CONGRESSIONAL MILL READY TO RESUME

Washington, D.C., Nov. 29—With the opening of the final session of the Sixty-second Congress but two days away, senators and representatives from near and far are pouring into the capital today on every train. Heavily loaded baggage trucks proclaim to the people of the streets that law-making is about to be resumed. The hotel proprietors, boarding-house keepers and restaurateurs again have put on smiles that won't come off for three months.

It will be a short session of course since it will expire by constitutional limitation on March 4. There may be some feeble attempts at constructive legislation, but they will amount to little, as politicians of both parties admit that the three months is entirely too short a time in which to perform any important task along this line. Little else than the passage of the various appropriation bills is likely to be attempted. Tariff bills will not be heard of until the extra session, it is conceded, but the Burnett immigration bill, the Philippine independence bill and the workmen's compensation bill will be given preference by the rules committee. In addition to these it is expected that the proposition to purchase Monticello, the house of Thomas Jefferson, now owned by Representative Levy of New York, will be sprung early in the session.

In both Houses the session will be remarkable largely in that it will mark the farewell appearance of members who for years have been legends or familiar figures in the Senate or House. Among the senators who will enter upon their final session in the upper House are Wetmore of Rhode Island, Bourne of Oregon, Briggs of New Jersey, Brown of Nebraska, Paynter of Kentucky, Curtis of Kansas, Cullom of Illinois and Crane of Massachusetts.

Chief among the members of the House who will sing their swan song before March 4 is "Uncle Joe" Cannon of Illinois, one of the most picturesque figures in twenty Congresses, barring one, and Speaker of the House for four consecutive terms. Other well known representatives who are about to pass out with the tide are "Nick" Longworth of Ohio, William B. McKinley of Illinois, Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut, William A. Rodenberg of Illinois, Dalzell of Pennsylvania, McCall of Massachusetts, Needham of California, and Pujo of Louisiana.

The opening session Monday, in accordance with precedent, will be brief and largely perfunctory. Several new senators and representatives who have been appointed or elected to fill vacancies that have occurred since the adjournment of the last session will be inducted into office. Both Houses will appoint committees to call upon the President to notify him that Congress is in session. Each branch will appoint another committee to notify the other House that it is in readiness to proceed

Cold Settled On Lungs.

LEFT THEM IN VERY WEAK STATE.

A cold, however slight, should never be neglected, for if it is not treated in time it will, in all possibility, lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or some other serious throat or lung trouble.

Obstinate coughs and colds yield to the grateful, soothing action of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, containing as it does all the lung healing virtues of the Norway Pine tree.

Mr. G. G. Rhynard, Mill Village, N.S., writes:—"I have had occasion to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and can say that it is certainly a good medicine. About a year ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, and left them in a very weak state. The cough racked me terribly, and I was in despair, until a friend advised Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I took five bottles, in all, and it cured me of my cough, and left my lungs strong and well."

Price, 25 and 50 cents.

Be sure you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. See the three pine trees, the trade mark.

with legislative business. When these matters have been disposed of both branches will adjourn "as a further mark of respect" to the members who have passed away since adjournment.

President Taft's annual message is expected to be read before each House on Tuesday. Then the country can watch them thrust and parry and intermittently legislate for three months, barring the time of recess over the Christmas holidays.

There is bound to be a whole lot of preliminary strategy bearing on the turning over of control of all branches of the government to the Democrats next March. But the chances are that, aside from agitation, nothing of great importance actually will happen until the extraordinary session of the Sixty-third Congress convenes at the call of President Wilson.

Chairman Henry of the House rules committee, will be one of the most important figures in the coming session. As there will be a limited supply of calendar Wednesdays, the rules committee will have a tremendous power in shaping the course of legislation during the three months.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill will be ready for business. The figures in the bill have not been made public but it is pretty well understood that the department heads and bureau chiefs have tired of the small estimates of the past two years and in this final effort of the administration's officers have asked for about everything they could possibly think of.

H. Reeves Smith has secured a play entitled "The Dust of Egypt."

NUMEROUS ACCIDENTS IN CANADIAN FOOTBALL

In Canadian football accidents have been quite numerous and the Toronto Argonauts lost three of their stars in "Ross" Binkley, Jack Newton and Dr. Kinsella by injuries received on the field. The most serious accidents were received by Dr. Kinsella of the Argonauts, who had his leg broken, and Martin Kilt, of the Rough Riders, who suffered a broken nose. Following is a list of some of the accidents:

Eddie Gerard, Ottawa, ligaments of shoulder torn, out for the rest of the season.

Martin Kilt, Ottawa, nose broken and knee damaged.

Dr. Kinsella, small bone in leg broken, out for season.

Reaume, Argonauts, head gashed, but continued the game.

Holhen, Ottawa, bad gash in the mouth and nose probably broken.

Black, Ottawa, bad gash on the nose.

"Babe" Burkhart, Toronto, finger broken in the Alert game.

Dunkop, Queen's, twisted leg, had to retire.

Reid, Queen's, injured shoulder.

Paisley, McGill, injured hand, forced to retire.

Cameron, Montreal, injured shoulder.

Reid, Queen's, knee twisted, had to retire.
