FORFEITED DEPOSIT.

One drunk was arrested last night and forfeited his deposit by non-appearance in the police court this morning.

AT THE PALMS

Miss Jean VanBuskirk was the hostess at a very enjoyable dance given at The Palms last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Muriel of Calais.

COMING BANQUET

The local commercial travellers are to banquet Major James Pringle, quartermaster of the 26th Battalion, at Windsor Hall next Saturday evening.

POLICE COMMISSION.

A session of the police commission was to have been held yesterday. His Honor Judge Wilson was unable to be present and no business was transacted.

KICKED BY HORSE.

A field artilleryman at the Exhibition Buildings was kicked last night by a horse and painfully injured. He was able to walk to the Victoria Hospital, where his injuries were attended to.

MAY SUE BANK

It is reported that Mr. Frank DeL. Clements will shortly institute proceedings against Bank of Nova Scotia for false arrest and malicious prosecution. It is understood that he has retained Mr. G. W. Fowler, M.P., and Mr. M. G. Teed, K.C., to act for him.

HAS LEFT CITY

Mrs. Susan Myhrall was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the police court yesterday afternoon, but sentence was suspended till Saturday on condition that she leave the city. She is reported to have left by the St. John and Quebec Railway.

ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS

It was announced today that slow progress was being made in the arbitration proceedings in connection with the city league. C. F. Chestnut is representing the league and Edward Bates of St. John the city. The third arbitrator has not been selected yet.

ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE.

A local man who is charged with being absent from the 26th Battalion without leave was arrested by the city police last night on orders from St. John. He will be handed over to the military authorities. He came here to visit his children, who were seriously ill and was confined to his home by quarantine.

JUDGMENT STANDS.

According to Police Magistrate Ritchie of St. John, a judgment for debt against J. A. Marcus of the Division of Ammunition Column in this city, stands although the man is a soldier and in uniform. The magistrate yesterday refused an application to set aside the judgment. However, a soldier's pay, personal equipment or arms cannot be taken for debt.

NO HOCKEY TONIGHT.

The Chatham hockey team cancelled its engagement with the U.N.B. team here tonight. The game was called off late yesterday afternoon, the Chatham people saying that four of their players were away and that a team could not be brought here. The college team tried so get the 23rd Field Battery to fill the engagement but the artillerymen found the notice too short.

BOARD OF TRADE

J. B. Daggett, Secretary for Agriculture of the province, delivered an interesting address before the Fredericton Board of Trade last night. His subject was the opportunities for New Brunswick agriculture in Great Britain. He also dealt with his recent trip to England with the gift of New Brunswick to the Empire. The meeting was the regular February meeting, but as there was not a quorum present no business was transacted.

GOOD GOVERNMENT MEETING.

The Good Government Association held a well attended meeting last night, at which voters' lists were looked over and preparations made for the civic election which will take place Monday, March 8. This organization is reported to be in excellent condition and ready for whatever may turn up.

Although Nomination Day is March 1, only two weeks from Monday there is little activity in aldermanic circles. Several aldermen have expressed an intention of retiring and others have not committed themselves. Ald. Stevenson, Ald. Blissett and Ald. Kitchen have announced their retirement. Ald. Everett is desirous of retiring. The intentions of the others are unknown. In some quarters it is thought that Ald. Walvinson may not be back from the Pacific Coast in time for the election.
