Pastor Russell Claims Report of the International Bible Students Association Committee, of Which He Was Chairman, Was Too Mild Rather Than Too Severe—Committee Unanimously Stand by the Report and Challenge Criticisms.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—Pastor Russell as usual here had large audiences. We report one of his interesting discourses on the live subject of Foreign Missions, which is stirring Christendom.
His text was, "This Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world, to a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." (Matt. 24:14.) He said:

A year ago the International Bible Students' Association sent a Committee of Seven to investigate missionary prospects in foreign lands—especially in South India, where it is making a special effort. I was one of the Committee, otherwise composed of four successful business men, one doctor, and General Hall of the U.S.A. The Committee made its report, to one of the largest Christian gatherings ever held in New York City in the Hippodrome—on March 31st. Its report, published in pamphlet form, reached a very wide circulation amongst Christian people. As a considerable quantity is still on hand, I am authorized to offer the remainder free, one copy each, to all interested in Foreign Mission work. A post card addressed to "I.B.S.A., Brooklyn, N.Y.," requesting a copy of the Missionary Report, will receive prompt attention, as long as the supply holds out.

The Committee, in preparing this report, laid bare the facts in as gentle and kindly a manner as possible.
Every one of them being deeply interested in the heathen, every one of them a sincere Christian, what else could they do?

Now, as the Committee feared, their report, which so many Christian people gratefully acknowledged, has irritated a few persons. These, evidently, feared that we have discredited their fair tales respecting the immediate conversion of the world by human instrumentality and more millions of money. We sympathize with these enthusiasts, who seem to shut their eyes to facts, while hoping against hope to maintain exploded theories.
One of these, Mr. W. T. Ellis, alias the "Religious Rambler," attacks our report. Falsely he declares that we journeyed on the same vessel from San Francisco to Shanghai, giving the impression that we had not visited Japan at all; that we merely raced through the country, did not visit all the mission stations, nor talk with all missionaries; and he demands how we could know anything on the subject of our report. Our Report tells the facts. The Committee of Seven scattered and spent six days in Japan, and a total of 42 days of investigation. Our 22 days spent in India, similarly reported, would be equivalent to nearly six months' investigation by one person. Our I.B.S.A. Committee was not commissioned to investigate missions, nor to ask missionaries to corroborate reports promulgated by missionary societies.

As for myself, this critic charges in one breath that I did not preach the sermons which appeared in the newspapers of the world; and in the next breath he declares that I spent all of my time in preaching, and therefore had not time for investigation. A discerning public can read between the lines of such criticism what the Bible symbolically describes as "gnashing of teeth."

Our Committee took the only proper course for ascertaining and obtaining the facts. Every missionary and every other person visiting in foreign lands within the last five years, on reading our report will concede that it is truthful, kind and sympathetic. Surely our Committee's method and report will commend themselves to unprejudiced minds. Probably Brother Ellis' difficulty is fear that the hollowness of missionary claims is coming to the light.

Foreign Mission work taught by the Scriptures generally is wholly different from that attempted during the past century, under the postmillennial theory that the Church is to conquer the world for Christ and to bring about a thousand years' reign of righteousness, after which Christ's Second Advent will come and those blessed conditions obliterated by the burning up of the world. This theory, set forth in nearly all of our creeds, is supplemented by the theory that all dying in ignorance of Christ and outside of sainthood, are passing to an eternity of torture. These unscriptural, God-dishonoring teachings have enthused many good people to save the heathen from the fate which they say God Himself had foreordained for them.

This frenzied view, misnamed the Gospel, has been presented to the heathen with little appreciable effect, just as in civilized lands. The whole theory is wrong. What the whole world needs, is the True Bible Message, stripped of the ignorance and superstition of the Dark Ages.

The Bible teaches the Premillennial Coming of Christ—that the Second Coming of Jesus must take place first, and His Kingdom be established in power and great glory and Satan bound. The rising Sun of Righteousness, Messiah's Kingdom, will cause the knowledge of the glory of God to fill the whole earth, dissolving all the mists of bigotry and superstition, and helping humanity back to perfection.

PLASTER ROCK.

Nov. 14—Well, here we are again, but almost stuck in the mud, but we hope it will soon be frozen up.

Business is still flourishing as there are a number of new buildings going up lately.

Rev. Dr. Haining lectured in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon last.

The Misses Page took tea Saturday at A. W. Lawson's.

Miss Una Lawson has returned from Caribou, where she was visiting.

The Misses Verna Wright, Hazel Johnson and Stella Grant were hostesses at a Hallowe'en party at the home of the former on Wednesday evening. About twenty-five were present and a jolly good time was spent in playing games and music, after which a fine lunch was served, also apples, candy and nuts.

Miss Gordon of Fredericton, is in town, the guest of her brother.

Mrs. J. O. Flanders of Maple View, spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. N. Wright.

Mrs. L. Reid of St. Almo, was visiting Mrs. L. Hersey last week.

Mrs. Benjamin Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Irving of Andover, spent the week-end with Mrs. Geo. Ridge-well.

Mr. F. Smith had the misfortune to have two fingers cut off in the mill last week.

Our Ladies' Orange Lodge is progressing, four new members being added lately.

All are sorry to hear that Mrs.
Miles Flanders of Maple View, is ill.

The members of the Ladies' Orange Lodge entertained the Bairdsville Lodge to a Hallowe'en party. About fifty members in all were present and a fine time spent by all listening to recitations, readings, speeches and singing, after which a chicken supper was served by the ladies in the lower part of the hall, when all enjoyed filling up the inner man.

FRENCH LAKE.

French Lake, Nov. 13—The weather for the past week has been very pleasant in spite of the heavy storms.
We have had what one might call a very pleasant fall in this section of the country.

Mrs. Franklin Carr spent last week with her mother, Mrs. T. L. Stennick.

Mr. Adolphus Mills had a very narrow escape one day last week while attempting to reach his boat by the aid of a skiff. It overturned, throwing him into the water. Fortunately he was a good swimmer and swam until he reached bottom and then waded ashore and went to the nearest house, which was fully half a mile away. Mr. Mills was nearly exhausted when he reached there.

Misses Viva Wood and Myrtle Stennick were the guests of Mrs. Charles Wood on Sunday last.

Mr. John Smith of Oromocto, accompanied by several of his friends, made a flying trip by auto to Mr.
W. H. Woods' on the 10th inst.

Miss Jenny Wood spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Annie Russell.

The F. L. Mission Band is preparing for a tea and entertainment which is to take place some time in the coming month.

Mr. Merritt Gillespie, accompanied by Mr. Stevens of Central Blissville, were the guests of Mr. Colby Stennick on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Miller are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son.

Miss Dorothy Bagley was the guest of Miss Minnie Stennick on Sunday.

Mr. David Wood is about to commence his lumber operations for the winter.

Mr. Claude Carr was seen passing through this place on his way to Geary last Sunday.

Mrs. Harding Prince expects to spend the coming winter with her mother, Mrs. George Mersereau.

Mr. David Wood was successful in capturing a deer on Wednesday last.

A company of our young men have gone to spend the winter with Uncle Sam.

Rev. Mr. Lewis of Hampstead, preached a very eloquent sermon at this place on the 3rd inst.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Smith are contemplating moving to Nova Scotia in the near future.

Messrs. Merritt Smith and Frank Mersereau are very busy fishing for the Boston market. They are signifying for reciprocity.

THE FLEMMING GOVT.
AND TEMPERANCE CAUSE

(Moncton Transcript.)

How much longer are the people of Moncton going to permit law violators, to thwart the enforcement of a law, which has been endorsed by the overwhelming majority of the citizens? In the case of Mr. Kay, his dismissal was a part of the present provincial government, to the liquor sellers in this city in return for their support by vote and financially. This was backed by a demand made by wholesale liquor sellers elsewhere, supporting the local government, to the same effect.

Premier Flemming came to Moncton last week and delivered an address before the Sunday School Convention. Staring Premier Flemming in the face were a number of mottos. Two of these mottos were as follows:

"The Sunday School says the saloon must go."

"Every officer, teacher and scholar a total abstainer and a worker for the destruction of the liquor traffic."

Did Premier Flemming refer to these two themes? No. Why? Because his government does not say that the saloon must go.

Whatever the officers, teachers and scholars of the Sunday School may be doing in working for the destruction of the liquor traffic, Mr. Flemming's government is not working for the destruction of the liquor traffic in Moncton City, but his government and his representatives here have done more to set back the temperance cause in a few weeks than the entire force of the liquor party in New Brunswick has been able to accomplish here in a generation.

Some supporters in this city distributed liquor freely among the electors and debauched many of them The floor of the Conservative Club Room on the morning after the provincial polling day displayed several empty square faces, and at the foot of the stairs of the Club Room on the night of polling four men were simultaneously counted standing up intoxicated.

When the cold grey dawn came and the scene in the room was revealed, it shocked the onlookers. The floor bore several empty square faces. But on the morning after September 21, across the piano lay one stalwart in seemingly stupefaction, knocked out by the enemy to permit the freer selling of which Magistrate Kay was subsequently knocked out. On each of the pool tables lay one other stalwart apparently just recovering from the exhilaration of the night preceding.

The scene was never rivalled in the history of this community. What do the people of Moncton think of such a scene as that?

To the people of Moncton: Have you no conscience? Are you so blinded with party politics as to fail to see the drift of the tide within the city? Is any government worth the sacrifice on the altar of intoxication, of the future of any young man? It was bad enough for the square faces to be surreptitiously slipped into the pockets of voters before polling day, but the drunken debauch on the night of polling, stamps the city with the stigma of disgrace. Why was not the list published of the drunks arrested in the month of June? Why was there such a jump in the list of drunks in the month of June? Why are more young men today to be seen drunk upon the streets of Moncton than ever before in its history?
