CANAL GUARD KILLED BY FELLOW SOLDIER

St. Catharines, Oct. 7.—Private Theodore Burgoyne of the 19th Regiment was shot dead while on guard duty on the Welland Canal tonight, in full view of several comrades, by a fellow-member of the same detail known as Private Frank Hartley aged twenty-five years, who was immediately placed under arrest brought to this city and lodged in the police station on a charge of murder.

The victim is a son of the late E. W. Burgoyne, and a nephew of Alderman Burgoyne, proprietor of the Daily Standard. In private life he was a clerk in the St. Catharines branch of the Bank of Toronto, nineteen years of age and a great favorite of Hartley little is known. He joined the regiment a few weeks ago, since the guard had been placed upon the canal, and so far as can be learned, has no relatives here. He came to St. Catharines from some place in the United States, and gave his birth place as England.

A TRIFLING ALTERCATION.

The unfortunate tragedy took place just outside the lock shanty at lock 9, near Merriton, neither of the men being on sentry-go at the time. An altercation over some trivial matter took place between Burgoyne and Hartley, according to other members of the guard who were close at hand, very few words of which appear to have been heard, but all agree that with an imprecation and with no visible provocation Hartley raised his rifle, pointed it hurriedly at Burgoyne's face, and discharged it before Burgoyne who was standing just a few feet away could brush the weapon aside, the bullet passing through Burgoyne's eye. The shot was fired at 7.05, and the victim was dead in seven minutes. Four comrades who witnessed the tragedy surprised and enraged,

"CASCARETS" ALWAYS STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

To-night! Clean your bowels and end Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box now.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach remove the sour undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a ten cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

Alas! how soon the Przemysl's glories fade before the rising star of Schutteschyn!

sprang upon Hartley before he could again use the rifle wrenched it away from him, dore him to the ground and handed him rather roughly before he was formally arrested.

Mr. J. McCarron has been engaged to look after Hartley's interests.

CONFERENCE BARS PARTISAN MOTION

Ottawa, October 8.—A proposal to congratulate the Hon. W. H. Hearst on his appointment to the Premiership of Ontario led to accusations of political partisanship on the floor of the General Conference of the Methodist Church. So strong was the feeling against the introduction of politics that the Rev. S. D. Chown, D. D., general superintendent of the church asked for the withdrawal of the motion.

The Rev. W. G. Hunt, of Calgary, and E. E. Starr, of Whitby, were mover and seconder of this resolution. A lay delegate, Mr. Patrick, of Victoria, jumped to his feet as soon as the motion was read and declared that the resolution was political.

"I think we should with very tender hands convey this resolution to the waste paper basket," said Delegate George Bell, Victoria.

Mr. W. B. Smith, of Oakville then reminded the conference that Mr. Hearst is an official member of the Methodist Church and declared that a resolution of congratulation to one of their own people would not be political.

"Mr. Hearst's appointment to the Premiership does not effect the Methodist Church from coast to coast," declared another delegate. "Mr. Hearst deserves congratulation, so does Mr. N. W. Rowell, for his great stand last June."

"In the judgement of the chair this motion had better be withdrawn," said the Rev. Mr. Chown. "It might cause a suspicion of a tinge of political partisanship in this conference." The motion was then withdrawn.

For a bet of ten shillings, a Barnsbury laborer consumed twelve buns and a gallon of ale in twelve minutes.

Old-age pensioners at Chiswick, England, are admitted free to one of the picture theatres every Friday on production of their pension books.

For "placing an obstacle on the rail, thereby causing a train to stop," a peasant of Nijni Novgorod was recently fined. He was trying to commit suicide, and the "obstacle" was his own head.

Leopold Federmann won the Bavarian beer-drinking championship by consuming at a three-hours' sitting at Munich fifty-three pints. Hans Hehnert came second with thirty-nine pints, while the third competitor accounted for twenty-seven.

It is estimated that the motor cars and motorcycles running in Great Britain and Ireland aggregate a value of approximately $275,000,000, while their first cost, the money spent on the purchase of motors during, say, the last ten years, cannot have been far short of $600,000,000.

Mr. John T. Stone, president of the Maryland Casualty Company, of Baltimore, reduced his own salary by $6,000 a year. He was receiving $36,000 a year. He told the directors that he was being overpaid and asked them to sanction a reduction. He explained that the cutting his own salary was preliminary to a reduction of expenses in all departments.

A curious novelty was introduced on the Paris stage in a little play called "Bicard, dit le Bouff," at the Théâtre Cluny, in the Latin quarter. Every evening a racing character in the piece gives the audiences a tip for next day's racing. Quaintly enough, the tips proved extraordinarily successful.
