MOTHER! WATCH THE CHILDREN'S BOWLS

If Cross, Feverish, Sick or Tongue Coated Give "Syrup
of Figs"

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children.
Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of tender bowels so promptly, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well, resting nicely, eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being corrupted entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Exlixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

NOW PRESIDENT OF AMHERST COLLEGE

Amherst, Mass., Oct. 16—The inauguration of Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, formerly of Brown University, as president of Amherst College, was a great day for the institution. Many alumni and friends were present from all parts of the country. The inauguration exercises took place this morning in College Hall, following an academic procession through the college grounds.

The order of the inauguration exercises was as follows: Invocation by George Harris, President Emeritus of the college; presentation of insignia of office by George A. Plimpton, president of the board of trustees; addresses of congratulation on behalf of the alumni, faculty and students; inaugural addresses by President Meiklejohn, benediction by Prof. Ar-

Following a luncheon in the Pratt Gymnasium the delegates, alumni, guests and students reassembled in College Hall and listened to addresses by President Lowell of Harvard University, President Faunce of Brown University, President Hyde of Bowdoin College and President Garfield of Williams College.

The new president of Amherst is forty years old and a native of England. In his youth he accompanied his parents to the United States and was educated at Brown University.
He joined the faculty of his alma mater in 1897 as instructor of philosophy. Subsequently he became professor of logic and metaphysics and in 1901 he was made dean of Brown University. This position he resigned some time ago to accept the presidency of Amherst.

MONUMENT TO EDUCATION

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 15—The normal dedication of the New York State Education Building, which has been built at a cost of more than $3,000,- 000 to house the State library and various departments of the State government allied with the educational system, is being made the occasion of a very unusual gathering of distinguished librarians, scholars and education from all parts of the country. The exercises in connection with the dedication began today, although the dedication proper is not to be held until Thursday. The principal speakers at today's exercises were Whitlaw Reid, Ambassador to Great Britain and Chancellor of the University of the State of New York; Prof. Henry F. Osborn, president of the American Museum of Natural History; Dr. William H. Maxwell, superintendent of public schools of New York City, and Dr. John Christopher Schwab, Librarian of Yale University Library.

NEW SCHOOL FOR NEGROES

Shelbyville, Ky. Oct. 16—The Lincoln Institute of Kentucky, a new institution for the education of negroes in the trades and practical arts was formally dedicated today with interesting exercises. The institute starts on its career with several new and well equipped buildings and a force of competent teachers.

COL SAM HUGHES AND HIS BOMBAST

Canadians who read the speech which Hon. Sam Hughes delivered the other day at Birkenhead after the launching of the battleship Anacostum will be in doubt whether to be more ashamed or amused. In Canada the Hon. Sam's bombast is received, on the whole, with good-natured tolerance. We are accustomed to his absurdities and pass them by with a smile; but it is a different matter when in his capacity as a member of the Canadian Cabinet, and one of the representative public men of the Dominion, he addresses to his English audience such a far-fetched nonsense as that which he uttered at Birkenhead. The speech would have done credit to the Hon. Elijah Bogran. That delightful creation of Dickens' never declaimed anything that sounded more in the King Cambyse vein and contained so little sense. "I stand here," said the Hon. Sam, "as a Canadian before this British audience, to say that the days of eternal peace have not arrived, and in our days will never arrive." What connection there is between the fact that the Hon. Sam is a Canadian and the failure of the days of eternal peace to arrive, the Minister of Militia did not explain, and the average reader will probably have trouble in grasping it. The sentence, however, no doubt, sounded well, delivered in Mr. Hughes' resonant tones and with the appropriate gestures. It is quite likely, too, that he found the reference to his nationality to take well with the audience, for I notice that in the course of his brief address he introduces it in nearly every paragraph, though in most instances it has nothing whatever to do with the sense of what he said, if indeed, what he said has any sense at all.

Once, indeed, the Hon. Sam Hughes makes a definite statement, or rather quotes a very indefinite statement made by the Canadian Prime Minister, to wit, that Canada stands prepared to do her duty to the Empire in the matter of the navy whenever the Motherland gives us the opportunity of doing so. The Hon. Sam did not say that at present Mr. Borden's idea of his own duty, at least, on the naval question, was to dodge the issue as long as possible. His hearers undoubtedly inferred that the Imperial Government had only to ask, and Canada would supply all the battleships required, and perhaps carried away by the enthusiasm of his own eloquence, the Hon. Sam may have believed for a moment that he was giving a truthful impression of the facts. But while his hearers may have excused his grossly florid and often unmeaning phrases as a thing to be looked for in a green Colonial, they must have been staggered when Sam undertook to tell them that the British troops, whose manoeuvres he had witnessed, were as stern and rugged as the soldiers of the days of Wellington or the Crimea. Everybody knows the important services which Colonel Sam, as he then was, and his man Turpin performed in South Africa, when hosts of Boers were melted away before the mere sound of his name, but even Sam Hughes is asking too much of his hearers when he glibly undertakes to compare the British soldier of the present, a man whom he knows nothing, with the grim veterans of one hundred years ago, whom he never saw, and whose qualities he can only conjecture from the pages of history.—Vancouver Saturday Sunset.

POTATOE PRICES IN CARLETON CO.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 15—In the Supreme Court today the grand jury found true bills against George Green for assault on a constable, and Raymond Jones for criminal assault.
Green pleaded guilty and Judge Lan-drew suspended sentence. Jones escaped from jail some time ago and is still at large. A bench warrant will be issued for his arrest. The civil cases will be taken up to-morrow.

Potatoes sold today at 80 cents at Hartland, a few dealers buying at this price. The best offer from Montreal to dealers is $1.25 a barrel delivered there. A prominent dealer said today:

"There is no money in shipping at this price. The freight is 31 cents, the difference in barrels ten cents, and we will not get rich in a profit of four cents, as it is worth much more to handle the barrels.

"The farmers who have raised big crops are experiencing much difficulty in getting help. Those who make a business of picking have gone to Arquostook county, where they are paid $1 a day and board. No farmer in Carleton county can pay these wages and sell at 80 or 90 cents a barrel. The farmers used the most improved machinery and utensils, adopted the improved methods and have achieved gratifying results and should be given the markets to which they are entitled."

ARMY OF CUMBERLAND REUNION

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 16—A small but distinguished body of civil war veterans assembled in Chattanooga today for the annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland. The reunion began today and will continue over to-morrow, the program providing for several business sessions, interspersed with visits to the battlefields in this vicinity.

The Army of the Cumberland took one of the most active and important parts in the civil war. Its objective was the reclamation of the accursed States of Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, and the western parts of Virginia. The victory of this army at Hill Springs was the first of the war at which a matured plan was completely and successfully carried out.
At Shiloh the timely arrival of the soldiers of the Army of the Cumberland saved the day, while at Missionary Ridge the victory of this army was one of the most stupendous feats of the war. Chickamauga was the only battlefield that the Army, in its unity, ever yielded to the enemy. In the spring following the battle of Chattanooga, the Army of the Cumberland, as a part of the military division of the Mississippi joined in the memorable campaign from Chattanooga to Atlanta. After Jonesboro and Atlanta, the formal unity of the Army of the Cumberland was broken.

The commanders of the Army of the Cumberland were Gen. Robert Anderson, Gen. W. T. Sherman, Gen. D. C.
Buell, Gen. Rosser and Gen. Thomas.
Among its corps and division commanders were Gens. Sheridan, Hecker, McCook, Crittenden, Howard, Palmer, Stoddard, and others well known by their gallantry and achievements.

taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, get this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective.
No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure.
Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

A REASON FOR THEIR FAITH

(From the Western Chronicle) Liberals throughout the length and breadth of this great Canada of ours need not go about day after day, dismayed and discouraged. That they have reason for faith that was in them during the fifteen years they governed their nation, is being more fully realized by the great masses of the people today than ever before.
The hands on the dial turned back last year and it is being recognized by independent Conservatives as well as Liberals that there is one great leader of men in Canada Sir Wilfrid Laurier.
The man, who, during his term of office, kept the hands of the nation's clock advancing towards the great goal of nationhood. It should be the proud boast of men, old and young, that they are followers of such a man as their Chief has proven himself to be. To the independent citizen who blamed Sir Wilfrid for certain happenings that took place during his term of office, and who expected, by a change in government to see a change in several matters affecting his country, the steadfast Liberal can, at this time, look in the fact without a lowering of the eyes or a blush of shame. The man who hoped for so much has little faith. The Liberal, on the other hand, has his "Old-time religion," strengthened by the knowledge that no change has been made in any of the decisions arrived at by Sir Wilfrid Laurier or his cabinet. When the present government makes any change that will be the advancement of our country, then, and not till then, should they expect praise or hope to have the people change their faith. To Liberals everywhere, we say, "You have good reason for your faith."
