Indian Guide Enlisted This Morning.

The announcement that the New Brunswick battalion commanded by Lt. Col. George W. Fowler, M.P., has been renumbered the 104th has been received with considerable satisfaction locally as the number is one which has an historic connection with this province. During the war with the United States in 1812-14 a regiment was numbered the 104th of the British Line. This corps made the famous march from Fredericton to Quebec in the winter and afterward made an excellent fighting record at Sackett's Harbor, Beaver Dam, Lund's Lane and Niagara.

The number 88th, which previously was borne by Col. Fowler's battalion, has been given to a British Columbia battalion to be raised by the 88th Regiment, Victoria Fusiliers.

POPULAR CORPS.

Recruiting for Col. Fowler's battalion has been very successful in this vicinity. Since Mr. J. J. McCaffrey was appointed recruiting officer seventy-three men have been enlisted here the majority for the 104th. Five men enlisted since noon yesterday. They are as follows:

Jim Paul, 45, St. Mary's.
W. H. Irvine, 18, Fredericton.
E. O. Brewer, 19, Fredericton.
H. Hebblewhite, 30, Fredericton.
F. MacN. Staples, 19, St. Mary's.

An elopement in which a young woman residing in the West End and a commercial traveller who frequently visits Fredericton is said to have taken place yesterday. As far as is known the couple is now in the New England States.

The young woman in question formerly was an employee of the Canada Cottons Limited, in that company mill at Marysville. Yesterday morning she informed the people at the house at which she lived that she was going back to work in the mill and left the house early in the morning ostensibly to take the early train to Marysville but instead she went to the C. P. R. station and took the train which connected with the Boston express at Fredericton Junction. The man in the case is said to have accompanied her from this city. The couple was traced as far as Vanceboro and it is said crossed the border safely.

Jim Paul is the well known Indian guide and sportsman's show performer from the St. Mary's Reserve. He is a son-in-law of the late Samuel Gabe. Jim has tried repeatedly to enlist and this morning succeeded.

A Mother's Hopes and Anxieties

Until the first grade card is brought from school, each mother's heart will be filled with hopes and fears for the expected school advancement of her children.

Have you left undone any duty that might change these hopes to certainties?

What about good vision—most necessary of all the child's equipment?

Defective eyesight is too great a handicap for any child to carry through school; yet one in every four suffer from it.
