How do You test Shingles?

A roof is not a thing to be chosen lightly. You are bound to choose metal as sure protection from lightning and fire. But how can you tell which is best?

Let us tell you how we test PRESTON Safe-lock SHINGLES. Admit we have as much at stake as you. We think we have more. Our whole future depends on the iron we put on your and your neighbors' barns. The life of our business is the farmers' good-will. So our own test is severe. It is our own way of ensuring our business against failure.

The galvanizing which forms the protection from rust and ruin, we put to the British Government tests—acid tests. This is harder on galvanizing than the storm, the wind, the heat, the frost of twenty years. But, when we send out PRESTON Safe-lock SHINGLES we know that they will give the best service, bring new friends and new business.

NOTES FROM THE RURAL DISTRICTS

Middle Southampton, April 26—Mr. A. E. Farnham an ex-postmaster, and the well known proprietor of "Central House" of this place dropped dead today while in the act of filling his pipe after he had eaten a hearty dinner. Acute indigestion, of which he had a very serious attack last December when Drs. Shaw of Montreal and McIntyre of Hawksbury worked hard to save him, is supposed to have been the cause.

He was a carpenter by trade and was building the stairs in Mr. J. C. Grant's new house. He had eaten his dinner and gone up the hill to his work. A few minutes later Mr. Grant went up and upon entering the house saw Mr. Farnham in a kneeling position leaning over the work he was at. He spoke to him and receiving no answer went to him, when, to his astonishment he found he was dead. Before him lay his empty pipe and tobacco. He had opened his knife, but no tobacco was cut. Death must have been instantaneous as there was no evidence of any struggle. Mr. Grant ran to the telephone and told his neighbors. The coroner Mr. L. W. Miller was summoned, but upon viewing the body and hearing the facts, decided an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Farnham, who was a very quiet unassuming man, was the eldest son of the late Henry Farnham. He was sixty eight years of age, and, besides his widow who was a Miss Ketchum of Bridgewater, Me., he leaves two sons, Henry of Fort Fairfield, Me., and Guy of Worcester, Mass., and one daughter, Mrs. Herbert Fountain of Deer Island, Charlotte County. He also leaves two brothers, John Farnham of Dowville, York County and Cyrus of Parth Centre, Victoria County, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Hagerman of Gardiner, Me., and Mrs. Richard Dore of Dowville.

He was a kind neighbor and a consistent member of the Baptist church, and in politics a life-long Liberal.

He was an Orangeman, and the flag now floats at half-mast over the Orange Hall here, out of respect to his memory.

The funeral will be held Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Rutledge of Temperance Vale will preach.

His family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sudden bereavement.

GARLAND WANTS A NOMINATION

Ottawa, April 27—W. F. Garland, M.P. for Carleton, refuses to lie down and be politically dead, and as a result Premier Borden and the executive of the Carleton County Conservative Association still have him on their hands. The executive met at Stittsville this afternoon to talk over plans for a nominating convention. Mr. Garland, who was read out of the party by his leader at the close of last session as a result of the disclosures in connection with bandages sold to the militia Department through Mr. Garland's drug clerk, was present. He wants the nomination and has a number of friends who say they can get it for him, but there are others who want the nomination and who claim that Mr. Garland should not be allowed to again act as the party's standard-bearer.

When the executive met this afternoon a resolution was offered censuring Mr. Garland and supporting the stand taken by Premier Borden. It provoked a warm discussion. A vote was taken and the resolution was turned down by a vote of six to five. Finally it was decided to adjourn in order to find out Premier Borden's wishes in the matter of Mr. Garland's candidature before taking any further action.

There is evidently a feeling among some, at least, of the Conservatives of Carleton that the reading out of Mr. Garland was merely for temporary publicity purposes and that Premier Borden may be inclined to allow him to again be a candidate.

UNSTRUNG UNSTEADY SHAKY NERVES MAY BE TONED UP BY USING MILBURN'S HEART and NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. John Harper, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for the heart and nervous system. I was confined to a grocery store for twelve years, and had to give up business, as I became terribly run down and nervous, and had heart trouble, and I am sure I am gaining very fast now. I feel that nothing did me any good until I tried your Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am positive they will cure me. The nerves of one hand would tremble and then seem to go numb so that I could not write or sew. Now my hand is quite steady, as you can see by my handwriting. This is a big change which delights me so much for I thought all was done that could be done. I was about to give up in despair when I tried this last remedy, and even after I had only taken half a box the change started to come."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will restore the enfeebled, enervated, exhausted, overworked system to full constitutional power. Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GOOD MEALS SCARCE.

In the lobby of a hotel recently they were talking about equivocal speeches when Henry Sydnor Harrison, the author, was reminded of an incident.

At a dinner party some time since somebody broached the subject of small vice. A man named Brown broke in with a dissertation on his own excellence.

"Of course, I am not criticizing anybody," he said, "but personally I never drink, swear or indulge in habits of that kind."

"But, Mr. Brown," interjected one of the company, "you certainly smoke don't you?"

"Yes, I like a cigar after a good meal," admitted Jones, "but I suppose that on an average I don't smoke more than once a month."
