

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR, SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25 Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff
And Doubles Beauty of Your Hair.

Within ten days after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

NORWEGIAN CAPT. PROV- ED HIMSELF A BRICK Naturalized Canadian Ship- Master Refused German Bribes

New York, Dec. 1—The evidence being brought out at the trial of the Hamburg-American Line officials now going in before the District Court here, shows that the Germans picked up a Tartar on one occasion to deliver supplies to the fleet. He was chosen to command the steamship Unitas, which steamed from Philadelphia Aug. 8, 1914, was Captain Emil Olsen, a great broad shouldered Norwegian, who has passed his entire life at sea. Captain Olsen was induced to sign clearance papers giving Cadiz, Spain as his destination.

"The first day out," he said, "the German supercargo came to me and said he might as well tell me that we were going to the Western Islands to wait for German warships, which are to take our cargo. I said 'Nothing doing.' We cleared for Cadiz and to Cadiz we got."

"Then he offered me $500 and I replied: 'I wouldn't leave my course for a million.' Three days later he came to me and said if I would go where he wanted me to he would give me $30,000. I said 'We were going to Cadiz, the port we cleared for, and we did go to Cadiz. We could find no one there who knew anything about us. We remained there twenty-seven days and I then sold the cargo to the Spanish Transatlantic Steamship Company. The next thing I did was to tell the British Consul at Cadiz all about it."

"Where were you born?" asked Mr. Rand.

"In Norway," replied Olsen. Then with a broad grin he added: "But I was naturalized in Canada and am a British subject."

"So they picked the wrong man when they picked you to carry coal and provisions to the warships of your country enemies?"

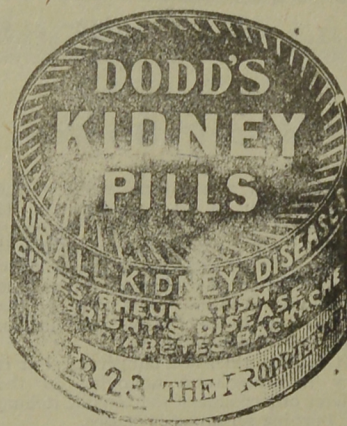

"They sure did," replied Olsen.

It is a good idea to save, if possible, a definite sum for furniture replacements. This applies especially to the keeper of a new home.

New blankets should be shaken and soaked in cold water overnight to take out the sulphur dressing and make them more easily washed.

If you put brass rails into boiling water with a good bit of washing soda and let them boil for perhaps an hour you will find them almost clean.

BRIDAL RECEPTION AT CALGARY, ALTA.

(Calgary Herald Nov. 25)

Mrs. O. B. Stockard (nee Miss Agnes Alward, B.A., of Fredericton, N. B.), had a very pretty reception yesterday afternoon, when she was at home for the first time since her marriage. She received a host of callers and was charming in a gown of cream brocade satin, with a corsage bouquet of red roses, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Lynn, who was prettily gowned in pink satin with a black picture hat.

The tea room was a lovely spot done in red and green, red roses being the chosen flower, mingled with fern and smilax, making a very attractive centre for the table, held in a silver basket. Here Mrs. Thomas Underwood, wearing a green satin gown, with hat en suite, poured tea, and Mrs. D. M. Sharp, wearing cream satin and lace, cut the ices, while Mrs. J. Austin Huntley ushered the guests to the tea room. Miss Holding and Miss McBeth dispensed the hospitality. Mrs. Huntley was becomingly gowned in green and satin, combined with chiffon and a black picture hat.

Yellow chrysanthemums, potted plants and ferns adorned the reception room, where little Elizabeth Huntley prettily frocked in white ushered the guests as they entered.
