HOOF BEATS.

Under the new horse breeding laws of the State of Pennsylvania the raising of draft horses has taken a decided jump in the last four years and statistics show that more than 1600 stallions of various types have been registered to date, with the Percheron type heading the list. Fully 700 are pure bred animals.

WOMAN PLEADED FOR HER HUSBAND

W. J. Whitton of Peterboro, Ont., had Husband Reinstated by N.T.A.
 Board of Review

New York, May 9—A woman pleading before the board of review of the National Trotting Association today was a feature of proceedings which are usually confined to men. Mrs. W.
 J. Whitton of Peterboro, Ont., appeared, after her husband had twice failed to turn the board in his favor, and won the case of "Lady of the Lake," the mare which Whitton bought, he claims, in good faith as "Susie Hal," to discover later that the horse was disbarred as a "ringer" in 1910. "Susie Hal" was reinstated after Whitton had paid $105 to get the mare back into good standing.

OTHER DECISIONS.

Other decisions announced by the board were:
 Mare "Mildred," formerly "Melba Chimes" with a mark of 226½, ordered suspended pending the return of her unlawful winnings.

Ernest J. Managan of Binghamton, N.Y., and the black mare "Miss Arcola," formerly "Bessie Lightfoot," expelled, and charges against J. M. Kilmer, also of Binghamton, were dismissed.

W. J. Barry of Roncverte, W. Va., and his black mare, "Tillie W," with a mark of 224½, expelled for having raced out of class at Columbus, N.
 C., last fall.

All the officers of the Chateaugay Agricultural Association were suspended pending the payment of prize money to various persons.

J. H. Rhodes of Phoenixville, Penn., was expelled on the charge of having started a horse under an alleged false name at Petersburg, Penn., last October.

J. L. Temple of Rockmond, Va., Fred L. Timberlake of Woodfield, O., and John Dean of Elm Grove, W.
 Va., were reinstated.

The board adjourned tonight after re-electing William H. Goucher of Hartford, Conn., as secretary and L. J. Powers of Springfield, Mass., as treasurer.

POSTPONED GAMES COST $200,000

New York, May 8—Baseball post-ponements due to rain have cost the big league clubs nearly $200,000 thus far this season. Up to yesterday there has been twenty-seven post-ponements in the National League and twenty-one in the American and receipts so far this year are much below normal. Figuring on an average attendance of 6,500 the forty-eight unplayed games mean that the clubs are shy receipts from 312,000 persons.

SOLICITORS TO BEGIN CANVASS NEXT WEEK

Team will Report here Next Week-- "Red" Wildes First on Scene-- Work on Grounds

It now looks as if solicitors for the Fredericton Baseball Club will not be able to get to work until Monday next. Monday is the 13th inst. and the team is to report here on the 16th, so that the solicitors will have only three days' start.

"Red" Wildes, who was expected to come in advance of the rest of the team has blown in already. "P. J." was to leave Boston yesterday, but was instructed to wait a few days and make arrangements for transportation himself. He will arrive next week with the other players.

The rain of the past few days has helped the grades on the field to quite an extent. The diamond will need some work on it however and that will probably be done soon.

JOHNNY CONLON

HAD NO TROUBLE WITH SOLSBERG

Except at First of Bout Brooklyn Boxer had Nothing on Bantamweight Champion

New York, May 9—Johnny Conlon of Chicago, bantamweight champion, easily defeated Young Solsberg of Brooklyn, in a ten-round bout at the Royal Athletic Club, Brooklyn, tonight.

The bout went the full ten rounds, and Conlon had the better of nine of them. Solsberg got the initial round by a fair margin.

Solsberg started off with a rush and landed left and right to Conlon's head, but the blows were not very effective. Conlon contented himself with feeling out his man and Sols-berg won the first round on points.

COULON COMES BACK.

From the opening of the second round until the end of the tenth Cou-lon was at all times master. He began the second by making Solsberg miss frequently and then landed a hard left to the face and put both hands to the body. Then, with a right over to the jaw, he dropped Solsberg, but the Brooklyn lad hung onto Conlon's glove and regain his feet inside of two seconds.

In the following round Conlon landed stiff lefts to the face and uppercut with his right hard to the jaw. His best work was when he would feint for the body and then bring his right or left to the face or head.

Solsberg was not idle and kept striking for the head, landing occasionally with his left and right to the face and short-arm blows to the body.

SOLSBERG GAME.

Although evidently he was in for a good beating he was always up to his man and took his punishment stoically. Soon good body blows he landed in the fourth and fifth rounds seemed to have no effect on Conlon.

In the sixth Conlon kept forcing matters and punished his man heavily about the body. He made Sols-berg miss in the seventh, but in the eighth Solsberg put a straight left to the jaw, one of the best blows he landed.

In the next round Solsberg began swinging wildly, receiving hard body punishment. Solsberg tried to come to close quarters, but was beaten back in the final session. Conlon had the local boy at his mercy until the going ended the bout.

PITCHED BALL BROKE TANNEHILL'S WRIST

Walter Johnson put over fast one which Snapped White Sox Short-stop's Arm

Washington, May 8—One of pitcher Walter Johnson's fast shoots put Lee Tannehill, utility infielder of the Chicago White Sox, out of the game indefinitely today. Tannehill's wrist was broken. The crowd jeered the White Sox infielder as he trotted to first base rubbing his arm, for the ball seemed to have struck the bat.
 Tannehill tried to field his position at shortstop in the next inning, but his first attempt to throw to first resulted in a wild throw, and an X-ray examination of the arm showed a clean break. Tannehill will return to Chicago tomorrow and Blackburn will take his place.

J. R. Brown, a leading merchant of Woodstock, will give a box of cigars of the 7-21 brand, manufactured in Sherbrooke, Canada, to the first member of the home team who knocks out a home run.
