

King George's Navy Plug

KING GEORGE NAVY PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO

IS IN A CLASS BY ITSELF!

It surpasses all others in quality and flavour because the process by which it is made differs from others.—It is deliciously sweet and non-irritating.

SOLD EVERYWHERE: 10c A PLUG

ROCK CITY TOBACCO Co., Manufacturers, QUEBEC

"In the Case of the Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

Made by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Montreal

"Have you a 'Little Fairy' in your home?"

Ring News
Wrestling
Athletics

SPORT NEWS

Bowling News
Base Ball
Ftc., Etc.

"Jess" Burkett on His Twenty-Eighth Season

MATTSON WON FROM ALLEN IN LAST NIGHT'S BOUT

Wrestling Match Drew Small Crowd at Opera House Last Night—Allen Took First Fall

A slim crowd saw the wrestling bout at the City Opera House last night when William Mattson won from Charles Allen the wrestler who lost to Dan McDonald here a few weeks ago. Allen took the first fall in thirteen minutes with a full nelson. The second fall went to Mattson in three minutes, on a crotch hold. The last fall also went to Mattson in six minutes on a full nelson.

Dan McDonald was the referee. Mattson's work made a good impression on the crowd and he at once became a favorite.

Wrestling seems to be an up-hill game in Fredericton, judging from the attendance at the matches.

Manager Hank O'Day is not worrying over the threat of several of the Cubs to jump to the Feds. He has all the Cubs he cares to keep signed up to long-term contracts.

Pitcher A. Rankin Johnson of the Red Sox won the favor of Boston fans when on his first appearance as a big leaguer he whaled his namesake, the great Walter of Washington.

That was a poor trade that Fred Clarke pulled off when he landed Ed Konetchy, formerly of the Cardinals, in Pittsburgh. Poor for the Cards.

The chances are Manager Callahan will wait for more favorable weather before he lets "Big Ed" Walsh go the full distance for the White Sox.

Sherwood Magee seems to be out to give "Gavvy" Cravath a tussle for the home run record. The captain of the Phillies is clouting homers regularly.

Lou Criger, Cy Young's old battery mate, is confined in a private hospital in Boston. He is a very sick man and unable to walk without the aid of crutches.

Jack Blackburn the colored boxer may be one of the principals in a rumput to be staged at the Atlas A. A. of Boston in the near future.

J. Pray, a Boston amateur boxer, is going to find out for himself whether he is or isn't a real fighter. He has enlisted in the navy and is on his way to Mexico.

Joe Chick's injuries will keep him out of the game for some time to come. He has been obliged to cancel several bouts that were good for a nice bundle of change.

Worcester's Leader is Dean of the Diamond—Had Reputation as Heavy Batter in the Big Leagues—Very Successful as Manager—Product of a Hard School

Boston, Mass., May 2—With the opening of the season in the "little old" New England league this week Manager Jesse Burkett starts on his twenty-eighth consecutive year as a baseball player. As pilot of the Worcester team Burkett dons the spangles regularly and though he does not participate in every game, he plays often enough to get his name in the records for the season.

Since Jim O'Rourke made his final retirement from the diamond to become president of the Eastern league the record for continuous service on the ball field doubtless belongs to Burkett.

HIS CAREER

Jesse Burkett was born in Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 4, 1870. At the age of sixteen he began playing professional ball at Scranton, Pa. Two later he went to Worcester. Later he was traded to the New York Giants who farmed him out to the Lincoln club of the Western league. In 1891 he was sold to Cleveland. He remained in the Ohio city until the amalgamation with St. Louis in 1899 and played with the St. Louis Cardinals through 1901. The next season found him a member of the newly formed American League club in the Mound City. In 1905 he joined the Boston American league club. A year later he bought an interest in the Worcester club and has acted as manager of the team ever since.

During his long career as a big leaguer Burkett established a reputation as one of the heaviest batters who ever faced a pitcher. As a member of the old Cleveland club he led the National league batters in 1895 and 1896 and again the list while playing with St. Louis in 1901.

SUCCESSFUL WITH MINORS.

The same success that attended Burkett's career as a major league player has marked his work as a minor league pilot. Since he took over the Worcester team eight years ago his team has never finished lower than third position in the New England league race. For four successive seasons his team captured the pennant.

Major League scouts have great faith in Burkett's ability to develop talent and they seldom failed to be on hand early in the season to give the Worcester team the "once over." Some of the classy players he has developed the past few years have brought fancy prices when sold to clubs in faster company.

IN THE OLD NATIONAL.

Burkett received his higher education in baseball in the rather difficult school afforded by the old National league in the '90s. The game was not run so smoothly in those days as now. The umpires exercised less control and a player was obliged to make good through his ability to fight his way to the finish. As a member of Pat Tebeau's old Cleveland team, reputed the scrappiest outfit of those fighting days, Burkett learned many tricks of the diamond.

But with the "reform" of the national game, Burkett gracefully adapted himself to the changed conditions. Today no manager in the New England league is more insistent than he that his players accept and abide by the decisions of the umpires.

"HOME OFFICE" STOPS SMITH-LANGFORD BOUT

London, May 1—Because the Home Office indicated to the promoter its strong dislike of matches between white and negro pugilists, the projected fight between "Gunboat" Smith and Sam Langford set for June 30, has been declared off.

NICK CULLOP SAYS CLEVELAND HAS NO CLAIM

Kansas City, Mo., April 30—Confirmation of the report that Nick Cullop had signed a two-year contract with the Kansas City Federals was given here this afternoon by President C. C. Madison of the local Federal club. "Cullop," said Madison, "refused to go to the Cleveland American Association team and considered that his release to that team by the Cleveland American League Club ended his contract with the Americans."

ENGLISH ARMY BOXER GAVE "TWIN" HARD BOUT

Elmira, N.Y., April 30—It took Jack ("Twin") Sullivan several minutes tonight to realize that Jack Curphey, the English Army Champion, was a real fighter, but in the fifth round when the fact dawned on him, he woke up with his old-time speed and generalship and carried the fight to Curphey, winning by a shade.

For the first three rounds Curphey had everything his own way and repeatedly jabbed Sullivan's face. His blows lacked weight, however. In the fifth round when the fact dawned on him, he woke up with his old-time speed and generalship and carried the fight to Curphey, winning by a shade.

In the ninth and tenth Sullivan reached Curphey's bad eye many

CONDON MADE FITCHBURG EAT OUT OF HIS HAND

Lynn Won 7 to 2 With Ex-Fredericton Man in Box—Allowed Only Four Hits

Fitchburg, April 30—Fitchburg was unable to stop Condon's pitching, while the visitors pounded Sager for a dozen hits and Lynn won the second game of the series by 7 to 2 today. Lynn scored two runs in the opening inning on three successive hits and got one more tally in the fifth. Five hits, coupled with an error, gave them four runs in the eighth.

The home team's scores were made in the seventh session and only one was earned, the other coming as a result of a wild throw. The fielding and batting of Fahey, the former Medford High School player, was a feature.

The weather continued cold and rain fell several times in the course of the game.

(The box score shows that Condon, the ex-Fredericton pitcher, had a two-base hit, a single and two sacrifices to his credit. He allowed four hits, struck out four batters and gave one pass.)

BIG LEAGUE GAMES

AMERICAN

Philadelphia 7, Washington 6.
Detroit 3, Chicago 2.
New York 6, Boston 0.
St. Louis 3, Cleveland 2.

NATIONAL

Philadelphia 3, Brooklyn 6.
Pittsburgh 4, Cincinnati 2.

FEDERAL

Chicago 3, Pittsburgh 1.
Baltimore 3, Kansas City 1.
Brooklyn 2, St. Louis 1.
Buffalo 11, Indianapolis 10.

INTERNATIONAL

Toronto 11, Newark 4.
Providence 7, Rochester 6.
Jersey City 3, Buffalo 2.
Baltimore 5, Montreal 4.

Dr. Edward H. Moriarity of Mt. Clemens, Mich., whose experiments in an endeavor to find a cure for cancer have attracted public attention, is an old ball player. Ten years ago he was a star pitcher with the Newark, N.J., team.

That $5000 offer to Georges Carpentier for the three bouts in Australia has proved to be a flyver. Promoter Snowy Baker of Sydney has blue-pencilled the bid.

The annual convention of the Commercial Telegraphers' International Union will be held in Buffalo, beginning June 8.

times, and put several over on his opponent's kidneys. The fight went to Sullivan but Curphey succeeded in making the old battler work hard.

Opera House--THREE DAYS--Mon., Tues., Wed.
MAY 4th, 5th, and 6th.

ETHEL MAY SHOREY AND ASSOCIATE PLAYERS . .

IN ORIGINAL PLAYS WRITTEN BY MISS SHOREY, AND PLAYED BY NO OTHER COMPANY

Monday - "THE GRAFTERS" - A METROPOLITAN SUCCESS

Vaudeville Between Acts

SEATS ON SALE AT RYAN'S DRUG STORE
PRICES :- 25c, 35c and 50c.

Plays Changed Every Night