HAD INDIGESTION
FOR OVER 10 YEARS.

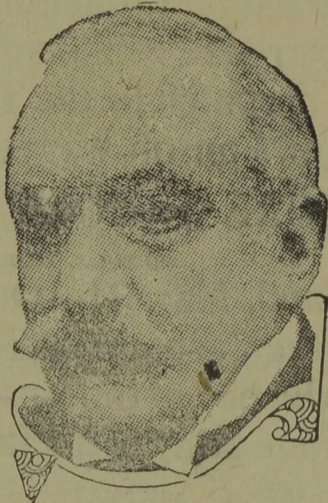

ALMOST DESPAIRED OF EVER
GETTING WELL.

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble. The stomach becomes upset and you have a raw, debilitating feeling in it. After a meal you feel that you must get rid of that nasty, bilious, burning sensation. It is not necessary for you to be troubled with indigestion if you will only try that old and well-known remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, which is a combination of nature's best known roots, herbs and barks for the cure of all stomach and blood troubles.

Mrs. Mary MacKay, Hunter's Mountain, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with indigestion for more than ten years. I tried several doctors' medicines claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. After taking two bottles I was completely cured. My appetite which was very poor is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings."

I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone suffering from indigestion."

B.B.B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MR. CHANDLER REFUSED TO HOLD AN INVESTIGATION

Does Not Care to Shed the White Light of Publicity on Mr.
W. H. Berry's Connection With the Timber Land Boodle Fund—Some Timely Observations
By Mr. E. S. Carter

Mr. W. B. Chandler, K.C., the Commissioner appointed by the Provincial government to clean the Augean stables was asked a few days ago to investigate Mr. W. H. Berry's activities in connection with the timber land boodle fund. He was asked, by Mr. E. S. Carter to ascertain why Mr. Berry was paid large sums by lumbermen for his own use and why he was given a donation of lumber for government house at Oak Bay.
He has decided that the matter is beyond his scope. His letter to Mr.
Carter is as follows:

March 27, 1915.

Mr. E. S. Carter:
Dear Sir,—I have considered the various matters referred to in your letter of the 23rd inst., and have come to the following conclusion with respect to them.

As to items 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, these are not covered by the commission under which I am acting. The matters referred to do not appear to me to be in any way connected with the administration of the Department of Lands and Mines and in my judgment should not be inquired into by me.

As to the expropriation of rosted pulp wood, there is no charge made of misconduct against any individual connected with any department of the provincial government, and I do not think I am in a position to inquire into the matter.

I can make the same remarks as to the last two items in your letter as to bridges. There is no charge against any particular person which I could investigate. In the absence of any such charge I do not see how I am to deal with these matters or inquire into them.

I have already explained to you that I did not make the remarks quoted by you as made by me on the eleventh day of March inst.
These remarks seem to have been attributed to me by some mistake or through some misunderstanding.

Yours very truly,

W. B. CHANDLER.

MR. CARTER'S STATEMENT

Referring to the above letter, Mr.
Carter who returned to Fredericton on Monday said:

Mr. Chandler's answer surprised me. I had no idea, after the challenge of the premier on the opening day of the session that if any man woman or child had any charge to lay against the government he had appointed a royal commissioner and there was an opportunity to go ahead and prove their assertions, that there would be the slightest difficulty in having such grave allegations as I made in my letter to Royal Commissioner Chandler inquired into.

"You asked me for a reason and I candidly tell you I do not know why in the face of not only the premier's challenge but the brave words of Hon. Mr. Baxter, the attorney-general, when Mr. Chandler opened his court, this investigation should be refused.

"In my letter to Mr. Chandler I quoted these words of Hon. Mr.
Baxter as his (Mr. Chandler's) sentence the newspaper reports in the government press credited them to Mr.
Chandler but as it appears they were made by a member of the government, and the attorney-general at that, they are more emphatic than if made by the commissioner.
On that occasion Hon. Mr. Baxter said:

"Even if there is but a suspicion of wrong the government will be glad to have that suspicion communicated so that persons who may have knowledge may be summoned to appear. We will not be bound by the strict rules of evidence but the commissioner has authority to use any methods he may deem to be in the public interests. If there are any charges or beliefs or suspicions now is the time to make them known."

"I think the people of New Brunswick will want to know why Commissioner Chandler refuses to inquire into these allegations when the principal members of the government who appointed him threw the doors so wide open and boasted of the broad powers given him. Just think of these words, 'Any man, woman or child,' and 'any belief, suspicion or charge' against the administration."

"The power that makes can unmake and the government which appointed Mr. Chandler can limit his powers. I leave it to the people to judge why the government does not want Mr. Berry to give evidence upon the several matters set forth in my letter. This brings us back to the question so often asked last summer, 'Why is Berry kept away?' Why did James K. Flemming refuse why its superintendent of seals, the man who was entrusted with the charge of the principal asset of the province, was being paid large sums of money either in connection with the classification of the crown lands or the collection of stumpage.

"As to the other allegations concerning the cost of painting and building bridges, I should think the government would only be too glad to set at rest all the rumors about these matters. Surely they come within the words, 'suspicion' and 'belief' used by the attorney-general."

"I have the greatest faith in the royal commissioner, Mr. Chandler, I think he will inquire into all allegations so far as he is permitted.
But that he has no free hand is very evident from his letter."

Toronto Globe:—Governmental ichtiness or fear is likely to inflict an endless postal nuisance on the people of Canada in addition to the increased rate. While automatic stamp sellers, rural delivery routes, and other inventions and improvements are affording all possible facilities, the government will impose the gratuitous annoyance of two kinds of stamps. The man who mails a letter with the new rate of three cents in ordinary stamps on it will learn that it has gone to the dead letter office because one of the stamps did not bear the intentionally misleading announcement, "War Tax." The increased postal rate will lessen postal business. That familiar economic law will, in its working, lessen the expected returns from the additional levy. And the unnecessary annoyance of a special line of stamps will lessen the returns still more. It will provide the maximum of nuisance for the minimum of returns.
