EDITOR COMMITTED ON CHARGE OF LIBEL

Mr. Thomas Gowans, the editor and proprietor of The Uxbridge, Ont., Journal, was lately committed for trial by Magistrate Thomas Foster of Cannington, yesterday on charges of publishing defamatory libel, preferred by Major Sam Sharpe, M.P. for North Ontario. Bail was granted. The hearing was held in the market hall, which was crowded. His legal partner, Mr. H. P. Cooke, represented Major Sharpe, while Mr. George A. Sedgewick of the firm of Beatty, Blackstock, Cowan, Fasken & Chadwick of Toronto, looked after Mr. Gowans' interests.

ARTICLES COMPLAINED OF.

A week ago Friday Mr. Gowans formally admitted that it was he who published the extracts to which Major Sharpe has taken objection. The hearing, however, was adjourned at that point until today. The extracts in question are:

"The Wall Street Journal prints a story, evidently supplied that journal, of six hundred officers flunking after enlisting in the first contingent. Wall Street is wrong that time. There was only one officer who flunked and ran home and that was the member for North Ontario, and he got as far as Hot Springs, under the Stars and Stripes."

This was published on April 1 and forms the subject of the first charge. Again on April 8 the following appeared in The Journal, under the caption, "Notes and Comments":

"Why should he run from Valcartier? My goodness, he had a pass."

"Major S. Sharpe, reputedly L.L.B., says he did not run from Valcartier, only took the fastest train."

In asking for commitment of Mr. Gowans, Mr. Cooke contended that publication was all that was necessary to warrant a trial of the case, and that such publication was proved by Jollett's evidence. He referred to the paragraphs themselves as a gross and indecent insult and to Mr. Gowans' conduct in publishing them as dastardly.

POSITION OF DEFENCE.

Defence alleged that there had been no liability to cause a breach of the peace and thus justify criminal proceedings, and that, while the complainant in a libel action had to be injured in his calling, it had not been shown that Mr. Sharpe was at present either a member of the militia or the House of Commons, the callings mentioned in the information. Magistrate Foster committed Gowans for trial.

Had Heart Trouble FOR YEARS.

Weighted 87 Lbs.
Now Weighs 138 Lbs.

Miss Beatrice Lougheed, Staples, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had heart trouble for quite a few years. I doctored for it, and altogether my bill amounted to $400, and still no cure. One day when very sick I was lying on a couch close to where some almanacs were hanging. I took one down, and was reading about what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured, and thought I would try them. I got six boxes to start with; have only taken three boxes and I never felt so well in my life as I do now. I only weighed 87 pounds when I started to take them, and now I weigh 138 pounds. I hope all poor-sufferers will be benefited by them as I have been."

Wherever there is any weakness of the heart, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will strengthen it and build up a strong healthy system.

WATER FALLING.

The water in the river here fell several inches since Wednesday and those familiar with the river state that the height of the freshet has been passed. What is needed now by the lumbermen is a period of warm weather, which will melt the ice in the woods and keep the streams up to proper pitch. The temperature today seems to indicate that warm weather has arrived.

HAD HARD SLEDDING.

It is reported about the city that the Flemming whitewash resolution encountered hard sledding before it reached the legislature. The members for Carleton refused to fath it and it was finally unloaded upon Mr. J. L. White of Victoria. It was discussed in caucus and it is said precipitated a good old fashioned scrap. Several of the members took good care to be absent from the House when the resolution was brought down.

Capt. Victor Johnson of the Ambulance Column, who was called to Pictou, N.S., by the death of his brother, has returned to the city.
