MASSES AND CLASSES

The following letter was published in The New York Sun a short time ago:

"I am a reader of The Sun and have been so for thirty years. This perhaps gives me the right to ask a question which The Sun can probably answer. Theodore Roosevelt, in an address, made in New York, dwelt especially on the words 'the masses' and 'the classes.' I don't quite understand. Who are the masses and who are the classes? I am worth $5,000 easy, which I have made myself. There are a few men here who are worth twenty times that much. Are they the classes and am I the masses? Not much. Can you tell me whether I belong to the classes or to the masses, and if so, why? I have some friends who have not got as much money as I have. Are they the masses? I know it would not be safe to call them by that name. What am I, masses or classes?"

J. R. Rambo.

Norristown, Pa., June 22.

The Sun added the following comment:

Let us settle the matter at once before the campaign begins. The phrase is odious and nonsensical. The classes are the masses and the masses are the classes; American citizenship is the thing.

Of course Mr. Roosevelt did not invent the phrase or the idea. It is old in Britain. What strikes one as odd is the fact that the so-called "better" classes so resent the use of the phrase. For centuries in the older countries they were very careful to make the distinction and to preserve the gulf which it signified. The aristocracy were the people, the rest were the vulgar herd. Now, where the privileges of the one and the sufferings of the other are pointed out as reasons for a change in the order of things, the "classes" are surprised and disgruntled at the use of such terms by reformers. It makes all the difference in the world whose axe is gored.

HARRY THAW'S CASE

The Toronto Saturday Night thinks that whatever public sympathy there ever was with Harry K. Thaw, it has evaporated owing to the manner in which he and his friends have persistently exploited the sins and misfortunes of his poor wife. Admitting that Evelyn Nesbitt started her career as an adventuress at a very early age, she was it is clear placed on the market by a dissolute mother, and surely she has paid for all her wrongdoing by the public manner in which she has been compelled to make repulsive revelations. First she was induced to tell a highly colored story and to describe the eccentric habits of Thaw in order to set up a case of insanity and save him from the electric chair. No matter what her career it could not have been other than torture for the girl to relate to cold and relentless cross-examiners all the details of her past. Now the Thaws ask her to go back on her story and tell one that may form a basis for an argument that he is sane. Her refusal to do so led to an attempt to drag her through the mire again and she undoubtedly has the sympathy of everyone in her refusal to recite once more filthy facts with which every newspaper reader is acquainted. No doubt she is sincere in her belief that if Thaw were released from the insane asylum where he is detained he would kill her, and this belief is perhaps well grounded. At any rate, it is to be hoped that future investigations will be in private for no decent man wants to hear the name of Thaw again.

London, (Ont.) Advertiser.—The threat of the cement men to close their factories because the duty has been reduced 50 per cent., sounds like a bluff. The same noise was heard in September last from manufacturers over reductions of 5 per cent. Where the government is at fault is in reducing the tariff as an election bribe to Saskatchewan, without warning the manufacturers, or consulting Parliament.

Notwithstanding a hostile tariff the report of the U. S. Consular Agent shows that the exports to the United States from this section of the province during the last quarter amounted to $298,000, an increase of $43,000 over the previous three months. The list of items included $88,000 worth of hay and $44,000 worth of potatoes. Who are the disloyal farmers who are shipping so much produce to the United States?

The Chatham World, replying to The St. Andrew's Beacon, says that "it was not partyism but the lack of it," that caused the election of so many conservatives in the recent provincial election. Further, that it was due to "a desire to be on the winning side, to stand in with the dispensers of patronage and subsidies," etc. In other words, the result was not due to any particular virtue that the government possessed, to the excellence of its record, or to any progressive policy that it had presented to the people, but to "graft," pure and simple. This admission, on the part of a conservative newspaper, is worth noting.

Winnipeg Tribune—These are the Winnipeg Tribune—There are the speculative days in the west. Speculation permeates the whole country. It is almost natural that the ministers almost natural that the ministers should have fallen into the way of the elders, the managers and the ordinary church members. The latter might as well get after the notes in their own optics before talking too much of the beam in the eyes of the ministers.

Vancouver Sun.—It is time that the Canadian Government took the matter of Mormon enterprise in this country into its consideration. Not only should the agents of the Mormon Church be prohibited from carrying on their proselytizing labors here, but applicants for entry to the country found to be members of the Mormon society should be rigidly excluded.

St. Andrew's Beacon.—The C. P. R. may be grasping—it may be out after the dollars, like most other people, but with all its faults there is no corporation in Canada that has done more, to develop the country, than the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Wherever its lines touch, or its connections reach, there development begins and continues.

At the dinner given the Canadian ministers in England, Hon. Mr. Foster greatly pleased the liberal M. P's., of whom several were present, by his tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding, at having laid the foundations of the West India trade arrangement.

The farmers of Central New Brunswick sold $88,830 worth of hay in the American market during the months of April, May and June. This means about eight thousand tons, and as the duty is $1 per ton it cost them $82,000 to find a market for their hay.

The report of the United States Consular Agent for this port showing exports of $298,000 to the United States during the last quarter, should make interesting reading for the Tory flag-flappers who went about the country last fall preaching the doctrine of "no truck with the Yankees."

Will wonders never cease? Three first offence Scott Act cases were acknowledged on the police court here yesterday and the usual fines imposed. The policeman who laid the information should have a hero medal.

The "road-hogs" is what Montreal calls auto drivers who seek to monopolize the roadways. We haven't got to calling names down this way, but there is a good deal of grumbling about speed laws being broken.

I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000 Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and pay me if cured. I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Uric Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of stubborn, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate to sufferers at my own expense that I have a medicine that cures these diseases. I don't ask them to believe me, nor even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them a medicine at my own cost. That is surely fair.

To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some of it free. But in order that I shall know that you have a disease for which this medicine is intended, I ask you to send me some of your leading symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for you to use. Look the symptoms over, and which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 834 Franklin Building, Toronto, Can. The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view it, YOU incur no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who sent you the medicine that cured you."

If I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars' worth of medicine, and will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine and full directions free of charge, and I will do that.

DR. T. FRANK LYNOTT who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine.

I can say further that this medicine has been vouched for according to law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and backache, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate; it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can injure not one but will benefit. All that I ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests, I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is new and up to date and contains complete descriptions, symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book—the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

If you need medicine such as I have, if you are anxious to be cured and don't want to spend any money LOOKING for cures, write me. Read the symptoms over and let me hear from you today.
