WENT WITHOUT LEAVE

A report to the effect that fifty-three men of the 55th Battalion had runaway from camp Sussex on Thursday last has been widely circulated throughout the province. It is now stated however that the story is only partially true and that the men left without leave to visit their homes and that most of them now are again in camp. These are said to be unmarried men of the overseas company of the 55th who could not get leave to go to their homes and who went without it.

EXHIBITION GOING AHEAD.

Secretary W. S. Hooper of the Fredericton Exhibition, states that preparations for the big fair are in a very advanced state. The prize-lists are almost ready for issue and the wall-hangers, which are of a patriotic nature, are expected any day. So far about fourteen thousand communications on exhibition matters have been mailed from Secretary Hooper's office. The classes of live stock and poultry are fifty per cent. larger than before and everything points to a number of exhibits in those lines. Correspondence received by Secretary Hooper relative to horse racing has been handed over to the Park Association.

HOW SHE GOT THERE.

(Chatham World.)

Those who know what a pretty and winsome woman Mrs. C. J. Mersereau is can understand, by reading between the lines of her account of her search of her wounded husband, just how she won all men she met and succeeded in having all of the official obstacles in her way removed. Sir Max Aiken surrendered at sight, and he obtained access to the others for her, with the result that passports and permits were hers for the asking.

FARMER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

BURT'S CORNER MAN GIVES HIS LIFE FOR ENGLAND

Private Hedley C. Hanson Killed in Action With 10th Battalion--
Private George McDonald,
Fredericton, Wounded

Private Hedley C. Hanson of the 10th Battalion, is reported in the casualty list issued from Ottawa yesterday as killed. The word was wired yesterday to his father, Alfred Hanson of Burt's Corner, the sad tidings being told him by Elwood Burt, in whose mill he was employed. Mr. Hanson was much affected by the news and carried it home to his wife. The latter fainted upon receiving the tidings and had to be put under the care of Dr. O. E. Morehouse.

The late Private Hanson was one of the first members of the 71st York Regt. to enlist for overseas service on the outbreak of the war. He had been in the United States for some time and had returned to his home but two days before enlisting. He was well known in his own part of York county and was respected by all. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

LOCAL MAN WOUNDED.

The casualty list also contains the name of Private George McDonald, 264 Woodstock Road, Fredericton. He also is a member of the 10th Battalion and has been wounded. He left Fredericton in August with a draft from the 71st York Regt. and was afterwards drafted from the 12th to the 10th Battalion. He was formerly in the employ of the C.P.R. at Plaster Rock. His family has given three members to the service of the empire. His brother David, who prior to enlistment was employed by J. Fred

HOSPITAL ANNEX PROJECT HALTED BY LACK OF FUNDS

Majority of Trustees Think More Money Should be Plugged--
No Action Re Matron's Resignation

The regular monthly meeting of the Hospital Trustees was held yesterday with President Clark in the chair. The other gentlemen in attendance included Vice-President VanDine, Mayor Mitchell, Dr. Holden, Mr. Gregory and Hon. Judge Crockett. In his report the secretary-treasurer showed a large expenditure for May, but it was an exceedingly busy month. From the matron's report it was shown that fifty-eight patients were treated and thirty-two were discharged. One death occurred. The contagious wing contained two cases, both since convalescent, and this important branch of the hospital is today empty.

A variety of "comforts" reached the hospital during the month and these included tomatoes and cucumbers from Mrs. H. G. Kitchen, the Victor Hatheway Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire furnished puddings for the soldiers' dinner on two Sundays, Mr. Edward Moore contributed bread for the patients. For the past five months Miss Eliza Campbell of Kingsclear, has donated all the buttermilk used in the hospital.

Ryan, is now at the front with the 24th Field Battery and his father, William McDonald, is with the 26th Battalion at St. John. The family came here from Scotland some years ago, the father being employed by Fraser Limited. Private McDonald's mother still resides here.
