PANAMA CANAL PROTEST
TO BE LEFT WITH BRITAINWashington, Aug. 12—A determined fight is to be made in the conference on the Panama bill against the granting of free passage in the canal to American foreign-bound ships. The conference committee had its first meeting today and continued a discussion of the measure at a night session.Senator Brandegee, who opposed the free toll provisions in the senate, is understood to stand with Representatives Adamson and Stevens, of the House conference, in opposing what they consider a violation of treaty rights and too great a concession to foreign-bound shipping. It is believed from the preliminary conferences on the measure that the free toll provision for American coastwise shipping will be retained.Little progress was made in the first session of the conference toward an agreement on the Bourne amendment, to divorce railroads from control of competing steamship lines, and the Reed amendment prohibiting trust-controlled ships from using the Panama canal. Both Houses have endorsed the plan to prohibit railroad-owned ships from using the canal; but the Bourne and Reed amendments are new matters so far as the House is concerned.

BRITAIN BIDDING HER TIME.

The British government, according to advices from the state department today, has made no further representations to the United States regarding the proposition to allow American vessels to use the canal free of tolls, since the note of Charge Innes, July 8 last. It is now awaiting, it is said, the enactment of the legislation into law and the adoption of regulations to put it into effect in order to have a sufficient basis for a more formal protest against what it regards as a clear breach of an existing treaty.

In recognition of the superior right of Great Britain to address the United States government on this subject by virtue of the existence of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, other European nations and even Japan have refrained from approaching the state department, notwithstanding that their interest is equal to that of Great Britain by reason of their right to claim equal treatment for their shipping under the favored nations clauses in existing conventions with the United States.Officials of the government, however, are said to expect that soon after the signature of the act by the president, the British charge will be directed to submit to the state department a formal protest in behalf of his government against what it regards as discrimination against British shipping. This will require an equally formal reply, citing the act itself as a mandate by congress, which the executive cannot disregard, supported by such argument as the diplomatic bureau can make, to justify the action.As this will amount to a positive refusal of the British request to treat British shipping on an equality with American, it is probable, in the opinion of government authorities, that the foreign office will come forward with a proposition to submit the issue to arbitration, calling attention to the existing British-American arbitration treaty as a basis for the proposition, which move would bring the matter to a real crisis.Should arbitration be adverse to the American position it would be necessary, it is said, for the state department to find reasonable ground for a declaration of the British overture, without laying itself open to the charge that it had deliberately violated the provisions of the treaty —the charge lodged against it in connection with the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.OLD GIVES UP WIFE TO YOUNGER MANMilwaukee, Aug. 12—"What is love?

Is it one should think only of himself and never of the one he loves?"That was the answer of Simon Koppel, when asked how it was that if he loved his wife, he could bear to let her secure a divorce that she might marry some younger man, who could support her better. He talked in broken English, for he is only a poor rag picker, but he said:
"We poor people need more love in our lives, for we have so little else."When Koppel took his wife to a judge and asked for a divorce he she could marry a younger man and explained that he was doing this because of his love for her."Would one be so selfish as to make the one he loves suffer, so she can be near him?" he said. "No, I am seventy-seven years old, my wife is fifty.""I am nearly done with this world My wife has many years yet to live.
I love my wife and she loves me.
But I can't support her. I can't let her go hungry, so I say that we go to a judge and get a divorce and she can get a younger man.
Then we will have enough to eat.""I am nearly ready to die now, and I can go to the other land in the skies better if I know that my wife will not want for food when I am gone. She is young, she can get another man; but me I am only a wreck. I am ready to die now. Do I love my wife? It is because I do love my wife that I will give her to another who can give her a better living than me.""My husband says he will not be satisfied if I do not get married to some other man," said the wife. "I love my husband and I would like to stay with him so long as he lives."WHAT IS MRS. BELMONT PLANNING WITH BEANSNewport, R. I., Aug. 10—Newport has a mystery. Society and the all-the-year-round Newporters are waiting to see what will happen.This is the mystery—Mrs. O. H. P.
Belmont has bought 100 cans of Boston baked beans and 100 small loaves of brown bread. What is she going to do with 'em? Here are some of the guesses that have been hazarded:She is going to try to cut down the high cost of living.She is going to serve them at a big suffrage meeting.She is going to serve them on her own table—and has laid in a large supply to last for the rest of the year.She is going to open a suffrage restaurant and serve beans.
At any rate the beans have causedCANADA'S WHEAT WILL TAX RAILWAYSOttawa, Aug. 10—There were stored in terminal and eastern elevators on August 2, nearly 2,000,000 bushels more wheat than on the corresponding date last year. In view of the increased harvest in prospect in the western provinces, this extra quantity on hand lends additional weight to the prediction that the railways will be taxed to the utmost to transport this year's production with anything like despatch.USUAL DIVIDEND ON

RETIREMENT OF COLONEL JACKSON

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10—After nearly forty years' service, Col. Jas.
B. Jackson, one of the best known officers of the army, will be placed on the retired list tomorrow on his own application. Col. Jackson comes from Kentucky, and is the son of Gen. James S. Jackson, who was killed at the battle of Perryville in 1862. Col. Jackson graduated at West Point in 1877, and served in Indian campaigns, in the Cuban campaign, in Alaska, in Porto Rico and in the Philippines. His last service was with the 25th Infantry at Fort Lawton, Wash.excitement which rival, even the oft-announced engagement of Eleanor Sears and Harold Vanderbilt or the report Mrs. Belmont is to sell some of her land and let in "tenement houses."SENSATIONAL POISONING CASE
AT HAMILTONHamilton, Ont., Aug. 12—Events are marking time in the tragedy of Miss Rose Ziehe who died Sunday after eating some candy given her by Mrs. Edith Bruce, a patient whom she had been calling upon. The facts gathered by the police have been forwarded to the crown authorities at Toronto and no new developments are expected pending the inquest.
The Misses Gertrude and Ethel Dalby sisters of Mrs. Bruce and Miss Vance who were also with Mrs. Bruce at the time and who some of the candy have fully recovered returned to their homes late last night. According to the police story the Dalby girls and Miss Vance each ate one of the chocolates and Miss Ziehe ate two while Mrs. Bruce bit into one and finding it bitter to the taste spat it out. The stomach of the dead girl and half a pound of the chocolates have been sent to Toronto for analysis and no statement will be given out before the inquest as to what sort of poison the candies contained though it is supposed to have been strychnine.James Bruce who is under arrest on an open charge, is in his early twenties. He was in debt and his marriage with Edith Dalby was arranged in a hurry under circumstances which he had shown on several occasions had greatly irritated him. It had never occurred to him before to treat his wife to candy. Miss Vance, Miss Ziehe and the Misses Dalby were chatting at the hospital with Mrs. Bruce, when the latter opened a box of chocolates which she informed her mother later in the evening had been given to her by her husband during the afternoon, and offered them to her chums. Miss Ziehe immediately partook of the candies as did the other girls and mentioned at that time that they had an odd taste.About twenty minutes later, the Ziehe girl with a cry of pitiful agony flung her hands to her breast and moaned terribly while the others looked on stunned for the moment.
The house doctors were rushed for as well as several nurses but when they arrived the unfortunate girl was stretched out on a nearby bed uttering shrieks of agony. The doctors worked over her to ascertain the cause of her illness but as the time sped away she gradually ceased moaning and passed away without uttering many words. It was on the information supplied by Mrs. Bruce the police arrested her husband. When he visited the hospital yesterday afternoon he was not very friendly to her she said, and attracted considerable attention by speaking in abusive terms to her. According to the parents of the young wife Bruce has been in difficulties financially for some time, and this to some extent caused the rift between them. Mrs.
Dalby declared late in the evening after visiting her daughter that Bruce had declared that he had practically been forced to marry the girl to save her from disgrace. I put it in the papers about her marriage and he did not like it said Mrs. Dalby I thought it should be announced and did not care whether he liked it or not.
