him to replace Robert Borden, who wasn't such a success then as he became afterwards. The twenty-five thousand dollar reception was Sir Richard making a splash for the Ottawa conspirators. But that was as far as it got. Sir Richard wisely stuck to his own little flower pot, did not invite comparisons by entering the larger field and remained true to British Columbia as long as British Columbia could afford it. The "seal of high destiny" may result in his becoming a Unionist candidate for an English constituency—picture the Three Musketeers, Winston and Dick and Galloper Smith—but it will lead him back to the premiership of British Columbia again.

MILLION DOLLAR WYSTERY.

Sir Rodmond Roblin lived by his sword, so to speak, and he perished by it. Autocrat though he was of fifteen years standing he could not stand before the march of the Cameron men, meaning Sir Douglas, the lieutenant governor. The immovable obstacle had to give way before the irresistible impulse. In short, Sir Rodmond met his match. Outside of the million dollar mystery altogether, Sir Rodmond brought his fate on his own head by his own mental and temperamental habits. A tyrant can do much with a free country as long as he uses finesse but coarse work like the last Manitoba election is almost sure to get him in wrong with the democracy. Besides, Sir Rodmond was left appreciably weaker when Bob Rogers went to Ottawa. Ever since then Sir Rodmond has allowed his right hand to know what his left was doing—indeed, he could hardly prevent it—with Bon away—and the consequence has been a terrible mess. At the time Bob went to Ottawa there were rumors that Sir Rodmond was jealous but events seem to have justified Premier Borden's choice. At any rate, Bob Rogers is on the job yet, while Sir Rodmond has lost his. Sir Rodmond as the "fixer" at Ottawa, doing Bob's work, wearing Bob's smile—what do you know about that? And yet Sir Rodmond thought he had it in him.

There is reason to believe that the Hon. Doctor Montague was only a pale, cereal substitute for Bob Rogers in the Roblin cabinet. The doctor drew a good long bow, in 1887, when his election in Haldimand was twice voided and he did very well in the Bowell and Tupper cabinets as long as they lasted, but he seems to have lost much of his cunning between 1896 when he disappeared from dominion politics and 1913 when he bobbed up again in Manitoba. Politics is very much like billiards—you lose your touch if you stop playing for seven-teen years.

FIRST CLASS HOODOO.

The truth is that Dr. Montague is and has always been a first class hoodoo. Sir Rodmond Roblin should have dodged him on his record. To take him into a cabinet any time during the year 1913, or any year with a thirteen in it, was simply tweaking Fate by the nose. Dr. Montague has a special affinity for moribund governments. The Conservative government at Ottawa lasted just six months after he joined it; the Conservative government in Winnipeg lasted eighteen months under similar circumstances. Will it be necessary for the doctor to board the ship for the third time to prove that rocking the boat is the best thing he does? I throw not Caesar asked for fat men who sleep o' nights to act as cabinet ministers, but there is no sleep where Dr. Montague is. He is fat but his burden is disaster.
