SIR WILFRID LAURIER AT STURGEON FALLS

Sturgeon Falls, Ont., Sept. 17—Sir Wilfrid Laurier looked remarkably like himself, which is to say he was in good form, in good health and in good spirits, when he met the people here this afternoon, opening his Ontario campaign.

After a shower of flowers from little girls standing in arches, under which the procession passed, he arrived at the square, where the open air platform had been erected, and where temporary benches had been crowded. Here several thousand people assembled under a sky constantly threatening rain. Sir Wilfrid was greeted with a sincere welcome.

"As president of the Liberal Association," said Hon. MacKenzie King. "I welcome Sir Wilfrid Laurier and I think I can do so on behalf of all the people."

SORRY FOR IT NOW.

"You bet," roared an enthusiast. Mr. King alluded to the defeat of reciprocity.

"They are sorry for it," cited a voice. (Applause.)

"Yes, they are sorry for it as my friend remarked," asserted Mr. King, amid cheers. "Sir Wilfrid is entering tomorrow upon a tour of observation and education," continued Mr. King, "which in a short time will bring about his return to power."

"In 17 months," shouted a man in the crowd. (Cheers.)

"This is the first time I have been the guest of Sturgeon Falls," began Sir Wilfrid.

"May God bless you," cried a friend below the platform.

"He has blessed me now for seventy years," replied Sir Wilfrid, "and I pray God will continue to do so."

"I come here today as a private citizen. I am a believer in British constitutions. I believe the British constitutions give us more liberty than that in the United States, but even under the British constitution people sometimes make mistakes. I believe they made one on the 21st of September last." (Cheers.)

WANT WIDER MARKETS.

"I ask every patriot who has any desire for this country's welfare to tell us now if the people did not make a great mistake in removing the last government. We are a young nation and we have resources which can produce in one year more than the people of Canada can consume in ten years. If the market had no other market than the Canadian

READY FOR WORLD'S SERIES

WORLD'S SERIES

ATTRACTING FANS ATTENTION

Giants and Red Sox Evenly Matched--- Boston Has Batting Strength and New York is More Aggressive

New York, Sept. 11—With the pennant race in the American and the National leagues about over and the flags conceded to the Boston and New York teams in their respective circuits, baseball fans are now beginning to talk of the world's series and the chances of their favorite clubs. According to the experts, the Giants and Red Sox are about evenly matched. The Boston team has more batting strength than the New Yorkers, while the latter aggregation is the more aggressive and has the best base runners. The Sox have the edge in fielding and have the stronger pitching staff. The Sox also have the best outfield and a stronger backstopping department. Much interest will be taken in the methods of the two managers, Jake Stahl and Johnny McGraw. The latter is one of the brainiest men that ever piloted a team, and much credit for the showing of the club this and last year must be given to him. With McGraw on the coaching lines the Giants will not make any costly mistakes. Stahl is a youngster in managerial experience, but has made good, and many look for him to put one over on McGraw.

Nevers was fifty-six years old, and a paper hanger. He was born in Fredericton, son of Charles and Martha Harris Nevers. He was arrested in Boston, July 27, as a vagrant and was in a pitiful condition from lack of food. It is said his mental weakness was due to a fall from a stag, ing! He had never been arrested before, so far as known.

London, Sept. 18—At St. George's Church, Hanover Square, this afternoon Miss Edith Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks of New York was married to the Hon. Arthur R.
