After a stay in New York Mr. and Mrs. Chestnut will go to Havana and on the return trip will visit Palm Beach, Florida.

A LARGE MARKET

There was a very large market this morning for this time of year, and things were quite lively in the vicinity of the City Hall. The farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather conditions to get their way to market. It is now selling for $15 and $16 per ton. Butter sold this morning at 30 cents per pound and eggs at 30 cents a dozen. Beef was plentiful at 8 and 9 cents; pork was worth 11 cents by the carcass. A few pairs of chickens brought $1 per pair. Potatoes were plentiful at $1 per barrel.

STOCK SOLD CHEAP

The fact that the Tory newspapers draw many thousands of dollars annually from the public treasury does not appear to have an appreciable effect on the capital stock of these papers. This morning the sheriff offered for sale three shares of the capital stock of The Gleaner, Limited, and three of The Standard Limited, having a par value of $10 per share. Bidders were scarce but the certificates were finally knocked down to Joseph McDonald for $1 each or 33 1/3 cents per share. The book debts of the Blair estate were bid in by Mr. R. W. McElean for a client for $15.

FORTY RECRUITS SECURED FOR THIRD CONTINGENT

Major W. H. Gray Reports Men Are Volunteering Readily.—Recruits
Wanted for Composite Battalion at Halifax

Major W. H. Gray, recruiting officer for York and Sunbury Counties, is again taking on recruits in this city, having returned from a week's tour of the southern part of York County. He reports that about forty men have volunteered for the 4th Battalion and the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. Men are coming forward for the Third Contingent as readily as for the others, according to Major Gray, who will continue recruiting. He probably will go to Minto and other places in Sunbury County, and to Stanley, Keweenaw and other places in York County next week.

WANTED FOR HALIFAX

Major Gray has received instructions to send four recruits to Halifax to join the Composite Battalion which is on home garrison duty at that place. The 71st York, Regt. has one company in that battalion but several of the men are likely to take their discharge on account of sickness.

SUSSEX VETERINARY CAUGHT BY POLICE AT SEVEN MILE HOUSE

Harry J. Ellison Wanted For Obtaining Money Under False Pretense—
Was Driving From Sussex
To Maine.

Harry J. Ellison, veterinary surgeon, who has been living in Sussex for some time was arrested last night at the Seven Mile House in Kingsclear by Chief of Police McCollom and Police Sgt. Duncan of Fredericton. He is charged with obtaining money on false pretence and two separate charges are against him. He was brought to this city last night and this morning was taken to Sussex by Provincial Constable McLeod, formerly chief-of-police of that town, who arrived by C.P.R. this morning.

Chief McCollom was notified by wire from Sussex on Thursday to be on the watch for this man. Yesterday morning he learned that the man was driving toward Fredericton with a single horse and sleigh. It is thought that he was making for the State of Maine as he received a telephone message from friends there to leave his horse, which was in poor condition, and hire another.

Chief McCollom learned last night that Ellison registered at a local hotel and after having supper drove away saying that he would be back to spend the night. The chief and Sgt. Duncan hired a horse and followed him. He had said he was going to C. H. Giles' residence at Springhill but no trace of him was found there. At Springhill people were found who had seen him and at the Seven Mile House he was
