GLADSTONE'S GRANDDAUGHTER IN A LOVE ROMANCE

London, Eng., May 8.—Begun on side by side in the front pew behind Mrs. Drew and Lady Gladstone. After the ceremony a reception was held at 78, Eaton Square, where the guests were received by Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Henry Gladstone. The wedding presents were on view in the inner parlours. These included a diamond brooch, bearing the Royal cypher, from Queen Alexandra, a collar of pearls and amethysts from the Duchess of Argyll, a diamond corsage bow from Lord and Lady Gladstone, a ruby and diamond necklace from Lord Rosebery, a silver teapot from Mr. Balfour, and a splendid aquamarine brooch from the Duke of Westminster.

In attendance upon her were fourteen bridesmaids, whose classical robes of cream-colored crepe embroidered with gold, as well as their charming headresses, were designed by the bride herself. Their curious wreaths of sheeny silver foliage were formed of the blanket leaves from the Table Mountain, South Africa, where the romance of the engagement began.

The procession of bridesmaids was headed by two small fair-haired children, Lady Lettice Lygon and Miss Stella Pelly, in full-length frocks similar to those worn by the elder girls, among whom were Miss Catherine Gladstone, Miss Margaret Ward, Miss Elin Douglas-Tennant, Miss Christian Methuen, Miss Venetia Harvey, Miss Rachel Lytton, and the bridegroom's two sisters.

The seven pairs of maidens were bound together by a long chain of fresh green smilax, which they held in position as they advanced behind the bride.

Lord Rosebery and Mr. Arthur Balfour (who signed the register sat side by side in the front pew behind Mrs. Drew and Lady Gladstone. SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS WERE FINED AT HARVEY

Harvey Station, May 9.—The trial of Gilbert Graham and Robert Embleton for working on Sunday, took place here this afternoon at two o'clock, before Magistrate J. W. Taylor. The charge was "That they did on Sunday, March 24th last, perform labor by hauling hay to Harvey Station, contrary to the provisions of the Lord's Day Act." The complaint was brought by James Robinson, a hotel keeper and livery stable man of Harvey.

The constable who served the summons upon the accused, entered the court room with a bound and treated the Presbyterian populace present with a sample of Cork clog-dancing and high kicking, which caused much merriment, some applause and catchy remarks from several persons, one to the effect "this is a great day for us."

Perfect order prevailed when the magistrate entered the room. The defendants pleaded guilty to the charge. Mr. Taylor asked if they desired to make a statement or had anything to day as to why they should not be punished for the offence charged against them. They answered that their pastor would speak for them. Elder J. A. Strickland, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist churches at Fredericton and Harvey, addressed the court in their behalf. In substance his remarks were as follows:

"Your honor, these men are well known to you and to all who are present in this court room. They were born in this vicinity and have been life long residents of this community. That they have always been law abiding citizens of Canada and loyal British subjects none will deny. You and all the spectators here know them to be men of high moral character and sterling worth, your neighbors and trusted friends who have grown up with you from childhood. They deeply regret that a religious question should cause a cessation of the friendly feelings that have heretofore existed toward them. They sincerely respect the religious opinions of all and grant to every man the right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. They conscientiously believe that the seventh day is the Sabbath and that their christian duty is to observe it, as it is commanded by God and contained in his eternal law. They believe that, as honest and consistent christians, they should obey the teachings of the Bible, which Your Honor admits is the word of God and sets the standard of christian conduct. They realize that they have violated a federal law that was passed by parliament at Ottawa, which commands the observance of the first day of the week instead of the seventh day as enjoined by God, rather than this law which forbids obedience to God and substitutes therefore an act that was planned and imposed upon the people of Canada by the influence of a few men known as the Lord's Day Alliance."

"They admit the charge against them and are perfectly willing to go behind the prison bars for their offence, if it is the desire of the professing christians of this community. They will entertain no hard feelings against you, Your Honor, nor any one of His Majesty's servants who legally perform their duty. But as loyal christians they have conscientiously observed the seventh day of the week and they now take their stand with the Apostle Peter, who said, 'Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye,' but as for us we hold 'That we ought to obey God rather than men,' Act. 4:19-29. God, who commanded us to keep the seventh day, set the example for the first day conduct, when he had created the heavens and the earth on the first day."

The following royal declarations were read to show that persecution of persons for their religious beliefs were contrary to the expressed will and desire of British sovereigns: "Firmly relying on the truth of christianity, we declare it to be our royal will and pleasure that none be in any wise favored, none molested or disquieted by reason of their religious faith or observance."—Queen Victoria.

"It is my constant desire that religious and civil liberty should always be enjoyed by my subjects in all parts of the empire."—King Edward VII, to the Plenary Council of the Roman Catholic Church in Quebec, Canada.

Elder Strickland begged that His Honor would follow the established precedents and universal custom of British judiciary procedure, by imposing the minimum fine, if any, for the first offence where the act of the offender was without malicious intent and did not aim at the injury of others.

No witnesses were called nor any word of evidence given by the prosecution.

Magistrate Taylor said that considering the seriousness of the charge he would fine each of the accused ten dollars and costs and would allow six days for settlement of the fines. If they were not paid within that time, their property would be levied on and the amounts forcibly collected.

After court adjourned Magistrate Taylor said that a large number of persons had made complaint to him and urged him to prosecute the case. The defendants asked as a personal favor that he tell who the complainants were, but this request was refused. An appeal directly to those present succeeded in getting only one person, David Devitt, the C.P.R. agent, to acknowledge making complaint.

In the course of his remarks to the court, Elder Strickland said:

"The accused, myself and all of our kind will forever renounce the keeping of the seventh day and strictly observe Sunday if anyone will produce one single statement from the Scriptures that says we ought to keep the first day."

As the defendants left the court, the sounds of noisy dancing and shouts of exultation were heard and continued until your correspondent was beyond earshot of the premises.

J. H. STRICKLAND.

HINTS ON ETIQUETTE

When a married lady calls upon an unmarried one it is customary to leave one of her own and one of her husband's visiting cards. The same rule applies when calling upon a widow, if she lives alone. The service of a three-course dinner consists of a dinner knife laid near to the right side of the plate, the soup spoon, with bowl up, on the farthest side from the plate, as this is the first used. On the left side nearest the plate put the fork for dessert, then for the salad, then the meat fork. The napkins come next. The spoons for coffee or dessert (if dessert is to be eaten with a spoon tray and passed or have their place at the top of the plate. The glass for water can be either tumbler or goblet, and is placed at the upper edge of the plate or knives, the latter if preferred when the spoons are put at each cover. Everything should be removed from the left hand.

AWFUL NERVOUSNESS AND PARALYSIS CURED BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

The Miracle Worker, That Cures When Doctors Fail—Now Used In Thousands Of Homes In Every Section Of Our Great Country.

Two Men, From Widely Different Parts Of Canada, Tell How They Found Health And Happiness By Taking These Wonderful Fruit Juice Tablets.

WALKERTON, ONT., MAY 9th. 1911

"I have been in Walkerton in business for a good many years and many of my townsmen know that my health, for long periods, was precarious. My trouble was extreme nervousness, brought on by indigestion or Dyspepsia, from which I suffered in its most severe form. It was so bad that I could not sleep before about four in the morning. I noticed in the Toronto 'World' one of your published testimonials of how someone had used 'Fruit-a-tives' for similar trouble, and asked Mr. Hunter, my druggist, his opinion on the matter and he advised their use. I immediately procured several boxes and I am pleased to say that I now enjoy splendid health and could not possibly feel better. I can eat with every degree of satisfaction, and sleep without an effort, which pleasure I was denied before I was fortunate enough to use 'Fruit-a-tives'. I strongly advise anyone suffering from like complaints to commence using 'Fruit-a-tives' immediately. Don't stop at a few doses—but continue using 'Fruit-a-tives' until a cure is accomplished."

BRISTOL, N.B., JULY 25th. 1911.

"I am unable to say enough in favor of 'Fruit-a-tives', as it saved my life and restored me to health, when I had given up all hope and when the doctors had failed to do anything more for me. I had a stroke of Paralysis in March, 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the constipation of the bowels was terrible. Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way. Finally, I took 'Fruit-a-tives' for the constipation, and it not only cured me of that trouble but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the paralysis. Under the use of 'Fruit-a-tives', I grew stronger and stronger until all the palsy and weakness left me.

MR. ALVA PHILLIPS

I am now well again and attend my store every day and all day. I reverently say "Thank God!" for Fruit-a-tives."

ALVA PHILLIPS.

These two cases show the wonderful powers of "Fruit-a-tives" in restoring a shattered nervous system to health and vigor—in entirely curing obstinate Constipation—and in completely relieving Indigestion and Dyspepsia. What other one medicine in the whole world has ever done so much? "Fruit-a-tives" cures. It is the only medicine in the world actually made from fruit with the addition of valuable tonics. It is pleasant to take and will always give the most gratifying results when taken regularly.

Pennsylvania Man Thankful

Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich.

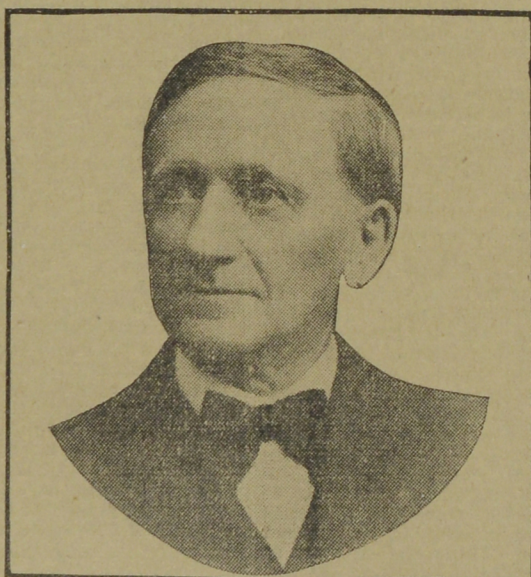

Dear Sir:—Perhaps it will interest you to know that I have been ruptured for years and have always had trouble with it till I got your Appliance. It is very easy to wear, fits neat and snug, and is not in the way at any time, day or night. In fact, at times I did not know I had it on; it just adapted itself to the shape of the body and seemed to be a part of the body, as it clung to the spot, no matter what position I was in. It would be a veritable God-send to the unfortunate who suffer from rupture. If all could procure the Brooks Rupture Appliance and wear it. They would certainly never regret it. My rupture is now all healed up and nothing ever did it but your Appliance. Whenever the opportunity presents itself I will say a good word for your Appliance, and also the honorable way in which you deal with ruptured people. It is a pleasure to recommend a good thing among your friends or strangers. I am, Yours very sincerely, JAMES A. BRITTON.

Recommend From Texas Farmer

Brooks Rupture Appliance Co., Marshall, Mich.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to let you, and also all people afflicted as I was, know what your Appliance has done for me. I have been ruptured for many years and have worn many different trusses, but never got any relief until I got your Appliance. I put it on last November, but had very little faith in it, but must say I am now cured. I have laid it away—have had it off for two weeks and doing all kinds of farm work with ease. While I was wearing it, I had

Dear Sir:—Your Appliance did all you claim for the little boy and more, for it cured him sound and well. We let him wear it for about a year, in all, although it cured him 3 months after he had begun to wear it. We had tried several other remedies and got no relief, and I shall certainly recommend it to friends, for we surely owe it to you. Yours respectfully, WM. PATTERSON.

Cured At the Age of 76.

Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich.

Dear Sir:—I began using your Appliance for the cure of rupture (I had a pretty bad case) I think in May, 1903. On November 29, 1905, I quit wearing it. Since that time I have not needed or used it. I am well of rupture and rank myself among those cured by the Brooks Discovery, which, considering my age, 76 years, I regard as remarkable. Very sincerely yours, S. A. HOOVER.

Child Cured In Four Months.

21 Jansen St., Dubuque, Iowa.

Brooks Rupture Appliance Co. Gentlemen:—The baby's rupture is also cured, thanks to your appliance, and we are so thankful to you. If we could only have known of it sooner our little boy would not have had to suffer nearly as much as he did. He wore your brace a little over four months and has not worn it now for six weeks. Yours very truly, Andrew Egenberger.
