ALLIES BUYING FOOTWEAR IN FREDERICTON

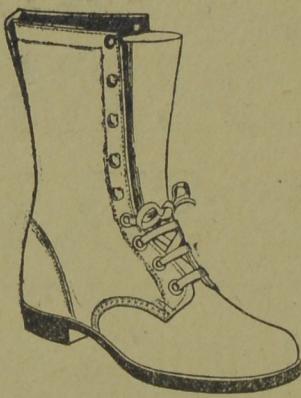

Palmer McLellan Concern Have Sent One Shipment and Booked More.

Fredericton, April 11.—(Special)—Fredericton is now supplying footwear for the allied armies in Europe. A large consignment of oil-tanned footwear manufactured by the Palmer-McLellan Shoe Company at its factory in this city, was shipped last week from St. John by steamer Metagama. Other shipments are to follow. The Canadian militia department has repeatedly been urged to adopt footwear of this type but so far has not consented.—Daily Telegraph.

OLD TIME SCENE IN HALIFAX HARBOR

(Halifax Chronicle.)

An example of the way in which sailing vessels, square-riggers included are benefiting from the prevailing high-rate of freight was given in Halifax harbor yesterday afternoon when three large Norwegian barkes from across the Atlantic sailed majestically into port and unadvised came to an anchorage behind George's Island. It was a sight that is unparalleled in recent history of the port. All three ships, with all square sails set, waited merrily along by a westerly breeze, made their way to their anchorage with as much ease as if they were yachts manoeuvring for the start of a race. The last of the three, it is true, had a northerly slant and just inside the lighthouse had to brace her head yards and wear onto the star-board tack, but she succeeded in making up the harbor and by five o'clock her sails were furled and the doctor had boarded her.

Before night fall Camperdown reported that a fourth bark had passed Chebucto Head bound in and tugs went out to meet her and early last evening another square rigger was reported about five miles off the Head. Five barks again, into Halifax in about as many hours is sufficient evidence of the great boom that the war has caused for sailing ships. All five vessels have come here to load deals for England. As each ship came in she was passed by the Norwegian bark Cimba, which lumber-laden, was towed out the harbor yesterday afternoon to sea and before the sun had set was under sail and away for England.

TIMBER REPORT.

Farnsworth & Jardine's wood circular, dated Liverpool, April 1, contains the following concerning New Brunswick and Nova Scotia spruce and pine deals: "The import to the Mersey, including Manchester Canal, during the past month, amounted to 2,290 stds, against 5,430 stds. during the corresponding period last year; there was fairly active demand, and imports went largely direct into consumption; stocks are now exceedingly light, barely equal to two months' consumption; values continue exceedingly high; tonnage is scarce, almost unobtainable, and freight rates practically prohibitive. Fine deals are in moderate demand at improved prices; stocks are low."

CLEARED FOR ST. JOHN.

The schooner L. A. Plummer, Capt. Foster, cleared for St. John yesterday afternoon. Being short of a crew Capt. Read of this city, went along to assist in handling the craft.

BOY KILLED A GOOSE.

Ten-year-old Carey Bray of Hopewell Cape, surprised his friends a day or two ago by bringing home a fine, large wild goose which he laid low with a stone. The youngster saw two geese, which are so eagerly sought for by the local sportsmen, alight on the marsh near his home and giving chase he succeeded in bagging one, first breaking its wing with a well aimed stone. Goose dinner followed.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Plurisy Pain Vanishes! Chest Colds Cured!

NERVILINE HAS NEVER FAILED TO CURE

Don't suffer! Nerviline is your relief. Nerviline just rubbed on, lots of will ease that drawn tight feeling over your ribs, will destroy the pain will have you smiling and happy in no time.

"I caught cold last week while mowing," writes P. T. Mallory, of London. "My chest was full of congestion, my throat was tight, sore, and I had the fiercest stitch in my side you could imagine. As a boy I was accustomed to have my mother use Nerviline for all our minor ailments, and remembering what confidence she had in Nerviline, I sent out for a bottle at once. Between noon and eight o'clock I had a whole lot of it rubbed on, and then got into a perspiration under the blankets. Tois drove the Nerviline in good and deep, and I woke up next morning fresh as a dollar and absolutely cured. Nerviline is now always part of my travelling kit, and I will never be without it."

The large 50c. family size bottle is the most economical, or you can easily get the 25c. trial size from any dealer.

"How shall I dress tomorrow?" is the all important question that fills the mind of a woman the first time she goes to bed in a sleeping car. And no wonder! To get a run for your money chase a street car.

ONLY THREE OF PAT'S OFFICERS HAVE ESCAPED

Ottawa, Ont., April 20.—The death roll among Canada's troops at the front now totals over 300 including some seventy-five deaths from illness either at Salisbury Plain or since the troops went to France. The list of wounded brings the total casualties up to about one thousand, or about one in every forty of the men who have so far left Canada. The heaviest list of casualties is of course from the Princess Patricia's who have been in the firing line for nearly four months. Only three of the officers who left Ottawa with the last regiment last August have escaped German bullets.

TO START A LAUNDRY

Chatham Commercial:—Nelson King of Fredericton visited Chatham last week with a view of starting a laundry here. Mr. King inspected the laundry premises, corner Wellington and Cunard streets and expressed himself well pleased with the equipment, and the need of an up-to-date laundry in the town. It is probable that he will operate the plant in the near future, and should he decide to do so, will doubtless be accorded the liberal patronage of the people of Chatham and vicinity, as the need of such an industry here is plainly apparent.

LIEUT. DAVES GILLMOR DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF

The St. George correspondent of The St. John Telegraph, writes as follows concerning Lieut. Daves Gillmor, who is well known here:

"Lieut. Daves Gillmor, son of Senator Gillmor, has been distinguishing himself at the Intern Camp, Spirit Lake, where a large number of Austrians are quartered. In a break for freedom two of the prisoners got forty miles from camp, a trapper brought word of their whereabouts, and Lieuts. Gillmor and Sherring went after them. It meant an eighty mile trip behind dogs and the mercury in the neighborhood of forty below. The trail was a hard one, through an unknown country that the snow made most difficult to follow. They were obliged to spend several nights in the open, digging a shelter for themselves under side hills. They found their men making all haste towards the T.N.O. railway. A display of revolvers knocked the fight out of the foreigners, who were at first inclined to resist. It was a hard trip back to camp but the prisoners were landed. The young men were highly commended by their superiors for their work."

Mr. Gillmor is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards of this city, and was engaged some years ago in the construction of the substructure of the Fredericton-St. Mary's highway bridge. He played with the Fredericton hockey team at that time.

"GOOD CREDIT" At a very fashionable and equally expensive tailor shop about town a certain middle-aged out-of-town customer discovered that he lacked sufficient change to pay for his humble purchase—a pair of gray gloves. "May I change them?" he asked. "I find I haven't my check book with me." "What was the name?" demanded the rather displeased tailor in peremptory manner. He was told the name and address. "Oh, that's all right, sir," exclaimed the tailor, now beaming with exaggerated affability. "Your son trades here."—Yale Record.
