DOW-DUMPHY NUPPIALS TOOK PLACE THIS AFTERNOON

A charming home wedding took place this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dunphy, 230 Regent street, when Miss Gladys Honor Dunphy became the bride of Mr. John Franklin Dow of Boston, son of Mr. David Dow of Bangor, Me. The bridesmaid was Miss Cora Thomas of Fredericton, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Fred Dow of Boston.

The ceremony was performed by Rev Dr. W. H. Smith, pastor at St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The bride entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Mr. Lawrence White of McAdam, her brother-in-law. The contracting parties stood beneath an arch composed of pine, rowan berries and autumn leaves. The bride was charmingly crowned in white duchess satin, draped in neilson with tulle veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore pink silk crepe de chene with black picture hat. The bride carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and the bridesmaid a bouquet of carnations.

The wedding was attended by a number of out-of-town guests, among them being Miss Winnifred Dunphy of Newport, R.I., and Mrs. Lawrence White of McAdam.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and pin, to the bridesmaid a beautiful gold bracelet and to the groomsmen a pearl stick-pin. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding gifts. The ceremony was followed by a wedding repast, the dining-room decorations being smilax, ferns and white and pink carnations.

The young couple will leave at 5.50 by C.P.R. on their honeymoon which will be spent on a hunting and fishing trip at the Waskoghegan Lakes. They will reside in Boston.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN SPOKE ON THE WAR

St. John, Oct. 20.—Sir Robert Borden was well received to an audience that crowded the Imperial Theatre to its utmost last night. In his address he reviewed the position that Canada has taken up since the outbreak of the war and especially dealt with the visit he had made to the Canadian hospitals in England. He was immensely pleased with the show of the soldiers and the hospitals that had been sent from the dominion.

He made a long explanation of the machine gun position, saying that citizens had already paid $777,000 for that purpose, which the government intended to use later. As to the future, he said the steps taken in Great Britain and the overseas dominions led him to believe that in the immediate future the British troops would be as well supplied with guns and ammunition as the enemy troops and that a man must be faint hearted who was not sure beyond all doubt how this struggle would end. The end would have to be a victory complete and unmistakable so as to free the whole world of militarism that had pressed upon it for the past twenty years.

All depended on the supreme effort of the mother land and her colonies. It was a struggle for the supremacy of the ideals of the jungle or of Christianity. The desire for the consolidation of the empire had grown since the war broke out in every part of Canada. These and words such as these were listened to with attention and at the close there was a feeling of renewed confidence in the part the dominion was taking.

In the course of the evening a bouquet was handed to Lady Borden, who occupied a box with Lady Tilley and ladies of the patriotic bodies in the city.

Mayor Frintz presided over the gathering and those on the platform included the Lieutenant Governor, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Chief Justice McLeod, Judge Grimmer, Judge McKeown, Judge Forbes, Judge Armstrong, G. T. Ganong, ex-M.P. and Hon. R. J. Ritchie.

"Captain Torcom is planning to raise volunteer corps from the Armenians now residing in the Balkans, Egypt, Italy, France, Great Britain and the United States to fight in the ranks of the Allies against Turkey."

"In an appeal with this end in view Capt. Torcom says the Armenians have been unable to prevent the massacre of Armenians in Asia Minor by the Turks but that those living in other countries can help fight Turkey."

"Capt. Torcom's plan provides for the formation of a maximum of thirty battalions and a minimum of ten battalions. Capt. Torcom was wounded during the recent fighting in Galicia, but is now able to leave the hospital and is about to start for London to get his plan in operation."
