INSPECTOR ELLIOTT MAKES STATEMENT

Winnipeg, Man., June 1.—William A. Elliott, government inspector of the new parliament buildings, made a written statement to the royal commission, in which he retold, with additions, his story of the negotiations with William Salt at Chicago, and declared that Hon. G. R. Coldwell, ex-minister of education, was a party to them.

In broad outline Elliott's statement confirmed the account he gave in the witness box. But it named Coldwell and not Horwood, late provincial architect, as the man who issued the instructions which caused Elliott to visit Salt at Chicago, and it asserted that the chief object of Elliott's trip was that he should take to Salt a plan of the caissons in order that Salt from memory, should complete his imperfect record of the design. This scheme came to nothing, because the plan which Elliott took to Chicago was only a miniature one and useless for the purpose intended.

STATEMENT MADE VOLUNTARILY

It was expected when the commission met this afternoon that Hon. Dr. Montague would be further examined. H. J. Symington, however, informed their lordships that on Saturday F. J. G. McArthur, solicitor for Elliott, informed him that Elliott desired to make a full and complete disclosure of everything he knew in connection with the affair of William Salt and the new capitol. The statement had been made voluntarily. There had been no promise of any kind as to what should be done in Elliott's case.

the subject had not even been discussed. Mr. Symington said he had not seen the statement, but Mr. McArthur had asked him to read it, because Elliott might not be able to go through with it.

The statement went over in a large measure a good deal of the evidence previously given by Elliott with the story of the mysterious messages said to be from Horwood and which reached Elliott at Minneapolis, bidding him to advise Salt to get away.

Chief Justice Mathers intimated today that the royal commission may take a trip to interrogate Mr. Horwood, late provincial government architect, who is ill at Rochester, Minn. Dr. Montague, in concluding his evidence this morning before the commission, said in regard to final payment being made before the wing was completed that he was aware the roof was still unfinished.

"You know what was in the contract?"

"No, I can't say that I did fully. A minister never reads a contract; he depends on his subordinates for information, and I did the same."

"Who did you depend on?"

"I don't know who it was."

LANDS ARE HELD BY SPECULATORS

Toronto, Ont., June 3.—Rev. J. S. Henderson of Vancouver, a member of the Ministerial Association of the lower mainland of British Columbia, which recently issued a sensational pamphlet dealing with the land question in the province, said here yesterday:

"The government organ at Victoria has described our statements as absolutely untrue, but cannot bring one fact to prove its words. Two members of the Ministerial Association, delegated by the association, spent weeks among the government archives in Victoria verifying every fact in the pamphlet."

"We have said, and we repeat, that there are no lands in the province open for settlement, because these lands are being held by speculators, contrary to law. And the scandal is shown by a map that was to be issued as campaign literature at the general election that was postponed. This map shows many pre-emptions available for settlers. The Ministerial Association is fighting for a better British Columbia."

SCOTT GOVERNMENT'S TEMPERANCE BILL

Regina, Sask., June 3.—The Scott government's temperance bill was introduced recently by Hon. J. A. Calder and read a first time. It was read a second time on Thursday last.

The act creates the position of "Director of Public Accommodation," whose duties are to advise municipal councils regarding the question of suitable accommodation; to suggest to municipal councils rules and regulations respecting the conduct and inspection of hotels and other places of public accommodation; to confer with commercial travellers' associations regarding the improvement of hotel accommodation; to obtain from municipal councils full information regarding public accommodation, within their municipalities.

An advisory council of not more than five members may be appointed by the government to consider all matters pertaining to public accommodation within the province.

ACCOMMODATION BOARD.

Municipal councils are empowered by the act annually to appoint accommodation boards; to license public hotels and to make rules and regulations regarding the conduct and inspection of such hotels; to refund the taxes of any hotel license under this act; "to make such arrangements as it may deem advisable for providing a public rest and reading room for travellers and for the residents of the neighboring rural municipalities and for providing commercial travellers with sample rooms."

Subject to the approval of the municipal electors, a municipal council shall have power to rent, lease or otherwise acquire, except by purchasing, any building which it desires to use for the purpose of public accommodation, but such building shall not be acquired for any period extending beyond December 31, 1916.

Municipal councils are given power to appoint accommodation boards, having the duty of inquiring into the question of public accommodation, with a view of recommending to their council ways and means to insure that the needful accommodation be provided.

HEART WOULD PALPITATE.

HAD WEAK and DIZZY SPELLS.

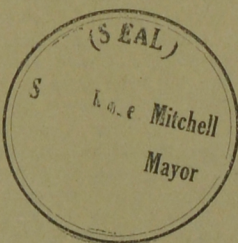

Palpitation of the heart is one of the most common of all heart troubles. The heart will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over the system accompanied by weak and dizzy spells, making you feel that you are surely going to die. When you feel this way what you require is a real good heart and never tonic; one that will strengthen the weak heart and build up the nerve system. For this purpose we know of nothing that can equal Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. J. S. Nicholls, Listowel, Ont., writes: "I was weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, and I would take weak and dizzy spells. A friend advised me to try your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I started at once, and found that I felt much stronger, and my heart was ever so much better within a short time. I cannot praise your medicine too highly for it has done me a world of good. My husband has also been bothered with heart trouble ever since childhood and finds great relief in using your valuable pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
