reference and she saw me smile at a rat. When she took to letter writin' the smell got stronger; until the last few weeks I've been sartin' of the game she was up to. When Lavinia came to me and told me what she was goin' to do, was I obstinate? Did I stand on my rights as head of the family and tell her she couldn't do it? No, s'ee, I didn't! I was resigned. 'Bless you, Lavinia,' says I.
'When you goin' to go away?' And what do you s'pose she says to me?
Why, that she wa'n't goin' away at all.
That—that Pratt thing has sold out his shoe store up to Sandwich and is comin' here to live. Comin' to live at our house, mind you, with her and me! 'Twill be so nice for you, 'Bishy dear,' she says, 'to have a man in the house to keep you company and look out for you when I ain't round.' God-freys mighty!

This portion of Kyan's disclosure was surprising, if the announcement of his sister's engagement was not.
'Mr. Pratt is coming to Trumet?' the minister repeated. 'What for?
What is he going to do here.'

'Keep shoe store, I s'pose likely.
Lavinia says there's a good openin' for one in this town. However, he and Lavinia ain't got any mortgage on the marryin' business. Other folks can do it as well as them. What do you think of Hannah Poundberry?'

'What do I think of her? What do you mean?'

He turned away and moved sulkily toward his beckoning sister and her escort; but wheeled once more to add, in a mysterious whisper, 'Don't you forget now, Mr. Ellery. Remember that question I put to you: 'What do you think of'—Yes, yes, Lavinia, I hear you!—of you know who?'

That evening, at the parsonage, Keziah was clearing the table and Captain Nat was helping her. A happy party of four had enjoyed the meal.
John and Mrs. Coffin acting as hosts and Grace and the captain being the invited guests. Now the younger couple had gone over to the church, the bell of which was ringing for evening service.

'Hurry up, Keziah,' urged Nat. 'If you and me don't get decks cleared pretty soon we'll be late for meetin', and I'd hate to do that, considerin' I'm such a brand-new disciple, as you might say.'

He walked to the back door of the kitchen, threw it open, and stood looking out.

'Keziah,' he said, 'come here a minute.'

She came from the dining room and stood at his side. He put an arm about her.

'Look off there,' he said, pointing with his free hand. 'See that?'
The sun was just setting and all the west was gorgeous with crimson and purple and yellow. The bay was spangled with fire, the high sand bluffs along the shore looked like broken golden ingots. They were to be married in another month. It would be a double wedding, for Grace and the minister were to be married at the same time. Then Nat and his wife were to go to New York, where a new ship, just out of the builders' hands, was to be ready for him. She was a fine one, this successor to the Sea Mist. She had been building for more than a year and when Captain Hammond returned, safe and sound, and with their money in his possession, the owners decided at once that he should command the addition to their fleet. She was to sail for Liverpool and Keziah was to be a passenger.

'I can't hardly wait to get to sea,' went on Nat. 'Think of it! No more lonesome meals in the cabin, thinkin' about you and about home. No, sir! you and home'll be right aboard with me. Think of the fun we'll have in the foreign ports. I ain't rich enough to give you what you deserve, nowhere near; but I'll work hard and do my best, my girl—you see.'

Keziah was looking out over the bay, her eyes brighter than the sunset. Now she turned to look up into his face.

'Rich!' she repeated, with a little catch in her voice. 'Rich! there never was a woman in this world so rich as I am this minute. Or so happy, either.'

THE END.

Suffered Intense Pain in Her Back.

Could Hardly Do Her Housework.

If a pain attacks you in the back 'stop and think' what it is and what causes it.
If the kidneys are at fault—and in a large majority of cases of pain in the back they are—doctor them at once, and doctor them persistently, as it is impossible to have a well strong back unless the kidneys perform their functions properly.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all forms of kidney trouble, and cure them to stay cured.

Mrs. H. F. Jacob, Lavant Station, Ont., writes: 'I take pleasure in telling you how much good your medicine has done me. I had suffered from intense pains in my back, and was so bad I could hardly do my housework. My kidneys were also bothering me a great deal. I tried several kinds of patent medicines, and was almost discouraged, and was looking for some other kind of medicine to try when I noticed your advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills, so I thought it could not hurt to try them. I noticed a great difference when I had used one box, and to my great relief when I had used three boxes I was entirely cured, and I have not been bothered since. I will not hesitate to recommend them to all I know.'

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c a box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
When ordering direct specify 'Doan's.'

"WALK, WALK, WALK"

U. S. HEALTH ADVICE

Washington, June 3.—The U. S. Public Health Service has issued a warning to the public. Here it is:

'The death rate after the age of forty is increasing in spite of more sanitary modes of living and greater protection against communicable disease. The expectation of life after forty years is less than it was thirty years ago. This is due largely to increased prevalence of the diseases of degeneration.

'The muscles, arteries and other organs of those who, as a result of securing occupation or indulgence, take too little exercise, degenerate.
Heart disease, kidney disease and other ills follow.

'Take exercise. Take daily exercise. Have a hobby that gets you out of doors. Walk to your business, to your dressmaker's, walk for the sake of walking. Join a walking club and keep your weekly score of miles. Keep chickens, make a garden, wheel the baby or play golf, or any other game, but take two hours outdoor exercise every day.

'Avoid heavy athletics. Don't try to be a 'strong man.'

GOING FISHIN'.

Don't ye talk to me of work!

I'm just goin' fishin'
Where the speckled beauties lurk.
Round the pools a-swishin'.
Ne'er a thought have I of care, Sittin' on a green bank there, Drinkin' in the soft June air, Void of all ambition!

I don't care much what I ketch, Long as I am anglin'.
What I carry, what I fetch,
On my string a-danglin', Makes no difference to me—Some or none, whichever it be—While I'm off there wholly free

From all scenes of wranglin'.
Fishin' ain't just ketchin' fish In a pond or river—Though a fish trout on a dish Makes ye sort o' shiver—Fishin' settin' on some spot, Where it's neither cold nor hot, Without thinkin' on your lot—Fortune, love or liver.

Fishin's gettin' far away From all noise and flurry; Gettin' off where you can play Nothin's in a hurry;
There to sorter loaf, and sst, Blind to all the things that fret;
And forgettin' all regret, Quarrels, cares and worry.

Yessir—I'll give up ambition,
And for share and fortune wishin', Any day to go a-fishin'!
—John Kendrick Bangs, Harper's Weekly.

'When we are once agreed, as most of us are,' says London Truth, 'that the present war, which has made a hell of a great part of the world, was contemplated, prepared for, and brought about at Berlin, we are in the presence of a stupendous crime against humanity and civilization, beside which any subsequent atrocity perpetrated in pursue of the same purposes becomes a mere subordinate incident. That apparently is exactly how they look at it in Berlin, and in Germany generally. What the sinking of the Lusitania ought to teach the world is that, the German people and their rulers being what they have shown themselves, the present war was inevitable. What it ought particularly to teach those of us who are in it is that we have got to win or to go down as the Lusitania went down, for we are fighting people who do not know what mercy means'

Many a man deceives himself with the thought that he wouldn't deceive anybody in the world.
