Joe Page Here in Interest of N. B. & Maine League

He Says Other Places are Talking Baseball and Fredericton Should Make a Start--St. John to have but one Team--Moncton Mentioned as Probable to Enter Team

Joe Page Manager of the St. John stock is also talking of it. Press reports to the contrary [the towns league named are not through with league baseball is what the Marathon manager says.
 "The N. B. & Maine League teams was playing good ball last year," said Joe at the Barker House last night in conversation with a representative of The Mail. "The class of baseball put before the public compared favorably with that played in the New England League. In fact the Fredericton and Marathon teams when at full strength could have played with the New England teams and won as many games as any of them. The sporting public was given a good season of baseball and with the experience gained the team and the league can be run this year at much less expense."

Mr. Page today conferred with a number of those interested in baseball with view toward having a team reorganized here.

ANDY MORRIS WON

North Adams, April 11--Andy Morris of Boston, substituting for Arthur Pelkey of Chicopee, who injured his hand at Westfield on Monday, stopped Ray Simons of New York in the sixth round before the Western Gateway A. C. of this city tonight.

Right hooks to the jaw sent Simons down three times in the sixth, then he was counted out. The rival heavyweights put up a whirlwind bout while it lasted.

Young Baker of North Adams was stopped by Young Grady of Power in two rounds, while Kid Sequin of this city beat Chester Johnson of Adams in six rounds.

LITTLE SUES JOHNSON

Chicago, April 10--Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion pugilist, was made defendant today in a suit for $1500 filed by George Little, his former manager. According to the complaint, the suit grew out of the loan of a diamond ring to Johnson.

JOE JEANNETTE AFTER JACK JOHNSON

New York, April 11--Joe Jeannette aims to force Jack Johnson into a different position for the heavyweight championship in a letter wherein he says in part:

"He has been offered $10,000 to box me six rounds in Philadelphia and $10,000 to fight me 10 rounds in this city, but both these offers he has ignored. If he can get up enough courage to box me 20 rounds I will bet him $5000 that I will stop him. I will not say 'knock him out,' for he has not enough courage to stand up and fight and be knocked out."

ST. JOHN CRICKETERS AT MONTREAL

A movement is now under way to have arrangements made so that members of the St. John Cricket Club can go to Montreal in July to compete in some of the championship cricket matches to be held there. With this object in view the members plan on getting in some early practice work and the first of the season will be held this afternoon in the Queen's Rink.

EASTMAN HEARD FROM

A cable from London, dated April 11, says that Elbridge Eastman, formerly of West St. John, won his heat in the 100 yards handicap at Cardiff, but was unplaced in the final. Eastman lived in Fredericton when he was a youngster.

KNOCKOUT FOR PACKEY

Quincy, Ill., April 11--Packey Mc-Farland got a decision over Willie Schaeffer of Memphis, in the fourth round last night on a knockout. It was McFarland's fight all the way through, Schaeffer not having a lookin at any time.

In the first two rounds McFarland sparred with his opponent and felt him out, but in the third he fought and when the gong rang Schaeffer was groggy. Twice before the knockout punch was bestowed Schaeffer went down, but was game and staggered to his feet.

MATT WELLS MATCHED

New York, N.Y., April 12--George MacDonald, manager for Matt Wells, the English lightweight, announced this afternoon that papers had been signed for a bout with Packey Mc-Farland at Madison Square Garden on the night of April 16. McFarland will receive $10,000 for his share of the receipts while Wells has agreed to accept fifty per cent. of the gross gate money and fifty per cent. of the moving picture returns. They will weigh in at 135 pounds at three o'clock in the afternoon of the bout.
 The referee is to be selected three days before the contest.

MIKE GIBBONS WON

New York, April 11--Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, went through a hard bout with Jeff Smith of New Jersey, at the National Sporting Club tonight, and came out with flying colors. Hewas put to a severe test and came out of the ten-round fray with greater honors than any he has gained in this city.

PITCHER DRUCKE GETS SETTLEMENT

New York, April 10--The suit brought by Louis Drucke, pitcher for the New York Giants against the In-terborough Rapid Transit Company to recover $25,000 for an injury to his back, which Drucke sustained in a subway train in October, 1910 was settled out of court today the terms were, but from attorneys for both sides it was learned that the pitcher received a substantial sum.

JACK THONEY'S CLAIMS DISALLOWED

Cincinnati, April 10--The National Baseball Commission today disallowed claims by player John Thoney for salary aggregating $3160. The commission held that Thoney's claim for $3000 salary against Boston American League Club in 1910 was invalid because he did not give the club service and refused to report to it even when informed he would be useful as a coach.

Thoney's claim for $160 salary against the Jersey City club also disallowed, was for salary between the end of the Jersey club's season and that of the Boston club which had released him to the former.

BASEBALL NOTES

Magee being injured is a practice game is surely a case of tough luck for Charley Dooin and his Quaker band.

Manager Harry Wolverton will keep himself in trim in order to act the role of utility infielder for his Highlanders.

Manager Hugh Duffy, of the Milwaukee team has signed Pitcher Hume who worked in the Wisconsin-Illinois League last season.

Elmer Stricklett, the inventor of the spitball, has been released by Brooklyn to the Binghamton team of the New York State League.
 It is said the Athletics have a superstition that they won't win the American League pennant if they wallop the Quakers in the spring series.
 Pitcher Nick Maddox, the former Pirate has refused to join Charlie Carr's Kansas City team and will play semi-professional ball this season.
