MAJOR MERSEREAU WOUNDED WHILE CARRYING DESPATCHES

A letter was received here yesterday by relatives from Mrs. Mersereau, wife of Major C. Jack Mersereau of the Canadian Expeditionary Force who was seriously wounded in the fighting near Ypres. It was written on May 3rd and at that time Mrs. Mersereau, who has been in England for some time, had been unable to locate her husband. She had sent telegrams to a number of hospital stations in France, but all had been returned to her. From an officer Mrs. Mersereau learned that her husband displayed conspicuous bravery. He was wounded while carrying a despatch, but refused to give up until the message was delivered. At the time of writing Mrs. Mersereau was in receipt of a message from the war office instructing her to go to London and get passports to enable her to proceed to France. According to press despatches she has since located her husband and is now in France with him. Mrs. Mersereau's failure to locate her husband earlier was unconscious for several days after being admitted to the hospital.

A letter was also received yesterday from Lieut.-Col. H. F. McLeod who is with the 12th Battalion at Shorncliffe.

COL. BRIDGES HEARD FROM

Col. J. W. Bridges, formerly of this city, who is in command of a field hospital in France in a letter to a friend here gives an interesting account of his experiences. He says that following the severe fighting around Ypres train loads of wounded Canadians arrived at the hospital he said were many fine specimens of manhood whom he had inspected and passed at Valcartier. He saw the same men parade before the King and Lord Kitchener in February and now he was seeing them a third time, wounded and helpless. He says that the wounded Canadians rejoice at being in a Canadian hospital, as they consider it the next best thing to being in Canada.

AT SHORNCLIFFE

A letter from Gunner Chas. Clarke of the 23rd Field Battery states that the Canadian Engineers who were mobilized at Ottawa are quartered about a mile from the lines of the battery. He writes also that he has seen Sappers William and Archie Babbitt of this city.

LEAVING FOR FRANCE

Corp. Charles Atkinson of St. Mary's who was with the 12th Battalion has written to a friend here that he was leaving for France with a draft. He stated that Sergt. Charles Blair of St. Mary's was with him.

PLAYED FOR WOUNDED

A letter from Bandman Elwood Kitchen of the 71st Regt. Band which is attached to the 12th Battalion states that the band consisted of twenty-eight pieces and would be increased to thirty-two. Shortly before the letter was written the band had played the battalion on a seventeen-mile route march and also had played a concert at a hospital where there were a number of wounded Canadians.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL GAVE ENJOYABLE CONCERT

A large audience was present in the schoolroom of the Methodist church last night when the various classes of the Sunday School contributed to an entertainment which was a portion of the observation of the centennial of the school. The celebration will conclude this evening with a banquet to the members of the school.

At last night's entertainment each class contributed a number. That by Miss Weddall's class, which represented each of the Allied Nations, was particularly well received by the audience.

The program was as follows:
Orchestra, Selection.

Miss Millican's Class, Duet, Marion and Bessie Fleet.

Miss A. Kilburn's Class, Dialogue, Eight Boys.

Miss Boyd's Class, Piano Solo, Eileen Keenan.

Two Part Chorus, "In Heavenly Love Abiding," Mendelssohn.

Miss Smith's Class, Recitation, Vesta Webster.

Miss Mae Kilburn's Class, Flower Exercise, Three Little Girls.

Miss M. Gibson's Class, Dialogue, The Six Flowers.

Orchestra, Selection.

Mrs. Ebbett's Class sold Candy during Intermission.

SEVENTY YEARS OLD FEELS LIKE FIFTY

Mrs. Whitehead's Tribute to Dodd's Kidney Pills

SASKATCHEWAN WOMAN ADVISES ALL PEOPLE SUFFERING FROM WEAKNESS TO USE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Goschen, Sask., May 17th, (Special).—"I am nearly seventy years of age but I feel like fifty." These are the words of Mrs. David Whitehead, a fine old lady well known and highly respected here. And Mrs. Whitehead does not fail to state that she owes her splendid health to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was so afflicted with weakness," Mrs. Whitehead says, "that I often fainted. I believed my trouble arose from my kidneys and reading an advertisement led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Now my weakness is gone. I can sleep better and I don't have a tired feeling as before."

"I advise all women suffering as I did to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Thousands of old men and women in Canada will tell you that Dodd's Kidney Pills have made them feel younger. And the reason is that with Kidneys made healthy by Dodd's Kidney Pills, pure blood carries new strength all over the body."

PROKOS WON BOUT.

Charlie Allen of this city, wrestled Jim Prokos, the Greek, at the City Opera House last night. Prokos guaranteed to throw Allen twice within one hour. He took the first fall in thirty-nine minutes with a scissors hold. He took the second in eight minutes. Prokos looked like one of the best wrestlers seen here in some time. He issued a challenge to Dan McDonald at the close of the match. Allen put up a game fight but was out of condition. A. McN. Staples was referee and W. A. Walsh timer.

Mrs. Vradenburg's Class, Chorus.
Miss Miller's Class, Recitation, Wilbur Steen.

Miss Wilson's Class, Quintette, A Bird in the Hand.

Miss Barker's Class, Duet, Florence Day and Vivian Coulthard.

Mrs. Squire's Class, String Quartette.

Miss Vradenburg's Class, Solo, Mrs. Chas. Richards.

Mrs. Stevenson's Class, Duet, Winnie and Blanch Harris.

Mrs. Osborne's Class, Recitation, Tate Hawkins.

Miss Weddall's Class, The Allies.
