MANY NEW COUNCILLORS IN MUNICIPAL BODY

Some Surprises in York Election Yesterday--Graham Brothers Return to Council With increased Prestige--Big Vote For Coun. Neill--Coun. Walker Beaten in Marysville by New Man

The municipal elections took place in ten parishes of York county yesterday. Some surprises were sprung in certain parishes and as a result of the election there will be a number of new councillors at the board when the first meeting takes place in January.

In five parishes there was no election, the councillors being returned by acclamation. Six of the former councillors did not offer for re-election. According to the returns received up to noon today six councillors who offered for re-election were defeated. They are Coun. Pond in Stanley, Coun. Morrison in Queensbury, Coun. Walker in Marysville, Coun. Murray in Dumfries, Coun. Saunders in Prince William, and Coun. Burrill in McAdam.

The Graham brothers, against whom a dead set was made by a certain element connected with municipal politics, are both members of the new council. Coun. Pat Graham, who was a special object of attack, did not even have the trouble of an election in Southamton, being returned by acclamation, and in Prince William Coun. Robt. Graham was close to the leader of the poll. There was heavy plumping in St. Mary's and in Dumfries. In St. Mary's Coun. A. B. Neill polled a heavy vote, leading his running mate by over one hundred votes. In Dumfries Coun. Brewer doubled the vote of the next highest man. In St. Mary's ex-Coun. Goodspeed was the odd man in a three-cornered fight and was beaten. There were close elections in Marysville, Queensbury and Canterbury. In Marysville Coun. Walker was beaten by a new man. Coun. Walker was reported to be in line for the wardenship.

COUNCILLORS ELECT.

The councillors-elect are as follows: Bright--E. N. Reynolds, Hanford Sloat. Canterbury--Hugh W. Smith, Clarence A. Grant. Douglas--Harry A. Smith, Alex. Brewer. Dumfries--T. M. Brewer, Hiram Manuel. Kingsclear--T. C. Everett, Benj. Goodine. McAdam--Wm. Lawson, Fred Embleton. Manners-Sutton--S. B. Hunter, Robt. Thompson. Marysville--D. E. Pickard, Elwood H. Allen. New Maryland--Alex. Haining, Bliss H. Nason. North Lake--Prince William--Robt. Graham, Jas. King. Queensbury--Alex. P. Jones, Chesley Hallett. St. Mary's--A. B. Neill, Howard Young.

PLEADED GUILTY TO ASSAULT.

Mrs. Lottie Thompson pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon to wounding and inflicting grievous bodily injuries upon Norman Cameron but pleaded not guilty to the charge of keeping a disorderly house on Needham Street. A heavy bed-slat with which the woman beat Cameron over the head was produced in court. Jealousy is said to be the cause of the trouble the case is being continued this afternoon.

JUDGEMENT ON MONDAY.

Evidence in the assault case of Thompson vs Hatty was concluded this morning and the case was adjourned until Monday for judgement.

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF THE EMPRESS OF JAPAN.

HER MAJESTY, SADAKO, THE NEW EMPRESS OF JAPAN
Sado-Ko, the Empress of Japan, "the land of apple blossoms," is well loved by her subjects, for she is like her husband, the Emperor, who is very democratic. The Emperor chose her as his wife from a merely noble family--the quality of health entering appreciably into the choice.
