Red Sox Captured First Game of World's Series

Score 4 to 3--Giants Made Wonderful Rally in Ninth Inning But Joe Wood was Equal to the Occasion Striking out Two Men--Tesreau Batted out of Box by Boston in Sixth Inning Crandall Finishing the Game--Shortstops Made the Only Two Errors

New York, Oct. 8--The Boston Americans overcame the New York Nationals by a score of 4 to 3 today before more than 35,000 people in the first game of the world's series. The contest was nip and tuck all the way. The Giants made a thrilling rally in the ninth inning when they nearly tied the score, but "Smoky Joe" Wood's bewildering speed turned the two Giant batters back to the bench on strikes for the last two putouts and the Red Sox carried off the honors.

When victory perched on the banners of the Red Sox post, the Boston delegation matched across the field and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, who was a guest of Mayor Gaynor, led in the cheers for the players of both teams. Governor Eugene Foss of Massachusetts and Governor Tener of Pennsylvania saw the contest.

HAIR-RAISING FINISH

Rarely, if ever, has any world's series game provided such a dramatic finish. Two runs behind, the Giants' supporters had given up hope. Hundreds were leaving the stand when Werkle sent a single whistling to the outfield after one man was out. Even then the chance of tying the score seemed remote, but a "Texas leaguer" by Herzog, followed quickly by a smoking hit by the Indian, Meyers, who sent Merkle home, put the stands in a flame of excitement.

With Giants on second and third, thousands stood in their seats and yelled. Fletcher swung his bat nervously at the plate while Joe Wood, white of face, seemed anxious. The Red Sox twirler patted the grass, hitched his belt, rubbed the ball and adjusted his cap. This delay unsettled Fletcher and he swung futilely at Wood's fast breaking shoots three times and went back to the bench.

Crandall, strong man in the pinch, came up. Wood put over two strikes and then three balls. The Red Sox twirler drew back his arm and shot over a high fast in shoot. Crandall swung missed it by an inch and the game was over.

TESEREAU BATTED OUT OF BOX

It was a battle of managerial wit in the selection of the pitchers. Manager McGraw pinned his faith in Tesreau, and the Osark bear hunter held the Red Sox hitless until the sixth inning, when Speaker's three-bagger broke the ice. Tesreau weakened in and seventh inning and before the fusilade of Boston hits was over three runs were across the plate, and the Red Sox had a lead of two runs.

Manager Stahl placed his star pitcher, Joe Wood, on the mound. In only two innings was the Red Sox moundsman hit hard and his dazzling speed continued undiminished until the last man had struck out. Wood fanned eleven batters. He gave only two bases on balls.

LARRY DOYLE SHONE

For New York, Larry Doyle shone with his usual brilliancy. He had two hits in four trips to the plate, one of them being or two bases. He was all over the field and nothing got past him. Herzog was also very much in the game, getting two hits and helping New York make the third run.

ONLY TWO ERRORS

But one attempt was made to steal a base and that came in the second inning when, after reaching first base on a force, Stahl started down and was flagged by Meyers with a perfect throw to Doyle.

Despite the nervousness of the two teams there were but two misplays. Those were committed by Wagner and Fletcher, the two shortstops falling down on east grounders, no doubt due to their anxiety to get the ball across to first.

Seventeen men struck out during the game. For New York, Fletcher fell a victim three times to Wood's "smoke" balls. Tesreau fanned twice and Devore, Snodgrass, Merkle, Herzog, Meyers and Crandall each struck out once.

"Jake" Stahl went out twice on strikes as did also Third Baseman Aardiner. Hooper and Speaker struck out once.

The umpiring was of the highest order. There was no disputing Klem's work on balls and strikes and Evans had no trouble in deciding the play on the bases. O'Loughlin and Rigler had nothing to do.

BOSTON "FANS" WENT WILD

Boston, Oct. 9--Bulletin board crowds of a size rarely equalled in this city exulted today over the Red Sox's stirring victory in New York.

"Good old Joe Wood" was the slogan of thousands of fans, after the opening game of the world series had been decided in Boston's favor. When Wood struck out Pitcher Crandall of New York for the third out in the ninth inning with men on second and third bases, a sigh of relief went up from the multitudes and all were shouting and cheering in the next breath.

Boston's victory today had its effect on both the betting and speculation in tickets. The betting, which has been 10 to 8 on the Red Sox, dropped generally to 10 to 6. Tickets for the three games which originally cost $9 were held at $25 a piece, and a few sales were made. Indications were that the prices tomorrow would be even greater as the number of tickets in speculators' hands is small and the demand increased with the hours.

BIG GATE RECEIPTS

New York, Oct. 8--The national commission's figures for attendance and receipts at today's game are as follows:--

Total paid attendance, 35,530; total receipts, $75,127; national commission's share, $7,513; players' shares, $10,568; each club's share, $13,523.

DIAMOND DUST

Lejune, the Grand Rapids outfielder drafted by the Cleveland Naps, had a trial with the Brooklyn team two years ago.

Rumors are traveling thick and fast that Robert Brown of Louisville, has been picked to succeed Thomas J. Lynch as president of the National League.

President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Club, has refused to allow Marty O'Toole and Bobby Byrne to join Umpire Rigler's all-star team on a Cuban tour this winter.

It was Third Baseman Baker who put the kibosh on the Giants last year and the New Yorkers will surely keep an eye on Larry Gardner, who plays third for the Red Sox, in the coming championship series.

HALIFAX RUGBY LEAGUE TO OPEN SATURDAY, OCT. 12

H. M. S. Cornwall Given Dates in League--Montreal Team to Play in Halifax 26 and 28

(Acadian Recorder.)

Representatives of the Halifax Football League met Saturday afternoon to arrange for the coming season. L. S. Bauld, Wanderers, was elected chairman of the League, and N. B. McKay, Dalhousie, secretary. When Cornwall is heard from they will be asked to name their representative on the committee. With the idea that the Cornwall was to be here Oct. 16 to 24, dates were decided upon, but advcs to others give the dates here as Oct. 22 to 30. The schedule as decided upon Saturday, subject to advices from H.M. S. Cornwall, is as follows:

Saturday, Oct. 12--Dalhousie vs Wanderers.

Wednesday, Oct. 16--Wanderers vs Cornwall.

Saturday, Oct. 19--Dalhousie vs Cornwall.

Tuesday, Oct. 22--Wanderers vs Cornwall.

Thursday, Oct. 24--Dalhousie vs Cornwall.

Saturday, Nov. 2--Wanderers vs Dalhousie.

The Montreals play the Wanderers here Saturday, Oct. 26, and will meet a picked Halifax team from Wanderers, Dalhousie and Cornwall (if here) Oct. 28.

CINCINNATI REDS

AFTER FRANK CHANCE

Chicago, Oct. 8--That an offer has been made to Frank L. Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs, to lead the Cincinnati Reds next season became known yesterday. President August Herrmann made the proposition last week after a conversation with President Murphy of the Cubs, but none of the parties concerned would talk today.

Chance said he was bound by a promise made when he sold his tenth interest in the Cubs to return to his old team next year if he wanted to. He said he would say nothing of Herrmann's offer until he learned positively whether the Cubs wanted to offer him a contract for the next season.

BALKAM SHOWED UP WELL AT U.N.B. WORK-OUT TUESDAY

Coach "Babe" Church had the U. N. B. squad out again yesterday for a hard workout. The practice was largely spoiled, however, by the absence of many players. Injuries was the cause of absence in some cases. The feature of the practise was the showing of "Curly" Balkam, who ran through the whole fifteen he was playing against for a nice clean try. He was used both as full back and half. His experience gained in former seasons should stand him in good stead and make him a valuable player this season. Some of the candidates for the first team half-line have to hustle to get places with Balkam going good. Atkinson, who was playing half in yesterday's practise, showed marked improvement and it would not be surprising to see him land a place on the first team.

The intercollegiate schedule is to be arranged at St. John tomorrow, and with the dates for the Acadia and Mount A. matches fixed, the U. N. B. management will know just where it is at with regard to other games.

It had been hoped to have a Fredericton City team organized to play a practise game tomorrow but it is doubtful if one can be got together. It is possible that there will be a game between City and College later however.
