LOWER HAINESVILLE

Jan. '17—Lower Hainesville has been experiencing some wintry weather with severe winds and storms.

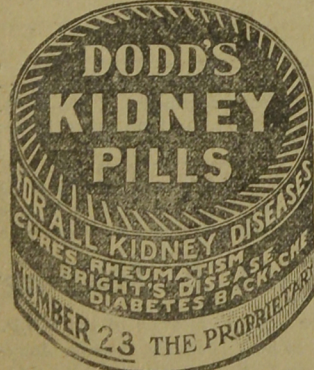

This place was promised three mails per week but since the first of the New Year have received mail twice, presumably on account of storms although roads were broken out.

Mr. G. F. Jewett and Mr. John Elliott still continue in very poor health.

Mr. Weston Webb had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last week.

The Christmas entertainment that was given by the school on Christmas night proved a grand success reflecting much credit on the pupils and their energetic teacher Miss Wiggins. The school house was full of spectators and promptly at 8.30 the programme was begun with Mr. Jas. Hill acting as chairman. At the close of the programme Santa Claus appeared on the scene and unloaded the tree which was laden with gifts for everyone.

The community at large was shocked Thursday morning on learning that Mrs. Cleveland Clark a much respected lady had passed away during the night. She had been ill about six weeks and despite medical skill and the attention of loved ones she finally succumbed. The deceased was twenty-five years of age. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and one little daughter, her infant being buried beside her, also her father Mr. Samuel Holt and four sisters and a host of friends who have the entire sympathy of all. One sad feature was that her father was at Welsford the scene of lumbering operations. He was almost overcome with grief at the sad intelligence. The remains were laid to rest in the burying ground here beside those of her little babe. Services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. E.W. Lester, the choir rendering appropriate music. The heartfelt sympathy of all go out to the stricken family in this their hour of affliction.

NERVOUSNESS AND DYSPESIA

CURED BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES" THE GREAT FRUIT MEDICINE

In Nervous Dyspepsia, the Dyspepsia does not come from the Nervousness—but the latter trouble does come from the Dyspepsia.

The stomach is a network of nerves. Now if all these nerves are irritated by improper food, hasty eating, or poisoned by gases from the constipated bowels, then they will make one nervous.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures both the Nervousness and the Dyspepsia because "Fruit-a-tives" cures all stomach troubles, keeps the stomach sweet and clean, and enables you to eat and sleep as you did when a child.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SIR MAX AITKEN HAS ANOTHER BIG SCHEME

Montreal, Jan. 19—It is stated here today that a syndicate in which Sir Max Aitken and associates are interested have prepared plans for development near Montreal of 1,000,000 electrical horsepower, from a power situated within twenty-five miles of the city.

The Eastern Canada Power Company will apply to parliament for authorization to divert the whole course of the St. Lawrence River at Coteau and Cedar Rapids. The plans are incomplete, but are known to include the damming of the St. Lawrence above Cedar Rapids, thus cutting out the Soulanges canal and turning the flow to the southern end of Isle Perrot.

An immense dam will create a great body of still water above, but a lock with a lift of some 88 feet will prevent any interference with navigation.

The cost of the dam alone will be $25,000,000.

The capitalization of the concern is placed at $100,000,000, though the incorporation papers show it as $600,000.

RED SUNDAY ANNIVERSARY

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22—Today was the seventh anniversary of "Red Sunday," when Father Capon led a demonstration of the people before the Winter Palace and many were killed by the troops. Owing probably to the extra precautions taken by the police the anniversary passed without any disorderly demonstrations.

A POLITICAL PARADOX IN SOUTH RENFREW, ONT.

(Toronto Globe)

Renfrew, Jan. 19—Of all the political paradoxes in the history of Canada it is doubtful if there has ever been a more paradoxical one than the action of the convention of the Conservatives of South Renfrew, held here this afternoon. In the first place the convention congratulated Mr. T. W. McGarry, M. P., upon his election by acclamation to the Ontario Legislature by means of a solemn agreement between the two political parties by which it was decided that if Mr. McGarry were so elected, the nominee of the Reform party to succeed Mr. Low should be also returned unopposed.

Secondly, it approved of the agreement. Thirdly, it declared its willingness to allow Mr. T. A. Low, the former member, to be re-elected by acclamation.

IN QUITE A HURRY

And then, without waiting for an answer from Mr. Low, who was with in telephonic communication with the hall, the convention proceeded forthwith to nominate Dr. M. J. Maloney as its candidate for the forthcoming bye-election for the riding.

It is true that afterwards a resolution was passed giving Mr. Low a week in which to reply, but this was an afterthought, and was not done until after Dr. Maloney had been nominated, had accepted the nomination, and had had that nomination ratified. Moreover, it was announced by the Minister of Customs, Hon. J. D. Reid, that "work" would be begun at once and would be continued for a week, and that if then Mr. Low's answer was not favorable it would be continued.

Incidentally it may be added that the Minister and several other speakers intimated that the writ would be delayed for as long a time as possible, and that the campaign would last at least six weeks or two months thereby indicating the fear which the Conservative party has of the return of Hon. George P. Graham to the House.

MR. LOW NOT LIKELY TO ACCEPT

But Tom Low will not accept. He is out for good, or at least it so appears. He has given up his seat to Hon. Mr. Graham, and he is going to deliver the goods. He has, of course, not made any answer yet in words, but his actions speak louder than words, for within two hours of the close of the Conservative convention Messrs. Low and Graham started off for Sand Point to hold a meeting there. Thus it appears that the fight is on. Honor has been thrown to the winds by the machine element of the Conservative party in the riding, at the dictation of Hon. J. D. Reid, Hon. Frank Cochrane and the Whites of Renfrew.

THE CONVENTION

The convention was held in the Temperance Hall, which is also a nickle theatre, and therefore quite an appropriate place for the performance of a circus. The door was closely tyled by an efficient official of the Conservatives Association, and by the Chief of Police. It took nearly an hour for the delegates to get past them, but about 2 o'clock the convention was formally organized, with Mr. J. B. Ferguson, president of the Conservative Executive, in the chair. And although no one was supposed to be present, except delegates, who possessed cards of delegation, it was noticed by those who were there that Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Customs was seated to the right of the Chairman all through the formal convention proceedings.

NOMINATIONS

At this point the reporters eluded the watchful doorkeepers and got up stairs. Just as they did so the Chairman announced that nominations were in order, and a gentleman at the back of the hall rose and proposed the name of Dr. Murphy, of Annapolis. The doctor was called to the platform, and while appreciating the honor, retired in favor of Dr. Maloney of Eganville, the man who bore the burden of the fight. There were several willing to second the nomination, and it was so made, but not without some dissenting voices.

DR. MALONEY ACCEPTS

The candidate accepted the nomination, although he intimated his willingness to retire if Mr. Low would accept renomination; "but," he added, "South Renfrew is no place for political outcasts." He had not been a party to the agreement, and maintained that the signers had bound themselves alone. The Conservatives of South Renfrew would never allow G. P. Graham to be elected. The agreement said that they would accept the nominee of the Reform party, but there was as yet no such nominee.

NO TRUCK WITH LIBERALS

Mr. W. R. White, K. C., of Pembroke, followed in a speech in which he brought greetings from the North riding. He declared the people of the North would do all that they could to prevent the introductions of an outsider, and added that they wanted no truck with Liberals.

MR. DUNLOP, M. P. P.

Next followed Mr. E. A. Dunlop, M. P. P., for North Renfrew, who said that The Globe and other Liberal papers had been whining about the delay in the issuance of the writ for the South Renfrew election.

DENIES PERSONAL FEELING

Then came another "outsider" in the person of Mr. Gerald V. White, the Federal member for North Renfrew, who, after an appeal to the electors to support the Borden Government, said that it had been charged that his opposition to Mr. Graham was personal. To this he gave an emphatic denial. He and Mr. Graham were good personal friends. "I have been opposed to this agreement from the outset for public rather than personal reasons," he said. "When the agreement was first proposed I came to the conclusion that it would be most unwise for a new government to allow the election by acclamation of a man who had been thrown out by the people, and I so informed the ministers. It has been said that I am inspired by motives of revenge for the part taken by Mr. Graham in the election in which my late reverend father was defeated in Brockville. That is not my attitude."

Mr. W. H. Williams of Pembroke, another "outsider," declared that the nomination of Dr. Maloney made the agreement null and void, and asserted that the verdict of South Renfrew would be watched for by the whole country from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

HON. J. D. REID

Then Hon. J. D. Reid took the floor. He asserted that the government and (Continued on page seven.)
