THE MAIL FIRST TO GIVE THE NEWS

(Chatham World.)

The first definite news of the rescue of the passengers and crew from the Cobequid was received in the city at 5.30 o'clock last evening. It was in the shape of a telegram from the office of the Associated Press, Boston to their representative in the city, containing instructions to send particulars. When officials were shown it they could not credit it but the developments proved it happily true. —St. John Times.

The Fredericton Mail, which goes to press considerably earlier than 5.30 in the afternoon, had the news of the finding of the Cobequid on Trinity Ledges and the rescue of all the crew and passengers. How did it get the news? It must have a wireless of its own, as we have learned to suspect from its reports of conversations supposed to have been held on the train and elsewhere. The Mail was the only newspaper in New Brunswick to give the good news on Wednesday.

ANNIVERSARY OF "RED SUNDAY"

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22—The St. Petersburg authorities adopted extraordinary precautions to prevent disturbances today, this being the anniversary of "Red Sunday," when Father Gapon led a demonstration of the people before the Winter Palace and many were killed by the troops. Because of the many recent signs of discontent on the part of the masses the perfect the police kept the reserves under arms the whole day and strong military patrols were kept in all sections of the city to prevent disorderly demonstrations.

residential building will be succeeded in the present year by marked activity. There are signs now that point in the same direction, a large number of new houses being under contemplation. The Scully's Grove sub-division and the district formerly known as the Old Racecourse are expected to be the scenes of a building boom.

MET AT ST. JOHN.

The first half-yearly meeting of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor was held yesterday afternoon in St. John, when representatives from various points in the province were present. Officers for the year were elected as follows: President, J. L. Sprague, St. John; vice-president, F. Lister, Fredericton; secretary-treasurer, P. D. Ayer, Moncton. Vice-presidents in industrial centres: St. John, G. L. P. Swelka; Fredericton, M. MacKay; Moncton, F. W. Wilson; Sackville, W. Blackmore. A resolution calling upon the provincial government to provide free school books was passed. The next half-yearly meeting is to be held in Fredericton.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Albert Damery of Lancaster, St. John County, has filed suit for divorce from his wife, Katie Damery. The defendant was formerly Miss Katie Currie. Louis Ewart of St. John West, is named as co-respondent. Baxter & Logan are acting for the plaintiff. The principals were married in 1909 by Rev. Arthur S. Norton in Lancaster. Five children were born of the union, of whom four are still living.

LOWER POKIOK

Jan. 16—It is with regret that the Mail's correspondent notes the death of Mary Caverhill infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott who died Jan. 11. Mary was a bright little girl aged scarcely five months, and her death was keenly felt. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. It was a sweet and precious blossom lent by the Master's hand. Sent by him who loved. To join the earthly band. Short and best were the hours Till the Saviour's voice said "Come." But we who trust the Saviour Can say "Thy will be done." Look not to the grave for Mary. She has only gone before. She has only joined the angels Upon that heavenly shore.

A SPECIAL PRICE

Don't use teas that are laden with dust and broken leaves. Of course such Teas cost the packers considerably less, but they are not good for you. They are stale, unpalatable, and fragrant. The special price of 25 cents per lb. lately introduced, is really a beautiful Tea in strength and flavor. You certainly should try it, you won't be disappointed.

HALIFAX SOCIALS

BEGN TO BRACE UP

(Acadian Recorder.)

The Socials after their two defeats by Sydney, kept the wires between here and Upper Canada busy, with the result that on Tuesday evening they will place on the ice two new men. One of these is Archie Atkinson, the well-known Ottawa defense player, who in 1912 played point for the New Edinburghs (amateur champions of Canada) and last year with the Montreal Wanderers. Atkinson comes well recommended by Rae Murphy and is known to Billy Hague, who also speaks well of him. The other player, Fréchet, was recommended by Ferlinquette (who two years ago played with Moncton and this year is a regular on the Canadiens.)

Mr. F. B. Carvell, M.P., leaves this evening for Ottawa to enter upon his parliamentary duties.
