LIPTON TO TRY AGAIN FOR THE AMERICA CUP

Sir Thomas Lipton arrived in New York, with the conviction strong within him that he will arrange yet another yacht race for the America Cup.

"Three times already, as everybody knows, I have tried," said Sir Thomas, "to 'lift' the cup which the yacht America captured in English waters sixty-one years ago, and three times I have failed. But now I am prepared to challenge again, to build another Shamrock, to sail her across the Atlantic, and to see whether a British-built yacht with a British crew cannot bring home the blue riband of the yachting world."

"The only question is whether the New York Yacht Club will be willing to accept a challenge under the yachting rules which now apply to every yacht race in American waters—except, at present, to the America Cup."

"In the former races we competed under the conditions laid down in the rules which the New York Yacht Club made sixty years ago, after the cup was won by the America. The America represented as good a type of a sea boat as any boat afloat today. But in those days there was not the measurement rule there is today and under the sixty-year-old rules ship-building science can now produce a boat which is a complete freak and so penalty against such a freak boat is provided."

THE SIXTY-YEAR-OLD RULES.

"Three times I challenged under these sixty-year-old rules and my experience convinced me that it is a fruitless task. No matter how clever a boat we may build, the fact that we have to build her to sail across the Atlantic, while our friends the Americans have not, enables them to build one just a little bit better than ours."

"Now, in yachting there are two sets of rules in the world. One is the universal rule, which in recent years has been adopted by every yacht club in the United States and which applies to every yacht race in American waters, whether on the sea or on the great lakes."

"The other is the international rule, which has been adopted by every yacht club in Europe."

"The international rule is, I think, the better of the two, but I have not come over to America to ask that they shall accept a challenge under the international rule. What I ask them to do is to accept a challenge under their own universal rule. What is good enough for Uncle Sam and the Stars and Stripes is good enough for me, and I want to challenge—I am downright eager to challenge them to race under their own universal rule."

"Under the universal rule you have to adhere to the rules of measurement adopted by all the American yacht clubs. That is what I am prepared to do."

"I don't know that I should win, but even if I were beaten I should feel, when the race was over, that I had been given a fair sporting chance. That is the most I want."

"Not that I have anything to complain of in American sportsmanship, for I have never found better sportsmen, and when I raced over there they always treated me with the utmost kindness and consideration. If any mistake was ever made at all, it was always in my favor. But the starting point is that the old rule is bad and that it is impossible for any boat built in Europe to cross the Atlantic Ocean and win the race under those conditions."

"I think it was about seventeen times that I raced under the old rules and then I came to the conclusion that it was a fruitless game. The American yacht clubs themselves have realized this, in adopting the universal rule, which prohibits any boat of the Shamrock type from racing at any American regatta. We on this side have done the same thing by making the international rule."

"But if we and they have both adopted rules which exclude the freak boat, why not have the America Cup race under similar conditions? If I asked for the race to be under the international rule they might well say that they would not accept the challenge, but when I ask to be allowed to challenge under their own rule I do not think they can object. I would not race if I thought I was receiving any favor."

"Four years ago I did challenge under the universal rule but my challenge was not accepted; yet I thoroughly believe that every yacht club in America is pretty solid for a race under the rules existing in America."

"It is not that I want to push in if any one else on this side were ready to put up a challenge, but it is four years now since I offered to race and no one else had come along, so I think it is my turn to have another try."

THE YACHTING CHAMPION.

Sir Thomas Lipton has indeed, as every yachtsman will admit, a good claim to stand forward as the British challenger for the America Cup, for, apart from his three previous gallant attempts, he has this year proved himself the yachting champion by winning twenty-three first prizes out of twenty-nine in which he competed. He beat the German emperor's yachts and the Krupp schooner in their own waters.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock I and II were beaten by the Columbia in 1894 and 1901, and Shamrock III by the Reliance in 1903. He built another Shamrock in 1908, but he explained then that the boat should not be called Shamrock IV.

"The lucky four-hand Shamrock," he said, "I am reserving for the next cup challenger."

Shamrock IV, therefore, will be the name of Sir Thomas' new yacht if his challenge is accepted.

Sir Thomas' three attempts to "lift" the America Cup have cost him £400,000, and about £1,000,000 has been spent in the twelve attempts to recover the cup since the America beat all comers in a race round the Isle of Wight in 1851.

OTTAWA PRISONER HAS A BAD RECORD

Arthur W. Brownsley, alias Smith, Sir Hugh Bagnall, Beggs, Baggs, Beas, etc., now under remand in the county jail on three separate charges of theft, is alleged to be a smooth and clever confidence man who has fooled two American detective agencies and evaded the police of the principal cities of the eastern continent.

The prisoner whose right name is believed to be Brownsley was arrested by Detective Culver a few days ago in connection with the theft of several hundred pairs of boots and shoes from one of the leading shoe houses of this city. He appeared in the police court and has twice been remanded.

Chief Ross this morning received communications from American cities the Maritime Provinces and Hamilton, showing that the accused had worked from Boston, Mass., to Hamilton and from there east to the Maritime Provinces, leaving a trail of bogus checks behind him and many cases of embezzlement.

Brownsley as far as can be learned was first heard of by the police in 1910, when he appeared in the city of Boston. At that time he represented himself to be an expert detective, secured employment with the Ray Detective Agency, was given $10 salary and advanced $50 more. He worked for a few days and then disappeared with the $90 in cash.

He was next heard of in Hamilton in 1911, where he again worked the detective game, this time passing himself off in some quarters as manager of Keen's private detective agency. Here it is alleged he passed a bogus cheque. He opened a bank account and at the time of closing it drew out $112.

November 28 of the same year saw Brownsley working in Truro, N. S., under the name of Beggs or Baggs. Some more bogus cheques were passed and the forger is said to have embezzled Truro and Halifax citizens out of several hundred dollars. From Truro he worked to Amherst, New Glasgow and St. John soliciting insurance for various insurance companies with which he never was connected. After fattening his financial means from this source he jumped to Halifax.

He again disappeared. A month later Brownsley paid a visit to Toronto and embezzled a woman resident out of $400.

Ten days ago Brownsley was arrested by Detective Culver for stealing a large quantity of boots and shoes from Pratt's boot and shoe store on Wellington Street. According to his evidence in the police court yesterday morning Brownsley was assisted in the theft of the boots by the son of a prominent resident who is also standing trial on a similar charge.

Evidently fearing that his past record would be discovered by the Ottawa police Brownsley yesterday asked for a speedy trial and sentence.

IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED AND NERVOUS TAKE DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Gently, But Thoroughly Cleans and Regulates Your Disordered Stomach, Inactive Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels Without Gripping, Nausea or Weakness

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness, pimples—take delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without gripping, nausea or weakness. It means a cherry day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for luscious figs, senna and aromatics can not injure anyone.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised.

The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what a cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embody only harmless laxatives, which act in a natural way. It does what right food would do—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old genuine and reliable. Ask your druggist for the full name. "Syrup of Figs and Exlixir of Senna," prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitation recommended as "just as good."
