HE'S BACK AT WORK STRONG AND HEARTY

One More Splendid Cure by Dodd's Kidney
Pills

QUEBEC MAN WHO SUFFERED FOR A LONG TIME FROM KID-NEY DISEASE FINDS A COM-PLETE CURE.

Allen's Mills Portland Co., Que., May 25—(Special)—Another splendid cure by Dodd's Kidney Pills is that of Michael Gauthier, a well known resident of this place. Mr. Gauthier was for a long time a sufferer with a pain in his head caused by kidney disease and at length got so bad that he had to quit work. He is back at work, strong and hearty, and naturally he feels that he wants all who suffer from kidney disease to know that they can find a cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

For Dodd's Kidney Pills not only cure the pain or ache that is causing the most distress, they put the kidneys in good working order and get the impurities and poisons out strained out of the blood. The result is that new strength is carried to every part of the body. That's why so many sufferers cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills sum up their condition. "I feel like a new man." New energy is new life. You can't have it with sick kidneys. With healthy kidneys you must have it. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy kidneys.

everywhere. A young departmental clerk at Washington read the story of Damon and Pythias, its spirit of friendship stirred his blood and he conceived the idea of founding an order based upon the principles of friendship, charity, benevolence. He wrote a beautiful ritual, called together a few of his friends and the organization became an established fact. The motto at such a time of need appealed to the nation. The organization spread rapidly from the north to the south. Men clasped hands across the line dividing north and south and became friends once more. The order has since spread all over Canada, reached England, China, Japan and the isles of the sea and already there are one million Knights clasping hands in Friendship, Charity, Benevolence. This society, together with sister societies, has done much towards establishing a spirit of friendship between our own Canada and the republic to the south, so that today along the line extending thousands of miles between Canada and the United States there is not a single fortification or a single mounted cannon.

Among the members of the order are to be found many of the most distinguished statesmen, jurists, professors, merchants, mechanics and soldiers. The ritual strong, clean, moral, lofty in its tone and surpassing in its diction. But the chief glory of the order lies not in any of these things, but in the fact that its is exemplifying abundantly its principles. It is useless to attempt to give details. I may be pardoned if I give one or two which are typical of the thousands that might be given.

SOME INSTANCES.

Here is a case that came recently under my notice. A Knight died leaving a wife and one son. The son was dissipated. A group of Knights for the father's sake, threw their strong arms of friendship around the young man and said, "You must straighten up and support your mother and we will help you any way we can. He agreed but repeatedly fell. They repeatedly rallied to his rescue. They labored for a year with that fellow until he became established in sober habits. Today he is a sober Christian man with a happy wife, happy children and a happy mother. I wish I could pause here to give a few more cases of the many that came under my notice.
Since its inception Pythianism has distributed seventy millions of dollars among widows and orphans and other needy ones. Forty millions of this amount were pure gratuities.
None can estimate what this means.
The tears dried, sorrows assuaged, the distress relieved, the homes held together. A society that is doing so much deserves public recognition, public sympathy and the benediction of the Christian church. It is doing the work the church taught it to do.
It is a valuable auxiliary to the church. It is fulfilling the spirit of the text. It is fulfilling an indispen-sible social function.

In closing, let me exhort you not to lose sight of your relationship to your God and Father. Let that relationship first be satisfactory and your relationship to men will be of the nature of things be right.

HOME RULE BILL

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL.

London, May 25—The Irish home rule bill which passed the house of commons for the third time today, and which will become law whether the house of lords assents or not, contains the following provisions:

A senate of forty members, a house of commons of 164 members.

Irish parliament cannot legislate on peace or war, navy, army or any naval or military force, foreign relations, trade outside Ireland, except certain defined legislation, coinage or legal tender.

It cannot make any law either directly or indirectly to establish or endow any religion or prohibit the free exercise thereof, or give a preference, privilege or advantage, impose any disability or disadvantage on account of religious belief or religious or ecclesiastical status, or make any religious belief or religious ceremony a condition of the validity of any marriage.

Temporary restrictions are placed on legislation on land purchases, old age pensions, national insurance, labor exchange, Royal Irish constabulary, post office and other savings banks and friendly societies.

The executive remains invested in the sovereign or in his representative.

Forty-two members will still be sent from Ireland to the house of commons.

The judicial committee of the privy council to give the final decision as to the constitutional validity of any act passed by the Irish parliament.

The Irish exchequer to defray the cost of the Irish administration, except for reserved services mentioned above.

The imperial exchequer to pay an annual sum to the Irish exchequer, starting at $2,500,000 and eventually after six years, becoming a permanent payment of $1,000,000 annually.

Dublin, Ireland, May 25—There were no demonstrations here tonight on the passage of the home rule bill but bonfires and other patriotic and orderly demonstrations were reported from various towns.

Belfast, May 25—Up to a late hour tonight everything was quiet here.
No demonstrations of any kind were held.

PEOPLE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST APPENDICITIS

Fredericton people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation IN-STANTLY because this simple mixture draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body. George Y. Dibblee.

SERIOUS FIRE

Wolfville, N.S., May 26—As a result of a blaze which started in the western end of the Acadia University gymnasium at one o'clock this morning, the gymnasium is a complete ruin. Chipman Hall, the university residence, is a mass of flames and the main university building is threatened with destruction. Help has been asked from Kentville and a special train with fire fighting apparatus is on the way here now. A heavy wind is blowing from the southwest and unless help arrives soon the northeastern section of the town will be destroyed.

Fire was first discovered in the gymnasium at one o'clock and before help arrived the whole building was a mass of flames. Chipman Hall, a five-story structure, where many of the students are housed, was soon in flames, and the wind is now driving the sparks onto the main college building. The mail students have been formed into a bucket brigade and they are at present drenching the roof of the main building. It is hoped that the main building will be saved. Chipman Hall was a five-story building and had accommodated about seventy-five boarders. Both the hall and the gymnasium are partly covered by insurance.

Wolfville, May 26—The Acadia College gymnasium took fire at one o'clock this morning and at this hour (2:30 a.m.) is burned to the ground.

Chipman Hall, the residence building, is also on fire and is doomed.
It cannot be saved. A heavy south wind is blowing and the embers are flying all over the town.

The roof of the old historic white college building on the hill is also on fire and is in great danger, but it is hoped this will be saved. The building contains the class room, the valuable archives and the library.
No cause is known for the fire.

The buildings are well covered by insurance.
