DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION
MEETS AT BALTIMORE

Baltimore, Md., June 19—One thousand and seventy-four delegates will assemble in the Fifth Regiment Armory in this city Tuesday to name a candidate to run as the Democratic party's choice for President of the United States.

Those delegates represent the Democratic voters of forty-eight States, the District of Columbia, the District of Alaska and the territorial possession of Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The number of delegates exclusive of the territories and insular possessions is twice the number of United States senators and members of the House of Representatives.

Each delegate to the National Convention represents a section of the country peopled by approximately 91,972,266 people (according to the census of 1910), of whom at least 27,000,000 are male adults of the voting age.

The 1,074 delegates meet to select a man who will represent the ideas of the Democratic voters as to necessary qualifications for a President of the United States and to voice their ideas as to general policies which should be followed by the chief executive for the four years succeeding March 4, 1913. The delegates will voice these policies in a series of resolutions, which, taken together, is popularly called a "platform." They are also to select a candidate for Vice President to serve in case of the death or inability of the President.

Theoretically the choice of the nominees and the framing of the platform are matters which the delegates take up as quite fresh subjects, and upon which they have varying opinions, but practically, and as a result of widespread discussion in the daily press and elsewhere, there are always of late years some well settled ideas on the subject of candidates and issues, and a certain unianimity on many matters from the outset. In the present instance, however, considerably more doubt surrounds the actions and decisions of the convention than has been the case for many years. It is generally admitted that the choice of candidates and the framing of the platform will depend in great measure upon the results of the Republican National Convention now in session in Chicago.

The Democratic Convention nominates a presidential candidate by a two-thirds vote, therefore the winner in the convention must accrue 716 votes. No candidate in the race has anywhere near enough instructed votes to secure the nomination on first ballot. In the order of their strength, as indicated by the number of delegates pledged to support them, the leading candidates are Champ Clark of Missouri, Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Judson Harmon of Ohio.

The standing of these four candidates their relative strength on the first ballot in the convention next week. Their actual strength will not be known, however, until after the first ballot, when about 270 uninstructed delegates and a scattering vote of ninety delegates for Governors Foss of Massachusetts, Baldwin of Connecticut, Marshall of Indiana and Burke of North Dakota will be cast. These four favorite sons are expected to drop out of the contest after the first ballot, leaving the fight to the remaining four candidates, Speaker Clark, Governor Wilson, Governor Harmon and Representative Underwood. While the second ballot will probably disclose the actual strength of these four candidates, it will probably require a number of ballots before the leading candidate obtains the two-thirds vote.

necessary to nominate. In the event that the convention is unable to make a choice from among the leading candidates and a deadlock ensues, one of the other four candidates may be named, or, what is considered even more likely, a "dark horse," may capture the nomination. In connection with the talk of a "dark horse," the names of William J. Bryan and Mayor Gaynor of New York City are most frequently mentioned.

National Chairman Mack of Buffalo, Secretary Woodson of Kentucky and the members of the Committee on Arrangements are in the city and tomorrow a meeting will be held to complete the final details of the convention arrangements. The Armory in which the convention is to be held stands in readiness for the gathering of delegates. Headquarters of the National Committee and of the several presidential candidates are running full blast. The entire business section of Baltimore is putting on gala attire and before the end of the week the delegates, marching clubs, political leaders and lay visitors will be marching into the city by the hundreds. It will be Baltimore's first experience in entertaining a national political convention since Horace Greeley was nominated for President by the Democrats assembling here an even forty years ago.

The Weak, Lame,
Aching Back

Comes From The Kidneys.

Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

On the first sign of backache Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken immediately so as to avoid years of suffering from kidney trouble.

They go right to the seat of the trouble, heal the delicate membranes of the kidneys and make their action regular and natural.

Mrs. Joseph Throop, Upper Point de Buie, N.B., writes: "I cannot speak too well of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two years I was so tired life was a burden, and I got up more tired than when I went to bed, and my back was so lame I could hardly straighten up. I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so, and to-day I don't know what it is to be tired, and my lame back is all gone.
 I can recommend them to any person suffering with lame back and that terrible tired feeling."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

THIS PUBLISH OF THE ESTATES OF NEW YORK CITY.

New York, June 15—Nothing could illustrate more clearly the cosmopolitan character and vastness of New York City's population and the enormous wealth concentrated in this metropolis than the list recently published of the estates which have contributed to the funds of the State since the passage of the inheritance law tax. The number of estates exceeding $1,000,000 (each is remarkably great, but that is not the most striking feature of the list. Far more remarkable is the fact that by far the largest estates mentioned in the list was left by a man whose name was hardly mentioned in public print and of whom but few persons in or outside of New York had ever heard. According to the list John S. Kennedy left an estate valued at $65,538,000 upon which the prescribed inheritance tax was paid. It seems strange that a man of such enormous wealth should manage to escape publicity so effectively that he remained a perfect stranger to the great mass of New York's inhabitants. Of course his name was by no means unknown in certain business circles, but although it was quite well understood in the financial district that Mr. Kennedy was a capitalist of varied and important interests, the magnitude of the fortune left by Mr. Kennedy was a surprise even to those most intimately connected with him in his business transactions.

THE NORTHFIELD CONFERENCE

East Northfield, Mass., June 21—the thirtieth annual session of the annual religious gatherings established here by the late Dwight L.
 Moody, opened today with college men present from many parts of the United States and Canada. It is expected that the conference this year will be attended by at least 1,000 visitors, among whom will be a delegation of Chinese students. John R. Mott and Robert B. Speer of New York, Dr. D. S. Cairns of Edinburgh University and several other widely known educators and religious workers will address the conference.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for all Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. For sale and recommended by George Y. Dibblee, druggist, opposite City Hall.

CLUB WOMAN FACES MURDER CHARGE

Chicago, Ill., June 17—Mrs. Rene B. Morrow, member of several of Chicago's most prominent women's clubs, was arraigned in court today to stand trial for the alleged murder of her husband, Charles B. Morrow.
 Mr. Morrow, who had attained considerable fame and wealth as an inventor, was found shot to death on the rear porch of his home in Michigan avenue, on the morning of December last. At first it was supposed to be a case of suicide but relatives of the dead man began an investigation that resulted in Mrs.
 Morrow's arrest and indictment on a charge of murder. The investigation is said to have disclosed the fact that there had been much domestic unfelicity in the Morrow home and that on several occasions Mrs. Morrow had threatened to kill her husband.
