PUNTS AND DROPS

Renault who played on the forward line of the 62nd Regt. on Saturday was injured by being kicked in the head, it is supposed while trying to stop a dribble. His injury has turned out to be much more serious than at first was thought. He is now under the doctor's care and concussion of the brain is feared. Renault is a fourth year man and is playing his first year in senior Rugby. He was developing into a good forward and will be much missed. His fellow students greatly regret his injury and hope for a speedy recovery.

The U.N.B. back-division has been trying some Rugby of the "inside" variety and probably will spring some of it against St. Thomas this afternoon.

At the recent conference of representatives of the colleges in the Intercollegiate League it was decided that flags be used to mark the intersection of touch-lines with goal-lines and dead-lines, also that the dead-lines be not more than twenty-five yards from the goal-lines and that the five-yard lines be marked only for two yards at each touch-line. With the exception of the last item these regulations are embodied in the International rules but are emphasized on account of irregularities in the past in the laying out of playing-fields.

The following have been suggested as referees for the intercollegiate Rugby matches—Dr. Wm. Rankine, Dr. Stairs, Wm. Ross, Stan Bauld, Norman Ralston of Halifax, Lou Buckley of Amherst.

On Saturday last St. Thomas College, which plays U.N.B. here today, defeated the Chatham team 6 to 0.

Parker and McLeod replace Renault in the U.N.B. forward line today. Renault is out of the game through sickness and Cass has been taken out for the time being to give Parker a chance as it is thought the scrum needs more weight.

McGill has cancelled the eastern tour of her English Rugby Club and U.N.B. has been compelled to mark off a supposed fixture from the season's schedule. The intercollegiate matches will be on in a fortnight and there should be several matches before then.

Joe Wood Batted out of Box by Giants Yesterday

New York Won 11 to 4—Series Now Tied—Deciding Game to be Played in Boston Today—McGraw Confident of Winning—Giants Scored Six Runs in First Inning While Spectators Bat Silent—Tresreau Puzzle to Red Sox

THE GATE RECEIPTS.

Boston, Oct. 15—Attendance and receipts at today's game of the world's series, as announced by the National Commission, were as follows:
Total attendance, 32,694; total receipts, $57,195; National Commission's share, $5,719.60; each club's share, $25,768.20.

Boston, Oct. 15—The New York Giants, pennant winners of the National League, administered a crushing defeat to the Boston Americans today by the score of 11 to 4, in the seventh game of the world's series.

Tonight finds the Giants and the Red Sox waiting to engage in the final combat here tomorrow that will determine which team shall be the world's champions of 1912. The series now stands: Boston 3 games won; New York 3 games won; one contest a tie.
"Smoky" Joe Wood the Red Sox star twirler, who already had beaten the Giants twice in the series, was sent to pitch the Red Sox into the world's championship. His end was so swift and so sudden that the 30,000 spectators sat in silence in Fenway Park and saw Wood's delivery batted to all parts of the field, and six Giant players races over the home plate before the last New Yorker was put out in the first inning.

The Red Sox never recovered from that first inning and though they peppered away fitfully at Tresreau's moist ball, they never came within threatening distance of the Giants.

ONSLAUGHT ON WOOD.

Manager McGraw in the coacher's box down off third base, directed the attack on Wood's delivery. He gave orders to hit the first ball pitched, and with few exceptions all of the nine men who confronted Wood in the first inning rapped the first ball that Wood sent up to the plate.

This shower of hits combined with a double steal paved the way to New York's six runs. Thereafter Wood was a broken reed and Charlie Hall Boston's relief pitcher was sent into the box.

Some of the Giant players seemed to think that Wood had broken under the strain of the two earlier games in the series. His curve ball had little break to it and the Giants had no trouble in hitting his fast ones.

The Red Sox have bedient ready to go on the firing line for the deciding game tomorrow, with Joe Wood prepared to go to his assistance, while the Giants will depend on Christy Mathewson with Rube Marquard held in reserve.

TESREAU A PUZZLE

Tesreau held the whip hand over the Red Sox throughout the game. His moist ball broke sharply over the plate and the Red Sox were unable to fathom his delivery when hits would have scored runs. Twelve of the red legs were left anchored on the bases because of the inability to touch Tesreau's service for the needed hit.

Although New York had a commanding lead throughout the game, McGraw kept Mathewson warmed up down off left field to relieve Tesreau in case the wet ball twirler weakened.

After making the cluster of runs in the first inning, the Giants scored another tally in the second, two more in the sixth, one in the seventh and one in the ninth innings.

The Red Sox sent their first run across the plate in the second inning when Gardner shot a screaming home run into the right field seats, the first circuit drive of the series. Two more runs were scored in the seventh, and another tally in the eighth by the home club.

Captain Loyde of New York, sent a liner into the crowd in right field, for a home run in the sixth.

SIX RED SOX STRUCK OUT

There were seven strikeouts in the game. Herzog was the only man on the Giants' team to fan. The Red Sox who struck out were Hooper, twice, Yerkes, Gardner, Wagner and Cady, once each. The game was so early played in the field, while a constant gale of wind made it difficult for fielders to get under fly balls. Speaker, however, made a brilliant catch. Play was suspended frequently during the game when dense clouds of dust twirled across the diamond. While the Giants were at field practice, all the members of the Red Sox team were called into the club house for a talk with President McAleer and Manager Stahl behind closed doors. Manager McGraw tonight said:

"The Red Sox have broken and are on the run." He added that with the same aggressive attack made tomorrow the Giants would be carried to victory. McGraw said his club was thoroughly instilled with the fighting spirit and that the players showed a return to the form that had won for them so many victories in the National League in the spring and early summer.

LEADERS COMMENTS

Manager Stahl remarked: "All clubs have form reversal, but the rebound is always violent. Tomorrow will tell another story for the Red Sox."

The box score was:

JOHNNY KILBANE GIVEN

DECISION OVER O'KEEFE

Cleveland, Oct. 14—Johnny Kilbane, champion featherweight, and Eddie O'Keefe of Philadelphia put up a disappointing exhibition in 12 rounds of parlor fighting tonight at the Tuxedo Club.

Kilbane got the decision, for O'Keefe couldn't hit him hard enough to shake him, but Kilbane didn't show any of the punch he is supposed to possess, merely tapping the Philadelphia when he could get him in a corner.

O'Keefe showed that he can use his feet and gave evidence in most of the rounds that he was trying to dodge punishment. Kilbane was score pretty severely during the bout for his failure to do some real fighting.

On account of the men being sore and also on account of the heavy rain about the middle of the afternoon there was no practice at the College Field yesterday. On Monday there was a good work-out however, although five of the first team were absent.

C. W. Clark will referee this afternoon's U.N.B.—St. Thomas match.

BADEN PRESSED

HARD BY ESTHER W.

AT LEXINGTON

Bad Break in Fifth Heat Lost Mare Race and Castleton Cup—Fast Heats

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 14—The harness racing here this afternoon left little in the way of excitement to be desired. The mighty Baden, instead of having a walkover for the Castleton Cup as expected, has to fight as hard as any time this season. In fact, victory came to the son of Bingara at the end of the fifth mile, after Rodney had stopped driving, feeling certain that the race was lost.

The wilful Esther W was a real trotter for three heats after an exhibition of bad manners in the opening mile. The second trip she was clearly out-trotted in 2:06½, and then carried Baden to a break coming home in the third and fourth miles in 2:07½ and 5:06½. She was out in front, going apparently well within herself, in the fifth mile. At the short distance flag, Baden had not been able to get on even terms with her and Rodney had given up trying to catch her. With the beautiful cup in sight she stubbed her toe and Cox could not save her from a break. On came Baden, Esther W refused to settle and the Massachusetts-bred horse scored his eleventh win of the year.

Baden was not in top form, as he has a severe cold and is coughing. Unless he improves rapidly he will not start in the $5000 October prize on Wednesday. Today marked his sixteenth start in as many weeks and brought his winnings up to $33,300.

The stallion championship stake was won by the favorite, Baldy McGregor, in 2:10, 2:06½. The slow time of the first heat was caused by an accident in which Adlon and Princess Todd figured.

McGregor was at the three-quarters in 1:35½, but had no one to force him home. Adlon spilled Dickerson from the sulky and ran to the wire. Princess Todd went to her knees, but Murphy saved her from going down.

The Canadian filly gave the McGregor colt a brace in the second heat, forcing him to step in 2:06½ time, only one other 3-year-old trotting stallion, Colorado E. has excelled.

The 2:06 pacers furnished the thrilling contest anticipated. The favorite Flower Direct, took the first two heats. The 4-year-old great-grandson of Binga, Walter Cochato, then came to front twice in 2:04½ and 2:08½. Longworth B nosed out Cochato the next trip in 2:06½ and the race was halted because of darkness. The summary:
