"BUTTON, BUTTON."

A teacher in a Massachusetts town was instructing the children of her class in the meaning of three words—love, charity and happiness. After explaining at some length to each what the words meant, she handed to each child three buttons. "This one is charity, this love, and this happiness," she remarked. "Now take them, home and study them, and in three days I want you to bring them back and tell me what each button represents."

The time passed, and on the third day teacher called one little boy to her desk and said, "Johnny, what do the three buttons I gave you represent?"

"This one," said Johnny, "is love. This one is charity. I can't get it on my pants this morning."

COST OF REPAIRS TO LEGISLATIVE BUILDINGS

Hon. Mr. Morrissey, in reply to Mr. Pelletier's inquiry, said:

Q. 1.—What was the cost of painting, repairing and improvements to the Legislative Building and grounds since last April?

A.—Separate accounts are not kept for the various government buildings, but there is one general account called "Legislative Building and Offices" for which an appropriation is voted each session, and it includes the legislative building, libraries, judges' chambers, Supreme Court room, departmental buildings, governor's offices, educational department, office of registrar of Supreme Court and local government rooms, St. John.

The painting and paper hanging in the legislative and departmental buildings since last April, $2,718.82.

To concrete walks and driveways, $1,267.25.

For general improvements, including purchases of carpet, carpet paper, linoleum, brass binding, window shades, curtains, dyeing curtains, wall paper, mason work, staging material, labor, repairing roofs, etc., $5,663.15.

Q. 2.—Who had charge of the work? Who were employed and for how many days and at what rate per day?

A.—J. Howard Donovan and Steve B. Brown had charge of the painting, papering, etc., with A. C. Fleming as general inspector and J. M. Chappell was contractor for the concrete walks. The accounts for all expenditures except roads, bridges and wharves, are in possession of the auditor general.

Q. 3.—Is the work completed?

A.—Whatever work so far undertaken by the Public Works Department has been completed.

ADVANTAGE IN GOOD LOOKS

"What did you learn at the school?" the boss asked the fair young applicant for the stenographer's job.

"I learned," she replied, "that spelling is essential to a stenographer."

The boss chuckled.

"Good. Now let me hear you spell essential."

The fair girl hesitated for the fraction of a second.

"There are three ways," she replied. "Which do you prefer?"

And she got the job.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Beautify Your Hair! Make it Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see the new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle or scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowltons Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

mayor of a small town in Wisconsin, where the senator had been engaged to speak:

"The mayor said: 'Ladies and gentlemen, I had been asked to introduce you to the Honorable Senator Blank, who will make to you a speech, yes, I had now done so; he will now do so.'"

BASE INSINUATION

One morning Mr. Bainbridge came downstairs in a very disturbed state of mind. He informed his wife that little Bobby had taken some money out of his pocket.

"Now, Henry," said the wife, reproachfully. "I don't think it is right for you to charge Bobby with taking money out of your pocket. Why, you might as well accuse me!"

"Oh no, Sue," replied the trute. "It wasn't all taken you know."—Harper's Magazine.

AN APPALLING DISCOVERY!

"What's that?" exclaimed Pat's wife, about two o'clock in the morning. "Can I hear burglars?"

Pat slipped on a pair of slippers, and, with extended arms, crept towards the door.

There was a long pause, then: "Shades of St. Patrick!" yelled Pat simultaneously with a loud, ominous

INFORMATION ABOUT THE VALLEY RY.

Mr. Dugal's enquiry concerning the Valley Railway was replied to by Premier Clarke in the House yesterday as follows:

Question 1. What are the terms of the agreement under which that portion of the Valley Railway from Fredericton to Centreville is now operated?

Answer 1. That portion of the Valley Railway between Fredericton and Centreville is operated under an agreement between the St. John & Quebec Railway Company and the I.C.R. and provides that the St. John & Quebec Railway Company will permit the I.C.R. to operate at its own expense, the section of the railway referred to and that all earnings from the operation shall accrue to the I.C.R. to cover expenses of operating, the excess of earnings, if any, are to be paid to the St. John & Quebec Company. Under the arrangement the St. John & Quebec Railway Company undertook to complete as rapidly as possible the construction of the said section between Fredericton and Centreville and the I.C.R. agreed to furnish free transportation for men and material engaged in this work. This agreement went into effect January 1, 1915. Although not contained in the written agreement it was understood that the provincial government would make up one-half of any loss incurred while the road was operated under this agreement.

Question 2. When does the government expect the I.C.R. to take over the completed portion of the railway as provided by legislation and agreement?

Answer 2. On April 1, 1915.

Question 3. Under what arrangements is the road from Fredericton to Gagetown operated?

Answer 3. The road between Fredericton and Gagetown is operated by the I.C.R. and no arrangement of which the government is aware has been made.

Question 4. Has the government any intimation that this part of the railway will not be taken over until more work is done upon it?

Question 4. The government has no such intimation.

Question 5. If not, what is delaying its daily operation?

Answer 5. This is a matter at present within the discretion of the I.C.R. authorities.

thump.

He had come across an open door, and, of course, his arms had gone each side of the door, bringing his nose into contact with it.

"Why, what's the matter?" said Mrs. Pat.

"Shure, it's the biggest surprise of my life!" answered Pat. "It's the first time I knew that my nose was longer than my arms!"
