several modern dwellings which he intends building here early during the coming summer.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS

What glasses are to weak eyes Cascarets are to weak bowels, a 10-cent box will amaze you

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

John Morrissey, Chief Commissioner of Public Works also delivered an interesting address. Hon. D. V. Landry and Judge Barry also spoke.

AFFIDAVIT OF DR. MULLIN WILL BE INVESTIGATED

James D. Blair said he wondered what was the cause of the noise. Witness could distinguish no words and was not alarmed. James D. Blair became nervous. Since that time witness had not been told by James D. Blair that matter was going farther than he (Blair) had expected.

This concluded the evidence.

CASE DISMISSED

His Honor said that he would discharge the prisoner as there was not sufficient evidence to send him up for trial. Addressing the prisoner he said he was pleased to be able to say that he could dismiss him.

MR. PHINNEY'S STATEMENT

Mr. Phinney requested that the affidavit made by Dr. B. M. Mullin in connection with the case be preserved as he might have future use for it. He could not see why such an affidavit was made as no assault had been committed. He would have to say in the presence of the police that he would seek the fullest information from them concerning the information on which the charge was based and concerning the persons from whom it was obtained. Knowing what he did about James D. Blair, he could not bring himself to believe that that gentleman gave any information on which either charge or affidavit had been based.

His Honor stated that the information given to himself and to the police was that the accused had forced his way into the bedroom of James D. Blair and that there the knife had been taken from him. In view of the seriousness of the offence alleged there had proceeded nothing for him to do but remain until an examination.

Mr. Phinney pointed out that such information had been proven utterly false.
