BANS PUBLISHED

The bans of marriage of William McCann of Douglas and Miss Margaret Kirby of Stanley were published yesterday at St. Anthony's Church.

NEW ICE CREAM PARLOR.

Mr. Fred H. Ferguson, well and favorably known in connection with the drug trade has opened an Ice Cream parlor in the Holland building, corner of Brunswick and Northumberland streets. He will keep on hand high grade ice cream, temperance drinks etc. Give him a call.

MADE GOOD SHOWING

The gross receipts of the play put on at the opera house last week under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire were $77.10. The Daughters of the Empire pay the expenses amounting to about thirty-five dollars and got sixty per cent. of the gross receipts, amounting to $245.

BRIDAL COUPLE HERE.

Mr. L. L. Theriault of Grand Anse, and bride, nee Miss Francis Neville, of Calgary, are here on their honeymoon. They were united in marriage at Montreal last week. The young couple will make their home at Grand Anse. Mr. Theriault is a graduate in civil engineering of the U.N.B.

GONE TO THE FRONT

In a letter received at St. John from Sergeant Thomas Gorman, he states that all but five of the 23rd Battery (which included about twenty U.N.B. men) have gone to the front. The following are still in Shorcliffe, Eng., looking after supplies: Captain Bentley, Captain Christensen, Sergeant Major Patchell, Sergeant Major Frank X. Benings and Sergeant Gorman.

DIED IN HOSPITAL

Muriel Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hewitson of Doak Settlement, passed away Sunday morning at the Victoria Public Hospital after a lingering illness. The child was six years of age. Besides the parents there survive to mourn their loss two brothers John L. and Stanley R. and one sister Hazel. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock Thursday morning with services at the Victoria Hospital by Rev. Canon Cowie. Interment will be made at Forest Hill.

RIGHT UP TO DATE.

Mr. H. F. Floyd has opened a dairy and ice cream parlor in the Coulthard building, Carleton street. He has had the place fitted up in a most attractive manner and everything is as neat as a new pin. He will keep on sale fresh buttermilk, cream and milk, henney eggs, creamery butter, besides ice cream, temperance drinks, fruit etc. He guarantees satisfaction or money refunded. Mr. Floyd's establishment will be known as the Quality Dairy and Ice Cream Parlor.

INQUEST TOMORROW

An inquest into the death of an unidentified man whose body was found in the St. John River at Sugar Island boom on Saturday morning will be held tomorrow evening by Dr. B. M. Mullin as coroner with a jury. All efforts to learn the identity of the man have thus proved fruitless. The body was dressed in a union suit of underwear, pair of blue trousers and socks with feet gone from them. The body was in such an advanced state of decomposition that it had evidently been in the water months. It was buried at Hawkins' burial ground in Douglas.

MIXUP AT THE PARK.

A telephone message from a resident of Odell Avenue complaining that a party of two men and two young women were driving in Wilmot Park and acting in a disorderly manner, caused Police Sgt. Duncan and Policeman Marshall to go to the Park last night. The disorderly party, however, were able to avoid the police by driving up the Woodstock Road but the officers were given information as to who its members were. Later in the evening two young women were taken to the police station on the charge of acting disorderly. One of them arrested by Policeman Hughes resisted and attracted considerable attention. At the police station it was shown that there had been a mistake, the wrong women being apprehended, and they were allowed to go.

Mrs. Solomon Paul and Frank Sabatis Arrested Here on Arrival of Steamer--Case Not Pressed

An elopement which began Saturday at the Oromocto Indian reserve was nipped in the bud by Chief Sol Brooks of the St. Mary's Reserve who arrested the elopers on the arrival of the steamer Saturday afternoon, the Chief acting in his capacity as constable.

The two were Mrs. Solomon Paul and Frank Sabatis the latter a widower and the former a married woman. The husband of the latter on hearing that the two had departed for Fredericton with the evident intention of going to the State of Maine telephoned here and had them arrested when the steamer arrived.

This morning the eloping pair were before Police Magistrate Limerick but the complainant failed to appear. In this event the accused were allowed to go the wife agreeing to return to her husband.

VISITING MOTORISTS.

A number of auto parties were in the city yesterday. E. Hutchinson of Douglastown, came in his car, registering at the Queen. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rising of St. John, were at the Barker House. Miss Kelley, Miss Van Buren, H. S. Jones and A. C. Smith came from St. John, registering at the Barker House. A St. John party composed of H. C. VanWart, H. Crocker and W. J. Nagle arrived today and is at the Barker House.

INDIAN RECRUITS
TO FORM SECTION
OF 55th BATTALION

Recruiting Officers at Oromocto Reserve Today--Meeting at Mouth of Keswick--Campaigning Starts To-night

Major W. H. Gray, recruiting officer at this place, has received instructions to accept Indian recruits for the 55th Battalion, now in camp at Sussex. Six Indians have offered themselves here for enlistment in the 55th and have been 'passed' by the medical officer. In pursuance of the instructions received these men will be sent to Sussex as soon as possible. Five Indians of the Oromocto Reserve have stated their intention of enlisting and Major Gray and Lieut. A. J. Brooks went to Oromocto this afternoon to obtain their names.

AT MOUTH OF KESWICK.

In spite of insufficient advertising and other arrangements, there was a large and enthusiastic recruiting meeting held at Mouth of Keswick Saturday night. Dr. Robertson was in chair. The speakers were J. Howe Dickson, Lieut. A. J. Brooks and Coun. Alex. Brewer. A considerable number of young men spoke of their intention of enlisting and it is expected that they will give in their names at the meeting to be held at Burt's Corner.

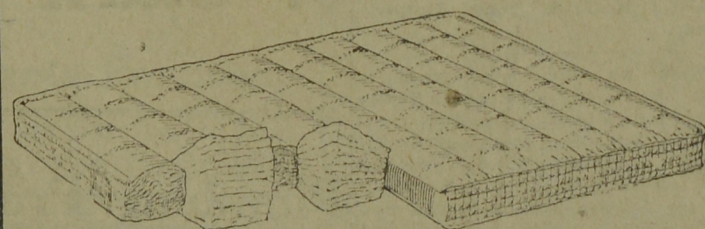

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

The meetings scheduled for tonight as the real opening of the recruiting campaign in York and Sunbury will be at Fredericton Junction and at Marysville. Big crowds are expected
