

MADE IN CANADA

The Bread that Builds Brain and Brawn must be made of the whole wheat grain—white flour bread will not do it—neither will the so-called "whole wheat flour bread." The only real whole wheat bread is

TRISCUIT

It is made of the whole wheat grain, steam-cooked, shredded, compressed into a wafer and baked by electricity. All the meat of the golden wheat prepared in its most digestible form and smallest bulk. A wholesome substitute for white flour bread—a delicious snack for luncheon with butter or soft cheese—crisp, snappy, strengthening and satisfying.

SOME STRAIGHT TALK FROM BILLY SUNDAY

Billy Sunday in one of his pattern sermons said:

"I'm tired of seeing God put on the side track, with the switch locked, and the devil given him the main line and the right of way," he told his hearers, and he said he didn't "see any sense" in the churchwomen who were always busy either "making blankets for the Hottentots" or "buying ice for the Eskimos."

"Lots of you women," he added, "have not religion enough to go home and burn that pack of cards, take that beer out of your cellar and dump it in the sewer or take that dish you won at the card party, you black-legged gambler, and bust it. Get rid of what's standing between you and God."

He blamed the modern woman for the condition of the modern American home, saying that they had "vaudeville in the home, and that the average society woman knows more about the value of a pair of axes, more about the names of costly brands of wine and champagne than she does about classic literature of the word of God."

Pointing out that a woman is bringing up her children is the real maker of the home, he shouted:

"You women can make a hell of a home or a heaven of a home. One of the danger signs of our times is the curse of the idle mother. If America don't arise and save the home from hell, American will go to hell."

"Inside of ten years," he shouted, "we'll have a prohibition President in the United States, and that'll sign the death warrant of the booze gang. I'll live to preach the funeral sermon of the saloon, by thunder," he cried.

"HOME" SERMON DRAMATIC IN ITS MANAGEMENT.

He spoke of an American who lay buried in French soil for years until the United States Government brought his bones across the sea and buried them in pomp and state. Sunday drew pictures of the trip across the Atlantic and the funeral in Washington, dressing them with color and detail.

"He never fought a battle," he finished. "He never wrote a book, he never built a bridge, he never made a great discovery, he never made a great oration; he wrote a simple song. His name was John Howard Payne, the author of—"

Sunday motioned to his choir and those hundreds of men and women began to sing "Home, Sweet Home." It was beautiful.

"It's none of your business what I do with my money any more than it's my business what you do with yours. It don't matter if its one thousand dollars or fifty thousand dollars," said Sunday, as he rose to make an appeal for a good collection to go toward the expenses.

"A man called me a grafter the other day," he went on. "It's a lie. I've been offered one thousand dollars an hour for thirty days on a Chautauqua platform. I can earn enough in a week to support my wife and children for a year. I've been asked to name my own price for the movies. I've been offered ten thousand dollars a week in vaudeville. I wouldn't take it for all the money in the bank vaults in New York."

"Caruso can go out and sing and get seven thousand dollars a night. Caruso is worth it. He's got talent. But if a preacher happens to get that much he's a grafter."

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

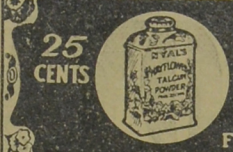

Thousands of mothers say Baby's Own Tablets are the only medicine they would give their little ones. Among them is Mrs. Howard Hodgkins, St. Catharines, Ont., who says: "I am a user of Baby's Own Tablets and think them the best medicine in the world for little ones." Once another has used the Tablets she will use no other medicine because she feels the Tablets are absolutely safe and knows they never fail to banish all the simple ailments of little ones. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DON'TS FROM SUNDAY

Don't come. If you do come, always come late. If it's too hot, too cold, too windy, too rainy, too dry, don't come.

Expect the preacher to be just as eloquent if he's only got wood and varnish to talk to.

Don't sit up in front people might

When you do come, come to find fault.

Don't sing! Sit there like a bump on a log.

Remember, on freight trains they put the leads up front and the empties behind. It pulls easier.

Don't pray for the evangelist. It might help them.

Don't encourage the pastor, but tell his faults to everyone you meet.

If he does something you don't like peddle it around the street. By the time it's gone two blocks it will be a lie and a libel.

Be sure to give the stranger the icy palm and the marble heart. Stare at him like a burglar after your pocketbook and he might be encouraged to come again.

Don't bring anybody with you. It might fill up the pews.

Discourage anybody who wants to work for Christ.

Never talk to a man about Jesus. He might be converted and go to heaven instead of going to hell.

Don't worry about how the church looks, just so your own home is handsome.

If you see a town where the churches haven't had a coat of paint in five years and the saloons all look bright and prosperous, pass the town up. Forget it!
