COUNTERFEIT MONEY CIRCULATED

Petrograd, Nov. 12.—The Germans have flooded Suwalki with counterfeit Russian paper money made in Berlin most of a hundred roubles value. Elsewhere the customary acknowledgement of commandeered property has been a scrap of paper inscribed "Please hang the bearer."
 Reports have reached here that hundreds of Turkish prisoners have reached Tiflis.

SIX BATTALIONS ANNIHILATED

London, Nov. 12.—A despatch from Nish says that it has been officially announced that six battalions of Austrian infantry which crossed the Danube near Szederovo on Nov. 9 have been annihilated by a Serbian counter attack.

RUSSIANS SURROUND PRZEMYSL

Amsterdam, Nov. 12.—Official admission that the Russians have again surrounded Przemyśl and have instituted a new siege against that fortress and that the Austrians have evacuated Central Galicia is made in a statement at Vienna by the Austrian General staff headquarters.

London, Nov. 11.—The Germans have resumed their attack on the allied line between the coast and the Lys River, and while the French claim generally to have held their positions the Germans have succeeded in capturing the town of Dixmude, which has been the centre of some of the fiercest and most sanguinary fighting of the war.

The country between Dixmude and Ypres, where the belligerents have been engaged in violent attacks and counter-attacks for weeks past and where the losses have been heavier even than those in the battle of the Yser, is again the scene of a battle, which for fury, has seldom, if ever, been equalled.

Behind Dixmude is the direct road to Dunkirk, one of the French ports on which the Germans have set their hearts, and if they can break through here the Allies will be compelled to fall back to new positions. The invaders have therefore been concentrating their forces at this point, and their success in taking Dixmude where they claim to have captured 500 prisoners, and positions to the west of Langemarck, where, according to the Berlin report, 2,000 prisoners fell into their hands, shows that the statements, so freely made, that they have been sending troops from the west to Poland are without foundation.

As a matter of fact, the military men here believe that the Germans, as soon as they saw it was impossible to carry out their design of capturing Warsaw, dispatched troops from that region to the west, not imagining that the Russian pursuit would be carried out with the rapidity with which it has been.

At other points along the battle-front in France the French official communications claim some successes for the Allies, but the German headquarters staff declares that all attacks have been repulsed.

CANNOT GET STRENGTH.

It is considered quite certain that with the enormous forces required for the effort to get through to the coast and to protect their own country from Russian invasion the Germans will not be able to throw any additional troops into the lines which stretch through Northern France and along the Franco-German border.

On the other hand the French whose army is growing daily, might attempt an offensive against Lorraine or Alsace as a diversion which would relieve the pressure in the west.

The Germans, according to Petrograd despatches, have suffered a more serious defeat on the East Prussian border than the official statements border than the official statements have disclosed. Advances from the Russian capital today state that in the recent fighting there the Russians have captured more than 20,000 prisoners together with quantities of guns and ammunitions.

The Russian advance in Poland, which has made at the rate of fourteen miles daily, has astonished the military experts and it is not surprising to hear that they are picking up many footsore and weary stragglers.

This advance of horse, foot and artillery has continued for some days.

In Galicia the Russians continue to push the Austrians back, but the Austrians are saving their revenge along the Serbian border which they threaten to cross in an endeavor to crush Serbia, before Russia can come to her assistance.

LITTLE GLIMPSES OF THE WAR.

London, England, Nov. 7.—Squads of private soldiers touring about London in taxicabs is a new war spectacle the Canadian contingent is providing. Several hundred of the Canadians have visited the metropolis this week on short leave of absence from their camp at Salisbury Plain. They appear to have plenty of money and to enjoy the sights thoroughly, while the Londoners find equal pleasure in fraternizing with the visitors.

REMARKABLE FEATS BY SURGEONS IN WAR.

Paris, Oct. 23.—Advances made in surgery during the last few years are being utilized with remarkable results in the treatment of wounded soldiers. American surgeons who have gone to the front, in particular, are performing frequent operations which, while not new to science, have been rare in the past. Through their efforts men who otherwise would be compelled to go through life maimed and disfigured are being reconstructed physically, while, at the same time these surgeons are obtaining experience of such a varied character as would be impossible except in time of war.

Dr. Joseph Blake of New York, at the American Ambulance Hospital, is making a new nose. Over an artificial making a new nose. Over an artificial bridge he is grafting flesh and skin from the wounded man's forearm.

Surgeons at the Val-de-Grace Hospital constructed a new chin of rubber covered with a beard trimmed according to the soldier's photograph.

In the American Ambulance a powerful electrical magnet is installed for the removal of shrapnel making unnecessary the long and difficult operation of probing.

RETA WILLIAMS

 Anderson and Joseph Cain.

It now appears that the Williams girl had contemplated committing suicide for several days before her disappearance and on several occasions her strange actions were noticed by members of the hotel staff. On Friday evening she is said to have kissed one of the waitresses before retiring, something she had never before done during the two years she was employed at the hotel.

The girl had packed her trunk on Sunday afternoon and before going out at about seven o'clock that evening had put in her new suit and hat. A note was afterwards found in the trunk telling another one of the chambermaids, Mrs. Sydney Parker, where she would find her two rings, that the Williams girl had borrowed some time ago.

On Tuesday afternoon the police, who have had the case in hand, gave the young man who had been keeping company with the girl a severe grilling at the police station, but failed to get any information from him except that she might have become jealous and despondent. He maintained strongly that she had been a good living girl and so far as he knew had nothing to worry her or cause her any trouble.

Three brothers of the girl have been in the city since Monday and this morning they accompanied the body to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, at Acton, York county, about five miles from Harvey Station.

The late Miss Williams was in her twentieth year and besides her parents is survived by eight brothers, Archie and William of Montana, John of Greenville, N.B., and Robert, Thomas, Allen, Lewis and Norman all of Acton.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Sometimes half the truth is worse than none.

It keeps some people busy trying to look innocent.

Most men who say they do the best they can, don't.

Some people go to extremes in trying to make both ends meet.

Some men are umbrellas; they have their ups and downs.

The wise man earns from observation rather than from experience.

Fools and children can be relied upon to tell the truth—at the wrong time.

Perhaps some brides blush because of the kind of husband they have run to cover.

Providing there is not another postponement of the government meeting, the Dugal report will be made public next week. Had Mr. Carvell not gone gunning after the report the public would probably have been kept in ignorance of its contents until the meeting of the legislature.
