HIAWATHA SCORED A DECIDED SUCCESS

The beautiful story of Hiawatha by Longfellow was told in pantomime, song and dance at the opera house last evening before an audience which taxed the capacity of the building. It was put on by Miss Eva W. Scates for the benefit of the Daughters of the Empire and was a success in every respect. The stage was appropriately decorated to represent an Indian encampment. There were spruce trees in abundance, an Indian tepee was shown and a lake scene made an appropriate background. Nearly two hundred boys and girls wearing Indian costumes took part and considering the short time had been allowed them for training acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner.

Roger Cooper, son of Mr. F. L. Cooper, acted the title role with marked success. Miss Francis Vanward as Minnehaha also acquitted herself well. Others in the cast were Allen Good, Miss Madge Smith, Thurston Clark, Cecil Fitzgerald, Morris Williams, James Adams and John Randolph.

The various Indian dances were carried out in a very successful manner and seemed to make a big hit with the audience. Miss Edith Gattcombe led the children's chorus, Miss Phyllis McCaffrey the first dance and Miss Adele Fowle the Rainbow dance.

A selection by a male quartette composed of Messrs. Foster, Fenay, Cooper and Sherwood was greatly enjoyed. They rendered "The Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall." A female quartette composed of Misses Eva Brewer, Edith Staples, Vesta Brewer and Kathleen Brewer rendered a selection.

The bow and arrow drill and Tommyhawk drill by twelve boys was well executed and provoked much applause. The boys all wore Indian costumes and seemed to greatly enjoy the stunt.

In the reading of Hiawatha Miss Scates proved herself to be an accomplished elocutionist and she also displayed great ability and cleverness as a stage manager.

Miss Myrtle Lottiner played the piano accompaniments and Celestial orchestra which gave its services free of charge, played an excellent program of music.

The performance was repeated this afternoon before a large audience composed of women and children.
