never see Keziah look so well as there."

The minister went up the stairs the pulpit. He was still white and thin, but his eyes were bright and his voice clear. He gave the opening hymn and the service began.

They said it was the finest sermo ever preached in that church, and pe-haps it was. When it was over before the benediction was pronounced, Ellery stepped out from behind the pulpit to the edge of the platform. He looked over the friendly faces upturned to his, and for an instant, it seemed that he could not trust himself to speak.

"My friends," he said, "I cannot let you go without a personal word. I owe you so much, all of you, that nothing I can say will convey to you my feeling of gratitude and love for this congregation and this church. You have stood by me all through. You trusted me and believed in me. I came to Trumet a stranger. I have found here the truest friends a man could hope to find—yes, and more than friends. If I live, and while I live, I shall hope to prove by the best effort that is in me my realization of the great debt I owe you and my desire to repay it, even though the payment must, of necessity, be so inadequate. God bless you all—and thank you."

There was much hand shaking and congratulation and the church emptied slowly. Among the last to leave were the Peppers and Mr. Pratt.
Lavinia took the minister aside.

"Mr. Ellery," she whispered, "I've that is, Caleb and me—will probably want you to—That is, we want you to be the one—"

"Yes, Miss Pepper?"

"Oh, my sakes, you see—'Bishy dear, come here a minute, won't you?"

Kyan approached the picture of desolation.

"What do you want?" he asked gruffly.

"Heavens to Betsy! Don't look so sour. A body'd think you was goin' to be hung, to look at you. 'Bishy, you tell Mr. Ellery all about it, there's a dear. He'll tell you, Mr. Ellery; and remember we count on you. Neither me nor Caleb won't have nobody else."

She seized Mr. Pratt by the arm and led him hastily away. Kyan looked after them.

"Hung?" he muttered. "I wish, by godfrey's mighty, I had the hangin' of some folks! I'd put a tighter collar on 'em than they've got now, I bet you!"

The minister's lips twitched. He knew what was coming. Hints of a surprising nature had been circulating about Trumet.

"What's the matter, Mr. Pepper?" he asked.

"Matter? Matter enough! You know what she's goin' to do? She's goin' to marry that!"

The last word was emphasized by a furious gesticulation toward the back of the gentleman from Sandwich.

"Who? Mr. Pratt? Is your sister to marry him? Indeed! I congratulate them both—and you. I suppose Mr. Pratt will take his bride home to Sandwich, and you, being here alone, will be more free."

"Free?" Kyan repeated the word wrathfully. "Free! I'll be about as free as a settin' hen under a barrel, I will. Is a feller free when he's got two pickin' at him instead of one? I thought I was goin' to have a little peace and comfort; I thought that same as you, Mr. Ellery. I've had my suspicions as to her and him for some time. That day when I caltated I'd looked her up and come back to find she's gone lurge ridin', I thought 'twas queer. When she went to con-

A FINE COMPLEXION

May Be Had Through the Rich, Red Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make

A girl's complexion is something more than a matter to concern her vanity. It is an indication of the state of her health. Pallor in a growing girl means a thinning of the blood. Parents should be watchful of their daughter's complexion and should see to it that these dangers signs are corrected. When a girl in her teens becomes pale and sallow, if she shows an inclination to tire easily, is listless and inattentive to her work or studies, she needs Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills, a tonic which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering.
A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements that Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills can supply, and which restore brightness to the eye and color to the cheeks. Miss Delina Arsenault, Urbainville, P.E.I., is one of the thousands of anemic girls restored to health by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I was attacked with anaemia and was in such a miserable condition that I had to consult a doctor, and was under his care for several months, but without getting better.
I was growing thinner every day, had dark circles around the eyes. I could hardly sleep at night, but trug-gled restlessly and got up in the morning with black anticipation of the day's miseries before me. I was always bothered with headaches and pains in the back and limbs. My appetite was poor and I frequently vomited what I did eat. My friends feared that I would not recover. I had often seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised and I finally decided to try them. I used altogether nine boxes and they made me as well as ever I was in my life. All the pains and aches disappeared; my appetite returned. I could sleep soundly at night, and the color returned to my cheeks. I also gained seventeen pounds in weight. I am now always well, and for this happy condition have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BORDER NEWS OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

In a budget of news of the border towns taken from the files of the St. Croix Courier of thirty years ago the following items appear:

W. F. Ganong, B.A., has gone on a scientific expedition to Lake Temiscouata.

It is said that J. G. Murchie of Calais, and F. H. Hale of Woodstock, have made arrangements to have a large quantity of lumber cut for them in Fredericton.

Superintendents Stewart and McLeod of the New Brunswick railway were in town yesterday and inspected the line from McAdam Junction to St.
Stephen and St. Andrews. This division is placed in charge of H. D.
McLeod as superintendent.

Judge Stevens will deliver the annual oration at the annual exercises of the University this year.
This, so far as we can learn, is the first instance of not a graduate being selected as the alumnator.

The Halifax Herald thus speaks of three former St. Andrews boys: Dick Waycott formerly of the Dominion Telegraph staff in this city, is now traffic chief of the Central cable office in New York—a fat job. His brother, W. B. Waycott, is manager of the same office, and another Fred, is an operator in the same office. The three brothers are as smart men as are to be found in the Western Union Service.

The following appointments appear in the Royal Gazette: David F. Maxwell, Robert H. Davis, George J.
Clarke and Andrew McClinton, to be Justices of the Peace.

F. W. Cram, general manager of the New Brunswick Railway Company has issued a circular announcing that the road has been made into two divisions. The Northern Division will include the portion of road north from McAdam Junction and from Newburg Junction to Gibson. John Stewart is made superintendent of this division, with headquarters at Woodstock.
The Southern Division includes the section from St. John to Vancaboro, the Fredericton Branch.

"The man I marry must have common sense," she said laughingly.
"He won't," replied he bitterly.—
Denver Clarion.

HER PLATFORM

At the Marshall home, there was much discussion of woman suffrage and other political questions, and little Vera had always been a very interested listener.

"What will you do when you can vote?" a visitor asked her.

"Help to put candy on the free list," was the unexpected reply.—
The Youth's Companion.
