Kitchener's Sly Aid

At an early stage of Italy's fight for possession of Tripoli—a campaign in which Egypt, as more or less a vassal of Turkey, was keenly interested—Lord Kitchener was approached by certain notable men who proposed that Egypt should send several regiments to the aid of the Turks, in accordance with the Turco-Egyptian Treaty which England was known to uphold. Kitchener said that he would have no objection should the Sultan make the request, but that in order to preserve untroubled quiet he would be obliged to replace the present troops by an equal number of British regiments, at which the proposal was hastily withdrawn.

HON. T. C. CASGRAIN
OFFERS HIS SERVICESOttawa, Nov. 12—Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, Postmaster General, is to become an Honorary Colonel under Sir Sam Hughes, and to go on active service, although it will probably only be in Canada. He is to be made Honorary Director-General of the Canadian Army Postal Service, and as such will have a little more direct charge of the army postal service than he has had up to the present in his civilian capacity as Postmaster General. The army postal service is technically part of the militia administration, although, of course, it is being worked in co-operation with the post office department. Hon. Mr. Casgrain wrote to Sir Sam Hughes today offering his services "in any position or post, overseas or in Canada, in which I can be of service to the cause which is so dear to us all."

PROTEST AGAINST NATIONALITY

His offer to enlist for active service was in part intended as a protest against the pernicious doctrine of Arnand Lavergne and other Nationalists. It was also in part intended as an example to his native province.General Hughes has promptly accepted the offer by making him an honorary colonel and giving him an integral part in the army administration. Practically there will not be much change in Mr. Casgrain's present "active service" duties in connection with the postal arrangements for the army. He will not have to go to England or give up his present portfolio.
But at any rate the offer of his services and the acceptance may have some recruiting influence in Quebec.

FOUR BRITISH MEDALS

There are four military decorations to be won in the war. The greatest of these is the Victoria Cross, a bronze Maltese cross, 1½ inches in diameter, in the centre is the royal cross and below in scroll "for Valor." It was instituted by Queen Victoria in 1856 and is open to Officers and men alike.
It is cast from Russian cannon captured at Sebastopol, and its material value is estimated at nine cents, but those who are given it rank as "the bravest of the brave." Until the present war but 622 crosses had been given—111 for the Crimea war, 182 for the Indian mutiny, 78 for the Boer war and the rest among 37 other wars.
The Distinguished Service Order was instituted by Queen Victoria in 1886, its purpose giving the "recognition of special services of commissioned officers in the army and navy." The order includes its members to bear the letters D.S.O. after their names. The badge is a gold cross enamelled white, one side bearing an heraldic crown surrounded by a wreath of laurels. It is worn by a red ribbon edged blue.The Military Cross is of silver. It is 1½ inches square, and the bar is 1½ inches wide. The ribbon is 1½ inches wide by 1½ inches high, of three equal stripes, the centre dark purple and the others white. From the top of the ribbon to the bottom of the cross is 3 11-16 inches. The cross bears in the centre the letter G.R.I., and on each arm of the cross is the Imperial Crown. The Royal Warrant says: "No person shall be eligible for this decoration unless he is a captain, a commissioned officer of a lower grade, or warrant officer, in the British army or Indian or colonial military force, and the cross shall be awarded only to officers of the above ranks on the recommendation of the secretary of state for war. Foreign officers of an equivalent rank to those mentioned above, who have been associated in military operations with the British, Indian or Colonial forces shall be eligible for the honorary award of the cross. The Military Cross shall not confer an individual precedence, and shall not entitle the recipient to any additional honor after his name as part of his description or title."The Distinguished Conduct Medal was very extensively awarded after the South African war. It is a decoration designed for warrant and non-commissioned officers and men.

KAISER GIVES STATUES

London "Boasts" One—Norway Has Colossal SpecimenIt is not generally known that the statue of King William which stands outside Kensington Palace, London was presented to England by the Kaiser. It bears the following inscription: "William III. of Orange King of Great Britain and Ireland 1689-1702. Presented by William II.
German Emperor and King of Prussia, to King Edward VII. for the British nation, 1907."A very short time ago the Kaiser presented a colossal statue to Norway.
This is a statue of Frithjof, the great Norse hero, who is the subject of an Icelandic saga assigned to the fourteenth century, and relating his adventures. It is designed to commemorate the Kaiser's twenty-fifth cruise to the Land of the Midnight Sun. The figure of the mythical hero is forty-feet high—about ten feet shorter than the Kaiser thinks himself—and stands on a pedestal thirty feet high. A dozen men lunched in the chest cavity of this colossal statue whilst it was in course of erection.Unsightly Pimples Covered His Face.All diseases and blemishes of the skin are caused by the blood being in an impure condition.You cannot make a good complexion from the outside; you must get to the seat of the trouble. You must make the blood pure and rich by taking a medicine that will drive out all the impurities and poisons from the blood; one that drives out everything from the system that is the cause of these unsightly skin eruptions.The best blood cleansing medicine on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters; a medicine that has been used with the greatest success for the past forty years; a medicine you don't experiment with when you buy it.Mr. Lennox D. Cooke, Indian Path, N.S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last winter my face was covered with pimples. I tried different kinds of medicine, and all seemed to fail. I was one day to a friend's house, and there they advised me to use B.B.B., so I purchased two bottles, and before I had them taken I found I was getting better. I got two more, and when they were finished I was completely cured. I find it is a great blood purifier, and I recommend it to all."B.B.B. is manufactured only by The
